East Bay Plane Crash Kills 2 Hamilton Men

FATAL FLIGHT — Two Hamilton Air Force Base men — a captain who was to have been married on April 4 and his enlisted man companion — died in the crash of this privately owned T34 plane early today on a ranch near Livermore in southern Alameda County. (AP Wirephoto)

1 Victim Was To Wed Soon

Two Hamilton Air Force Base fliers, one of whom was to be married on April 4, were killed today in a plane crash near Livermore.

Capt. Charles R. Malloy, 36, the bridegroom-to-be, and A/2c Richard W. Cahill, 21, both of the 78th Field Maintenance Squadron, were victims of the crash. They were flying back to Hamilton from Pomona in a T34 propeller-driven plane which belonged to the Hamilton Aero Club, a semi-private flying club for military personnel at the base. Captain Malloy was at the controls.

CRASHES IN FOG

The plane crashed in dense early morning fog on the Old Colony ranch, eight miles east of Livermore. Captain Malloy died at the controls, strapped to the seat. The body of Airman Cahill was thrown clear.

The plane did not burn.

Pete Yroz, an employee at the ranch, found the wreck and notified the Alameda County sheriff's office, United Press International reported.

Malloy and Cahill had flown south Tuesday to attend a funeral—that of Catherine Joyce Field, Malloy's half-cousin and godchild.

APRIL 4 WEDDING

Captain Malloy, a widower, had engaged the Hamilton Base Chapel for April 4 for his wedding to a Denver, Colo., woman. Officials at Hamilton did not know the name of the captain's fiancee, nor of his 7-year-old

CHIANG VOWS FIGHT IF TIBET REVOLT KEEPS UP

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — President Chiang Kai-shek said today he would lead his Nationalist Chinese forces against the Communists if the Tibetan rebels carry on their fight.

Chiang, in his first statement since the anti-Communist revolt broke out in Tibet, said the Nationalists are "making every possible effort" to aid the revolutionary forces.

Chiang's declaration followed reports from Nationalist intelligence sources that the insurgents have cut the two mainland routes from Red China to the remote Himalayan kingdom.

New Hospital Bond Issue Vote In Offing

Directors of the Marin County Hospital District apparently pushed the button today to start the machinery for another bond issue attempt this year.

The directors (1) set for next Tuesday at 4 p.m. an adjourned meeting to consider the possible formation of a citizens committee to support an issue, and (2) set for April 2 a meeting of the Marin General Hospital medical staff with hospital planners to discuss possible revised needs for hospital expansion.

The actions came in the wake of the announcement yesterday of a half-million-dollar grant to the hospital from the Babcock Memorial Foundation which could be applied along with federal and local funds for hospital expansion.

The last two bond issues of the district narrowly failed to achieve a two-thirds majority necessary for passage.

It is expected that with the aid of the Babcock and federal funds a local bond issue this year might be only about half the amount of the $950,000 issue sought last year.

Allied Leaders Tell Russia Conditions For Summit Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and French President Charles de Gaulle agreed conditionally today to meet Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the summit on the Berlin crisis and other problems.

They differed materially, however, in the emphasis they placed on the conditions.

A U.S. note said this country is prepared for a meeting of heads of state "on the understanding" that a prior meeting of foreign ministers at least narrows differences and prepares "constructive proposals."

The British note to the Kremlin took a considerably more positive approach. It said the British would be glad to go to the summit "as soon as developments in the foreign ministers meeting warrant." It spoke of a summit meeting this summer, whereas the U.S. note only spoke of such a conference as soon as the foreign ministers' action might "justify" it.

The French language concerning conditions was still stiffer than that of the United States.

President de Gaulle, in his note to Moscow, made his attendance hinge on whether the foreign ministers meeting "permits the envisagement of genuine progress" at the top.

NO SPECIFIC TIME

And the French spoke only of a summit session "at an appropriate time" instead of mentioning this summer.

All three of the Western notes reserved the right of all participants to bring up whatever subjects they choose.

That is in contrast to the Soviet idea of confining the talks solely to Berlin and a German peace treaty. In a March 2 note the Kremlin proposed that the foreign ministers meeting, at least, be held exclusively to those subjects.

U.S. officials said that in spite of the differences in wording, they considered the Western notes to say substantially the same thing.

MINISTERS' MEETING

The Western powers proposed that the foreign ministers, meeting start in Geneva May 11 "to consider questions relating to Germany, including a peace treaty with Germany and the question of Berlin."

From there on, they went into their divergent approaches to the summit session.

Despite the variations of emphasis, the Western proposals appeared to bring closer the prospect of a conference of President Eisenhower, Macmillan and de Gaulle with Khrushchev.

Liner Rams Tanker; 1 Killed, 3 Missing

(Picture on page 8)

NEW YORK (UPI)—The cruise ship Santa Rosa sliced into the tanker Valchem in apparently good weather in the Atlanic early today, nearly cutting the cargo vessel in two.

One tanker crewman was killed, three were missing and 16 were injured, the Coast Guard said, in the 3 a.m. crash 22 miles east of Atlantic City, N.J.

Nobody on the plush cruise ship was hurt, but a fire broke out in a forward paint room. It was kept from spreading but smoldered for hours before it was extinguished.

The Coast Guard and ship owners could give no immediate reason for the collision. Both vessels were equipped with radar and the U.S. Weather Bureau said there was eight-mile visibility in the area at the time of the collision.

A tanker crewman, flown to Atlantic City by Coast Guard helicopter, was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital.

Seventeen other Valchem crewmen were transferred to the Santa Rosa. Three were to be hospitalized in New York, 13 were treated for minor injuries and one was uninjured, the Coast Guard said.

At 10:10 a.m., the 20,000-ton Santa Rosa steamed slowly from the scene under her own power and headed for New York. The 25-million-dollar vessel, placed in service to the Caribbean area last June, was expected to dock early this evening. It carried 247 passengers and a crew of 265.

The Santa Rosa's prow knifed half through the stern section of the 10,146-ton tanker and disabled its engines. For some two and one-half hours, the ships were kept wedged together until their captains decided there would be no danger

Lucky Store To Open April 15

The new Lucky Store in Fairfax is scheduled to open April 15, according to a spokesman at the market chain's headquarters in San Leandro.

The half-million-dollar supermarket is being built by Clarewood Co. of Berkeley on property of Max Friedman at Center boulevard and Pastori avenue. Work on the site began last July. Signs are already in place on the concrete and stone-faced supermarket. A 9,000 square foot parking lot adjoins the market.

North Marin Hospital Vote Set May 26

Marin County Hospital District directors today officially set May 26 as the date for the Novato hospital secession election and hinted there may be another hospital district vote this year—on a bond issue proposal.

Polls wil be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. May 26 at five polling places within the Novato Fire District, for residents to approve or disapprove withdrawal of their area from the hospital district.

At a public hearing March 18 in Novato the board held it was unable to find that North Marin received no benefit from the county hospital district so could not grant separation without an election.

At the suggestion of board president Wilson P. Goddard, the board today approved a statement of its feeling regarding the election.

The statement said the board feels it is in the best interests of Novato and the district for

1-Way Plan To Extend 'Big Circle' Proposed

A revised one-way street plan for San Rafael, which would extend the "Big Circle" but not directly affect the West End area, won unanimous approval of the mayor's one-way street committee this morning.

The plan, worked out by City Planner Mitchell Baird, will be presented to the city council for approval.

This is how the plan would work:

Third street would be one-way westbound from Irwin street to E street, where traffic could disperse north or south. Second street would be one-way eastbound from D street to Irwin street underpass. The rest of Second street, from D street to the Miracle Mile, would be two ways as at present. Irwin street would be one-way from the underpass northbound to Mission avenue,

San Rafael Chef Badly Hurt In Black Point Cutoff Crash

A 33-year-old San Rafael restaurant chef was seriously injured in a side-swipe automobile collision at 5:40 p.m. yesterday on the Black Point cutoff.

Taken to the hospital by United Ambulance, Panamaroff had a compound fracture of the lower left arm and badly cut left hand. His elbow was shattered and several nerves torn. He was given emergency transfusions of plasma and blood.

Panamaroff was eastbound on Highway 37 on the Marin approach to the Black Point Bridge. California Highway Patrol Officer V. C. Weimer, was talking to a motorist whose car was out of gasoline and parked on the north road shoulder. Officer Weimer heard the crash and ducked to avoid being hit by flying glass and debris.

The point of impact determined by skid marks showed that Panamaroff's Thunderbird was on the wrong side of the white line, Officer Weimer reported.

Driver of the westbound car was Helen Amy Devlin, 35, of 431 Cascade drive, Fairfax. She apparently was uninjured.

Fair Weather In Store Tomorrow

Conditions remained unstable over Northern California today, however. Scattered showers still were falling in the extreme north and light showers were expected today as far south as the Santa Maria area, the Weather Bureau said.

Snow flurries were forecast for the high mountains.

THAT POLIO SHOT WASN'T BAD, WAS IT?

Not to judge by the expression of this youngster from St. Vincent's School for Boys. Today every boy at the school went by school bus to the county health department at Fourth street and Grand avenue in San Rafael and lined up for the second of his three inoculations of Salk polio vaccine. (Polio shots are given at the health department clinic on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons between 1 and 4 o'clock.) Beaming at the youngster who braved the needle so well are Sister Mary Gonzaga, Public Health Nurse Rachel Parker and Dr. H. E. Marston.

Education Board Candidates Debate

Five candidates for the San Rafael Board of Education today expressed varying opinions over the issues of countywide school unification, educational "frills," loyalty oaths for teachers and teaching "communism in the schools."

The five appeared on radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board," moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer. The program will be rebroadcast from a recording Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Speakers were incumbents Rex Silvernale, C. Paul Bettini and Roderick P. Martinelli, and aspirant C. Roy Calder, systems analyst for a San Francisco bank, and William G. Thompson, KTIM newscaster.

Regarding unification:

"Unification of schools in the county as a whole is impossible," declared Martinelli, "and I am opposed to it—although it would benefit certain small or adjoining districts."

"Unification on a countywide basis is inevitable, and the people will benefit educationally and financially," countered Thompson.

"In the next 10 or 20 years, with our population in Marin increasing as it is today, we will have to have unification."

Silvernale, who has served with the County Committee on School District Organization, agreed that "some unification" would prove beneficial. "There is a good possibility that the San Jose and Novato school districts will unify at a special election May 19," he added.

Calder also declared himself in favor of unification "in any area." With unification, "better ends of education are achieved," he said.

"Frills":

"I have been dubbed a 'foe of frills,'" said Calder, "whatever that means. I do believe in a strong fundamental curriculum. I would like to increase the academic standard of our schools and get back to to the three R's—to provide as much knowledge as possible to the student without permitting him to take the easy way out."

Incumbents Martinelli and Bettini emphatically agreed with Silvernale that "we are indulging in no frills in San Rafael schools."

"Many persons might classify anything but reading, writing and arithmetic as frills," asserted Silvernale. "But in San Rafael we consider the music program as one of the most vital being offered. We are operating a comprehensive system."

Thompson contradicted an assertion by Silvernale that San Rafael High School graduates "rank high at the University of California and are in the top 10 per cent at Stanford." Thompson declared: "A professor in the science department at a Bay Area college recently told me that San Rafael High School graduates have made the poorest showing."

"There is not enough homework given at the lower levels," added Thompson. "I'm not for homework for homework's sake, but children should learn to work . . . Our aim should not be to turn out happy, satisfied, mediocre students."

LOYALTY OATHS

Loyalty oaths:

To a radio listener's question, "what do you think about loyalty oaths?" Silvernale and Martinelli agreed that they had no particular objection to them. Bettini said, "no comment." Thompson and Calder both declared "violent" opposition.

"The loyalty oath has nothing whatever to do with determining a teacher's qualifications as a teacher," said Calder. "There are other means available for determining a person's loyalty to country."

"Persons whom loyalty oaths are intended to disqualify are just the persons most apt to sign them," declared Thompson.

ON COMMUNISM

Communism:

Another questioner asked: "Explain the nest of social science teachers who are encouraging foreign ideologies in the classroom."

The three incumbents all declared that no such situation exists.

"I studied communism in school," said Martinelli, "and I believe all students should become aware of the different ideologies."

Calder agreed that communism should not be banned from studies. "The better equipped students are to understand foreign ideologies, the better able will they be to cope with them when they are encountered later on," he said.

Congress last night sent to President Eisenhower, a bill extending the program to June 30 but limiting it to persons who become jobless before April 1.

Eisenhower is expected to sign it soon.

It is estimated to benefit about 405,000 persons at a cost of 78 million dollars.

Gerald N. Hill of Mill Valley, California Democratic Council district director, announced appointment of attorney John Dunlap of Napa as committee chairman. Other members are Charles M. Geller of San Anselmo, I. A. Barlas of Petaluma and Conrad Goerl of Ukiah.

Ike's Budget Unbalanced, Experts Say

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Democratic Congress, under fire for unbalancing President Eisenhower's new budget, came up with evidence today that it never was balanced in the first place.

Congressional staff tax experts reported that the President's precariously "balanced" budget actually called for $1,200,000,000 in red-ink spending in the fiscal year starting July 1 because the President overestimated tax revenues by $1,300,000,000.

COULD HIKE DEFICIT

The report said that moves in Congress could, if carried to completion, boost the spending deficit for the new fiscal year above four billion dollars.

The report came from the staff of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation. Its tax revenue estimates, issued every spring, generally are accepted by Democrats and Republicans as more reliable than the administration's January budget estimates.

The report produced differing reactions.

LIBERAL REACTION

The reaction of some liberal Democrats who have been denounced for "budget-busting" because they have been pushing for a bigger federal spending program was "I told you so; the so-called balanced budget was a phony all along."

But Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), a leader of the congressional economy bloc, accepted the report as the signal for ever greater efforts to hold down congressional moves to boost spending above budgeted levels.

"The need for the President to veto every bill involving excessive expenditures is crystal clear," he said.

(AP Wirephoto)

Suspected Kidnaper Caught With Girl, 12

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A former mental patient was captured today with a 12-year-old girl he carried away from her home here yesterday. He was booked for investigation of kidnaping.

However, both the man, William Edward Beckwith, 26, and thin, freckle-faced Lois Marbut, denied to officers that she was kidnaped.

Sheriff's Deputies Jesse Hale and Les Skiles spotted Beckwith's car stalled in a country lane 10 miles east of Marysville at 2 a.m. The husky Beckwith, unkempt and shoeless, offered no resistance.

He and the girl had been the object of a massive police search across Northern California since yesterday afternoon, when he took Lois and two playmates out of town, dropping off the other two children about 20 miles north of here.

At the sheriff's office in Marysville, about 35 miles north of Sacramento, Beckwith said that he had merely taken Lois for an afternoon drive. He said he intended "to telephone her mother at daylight."

Lois did not appear harmed.

Lois is a twin daughter of Mrs. Thomas Bryant of suburban Gardenland and J. D. Marbut of nearby Rio Linda. Deputies said Mrs. Bryant is divorced from Lois' father and separated from her present husband.

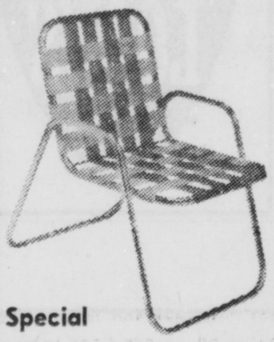

Deputies said Beckwith had been "an habitual escapee" from Stockton State Hospital until he received an indefinite leave last June 4

He has a record of arrest for petty offenses.

Deputies questioned Beckwith in connection with the slaying of 9-year-old Candice Rogers, Girl Scout found ravished outside Spokane, Wash., Sunday. She vanished March 6 while selling mints door to door.

They said Beckwith acknowledged he returned recently from Washington after visiting his ex-wife. They are uncertain where she lives.

Engineer Oglesby Sells Business; He'll Stay On As Director

John C. Oglesby today announced that he is selling the Marin County civil engineering practice which he has carried on for nearly half a century to a new corporation, of which he will be a director.

The firm, to take over April 1 at Oglesby's office at 1322 Fifth avenue in San Rafael, will be known as Oglesby, Jacobs and Wickham.

Its principals will be J. Donovan Jacobs, a neighbor of Oglesby on Almenar drive in Greenbrae, as president; George E. Wickham of Mill Valley, as vice president and resident manager, and Oglesby as director.

STAYS WITH CITIES

Oglesby announced he will continue to serve as city engineer for Larkspur, San Anselmo and Ross and will continue to act as individual consultant.

"At 74, I think it's about time to quit climbing hills," commented Oglesby in announcing the sale. He will complete projects on which he is now engaged, he said.

The 12 employees in the office will continue in their present positions under Wickham's management, the three owners of the new firm announced.

Jacobs and Wickham are associated in Jacobs Associates, a San Francisco civil engineering firm with an office at 503 Market street and a branch in Sydney, Australia.

PUBLIC WORKS

Jacobs established Jacobs Associates, a corporation, four years ago. The firm specializes in the field of public works, dealing extensively with construction problems. It has contracts in connection with the Snowy Mountains hydroelectric project in Australia, a complex of dams, power plants and distribution lines which Jacobs described as "a sort of Australian TVA."

Jacobs has also done civil engineering work in many parts of the United States, including Hawaii, and in New Zealand and Fiji. He worked on the Queens-Midtown Tunnel and Delaware Aqueduct projects in New York and spent three years in Cleveland, Ohio, before moving to California. He also did engineering work in Montana, Indiana and Delaware.

All his work was with Walsh Construction Co. until he set up his own business. He was born in Minnesota and received his engineering degree from University of Minnesota in 1934.

Jacobs and his wife moved to Greenbrae eight years ago. They have one son.

Wickham has been a Marin resident since childhood. He was born in Nebraska. He attended College of Marin and received his engineering degree from University of California in 1947.

He was a civil engineer and construction manager for Utah Construction Co. for 10 years prior to joining the Jacobs firm two years ago. He and his wife, the former Caroline Phelps, live on Manor drive in Mill Valley. They have three children.

STARTED IN 1913

The new owners move into a business which had its beginning in 1913 when Oglesby, a University of Alabama graduate who moved to San Francisco two years earlier, became city engineer of Larkspur—a job he still holds. It was incorporated four years ago as John C. Oglesby Engineering Co.

Over the years, Oglesby has been city engineer for every incorporated city in Marin County except Fairfax. He resigned as city engineer of Sausalito only this year, and still serves in that capacity for Larkspur (continuously since 1913), San Anselmo and Ross. He laid out all of Larkspur's streets.

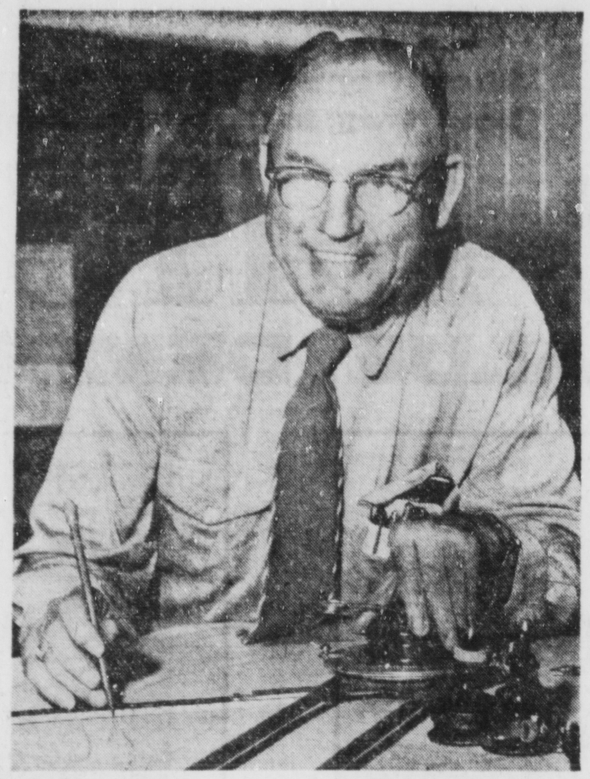

From 1919 to 1927, and again from 1942 until the office was abolished at the end of 1954, Oglesby was county surveyor. In this job he laid out many county roads, including Panoramic highway, Tiburon boulevard, San Pedro road and what is now State Highway 1.

MANY SUBDIVISIONS

Oglesby has engineered so many subdivision projects in Marin that he long ago lost count of them.

He expressed hope his less arduous duties under the new office setup will give him more time for relaxation at his ranch in Cazadero, Sonoma County.

Said Wickham of the new owners' plans for the business: "We don't know any better way to carry on than to follow the path that John Oglesby has so capably beaten. . . . We expect to give attention to planning and design of both public works and commercial and industrial developments, without losing sight of the fact that real estate development engineering will probably account for a major part of our work."

Five successive showings of an all-Disney film program at the Rafael Theater in San Rafael will begin at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Bill Entered To Help Curb Pornography

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Publishers of obscene literature "have created a universal schoolyard sex service," Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) declared yesterday as he introduced legislation designed to curb the business.

"This loathesome industry," Francis said, does half a billion dollars worth of business a year, three-quarters of it to youngsters under 18.

His measures define obscene material as that appealing predominantly to purient interest. They outlaw requiring book and magazine dealers to take lewd material in order to get other reading material for sale.

They also toughen penalties for distributing obscene literature to youngsters as well as make it illegal to use minors to handle it.

"Some of your largest distributors are minors right in school yards," Francis said.

The assemblyman said he has considerable support but expects opposition from civil liberties groups and possibly others on claims the bills could encourage censorship.

Francis, however, denied they would mean any form of censorship.

Petition Passers Target Of Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assemblyman Bruce F. Allen (R-Los Gatos) introduced a bill today to outlaw professional petition circulators in California elections.

"All you have to do now is plunk down $200,000 to buy an initiative," he said. "This business of buying signatures to qualify an initiative or referendum measure is an interference with the democratic process."

Which Sanitary Area To Join? Advice Sought

The Paradise Drive Property Owners Assn. today sought professional advice as to which of two existing sanitary districts to join.

One hundred and forty-three members attended a meeting of the association last night, called to consider a sanitary district to serve properties along the drive. After three and one-half hours of discussion, they decided to hire a sanitary engineer to give advice on whether to join Richardson Bay Sanitary District or Corte Madera Sanitary District.

The engineer's study is to be presented within 30 days, said A. Jack Weber, association president.

"There is a proposal now before the Marin County Planning Commission by the Pullman Co. for inclusion of the Paradise Cay sanitary service line in the Corte Madera Sanitary District," Weber said. "If this request is granted, residents of Paradise drive are committeed to be in the Corte Madera district.

"According to cost figures presented by representatives of the two districts last night, the project will cost us $300,000 in the Richardson Bay district and from $700,000 to $800,000 in the Corte Madera district.

"We want to investigate this discrepancy fully before we are committed to one course of action."

Loyal M. Nerdahl, president of the Richardson Bay district, B. K. Rippe of the Corte Madera district, and County Sanitarian William H. Desmond addressed the group. Representatives of the Pullman Co. were also present at the meeting in the Reed School auditorium.

Mayors Name Group To Study Fire Policy

A three-member committee was appointed last night by the Marin County Council of Mayors to delineate the group's policy on fire protection in unincorporated territory.

Mayor Robert D. Huber of Mill Valley was named chairman of the committee, with Councilmen Carmel H. Booth of San Anselmo and Kenneth M. Edgar of Fairfax as members.

The mayors indicated the committee might suggest a policy in connection with other county services.

The mayors' council last month directed a letter to the county board of supervisors asking changes in the coverage and cost spread of fire protection to areas not within cities or fire districts. The board heard the letter two weeks ago and said it was not specific enough.

The committee appointed last night is to draw up specific proposals for a second letter to the supervisors.

In other action, the mayors unanimously approved a request by Ross Councilman Harry C. Scott that the cities urge Assemblyman Richard H. McCollister to support a legislative bill which would permit cities to control, through zoning regulations, the construction of schools or state facilities within incorporated cities.

Scott told the mayors that under present statues, a school or state facility may be built in any incorporated city of the state without regard to local zoning provisions.

The mayors also heard Joseph B. Rice of Corte Madera, longtime director of the California State Automobile Assn., make a plea for continued study of pedestrian safety and to adopt precautionary measures recommended by the association as a result of exhaustive studies.

The mayors will hold their next meeting April 29 in Sausalito.

Bill Sets Penalties For Drunken Flying

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A measure designed to crack down on drunken airplane pilots passed its first legislative test yesterday before the Assembly Public Utilities Committee.

The bill, authored by Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo), would permit a judge to sentence a convicted drunk flier to six months in jail, a $1,000 fine and a year's suspension of his pilot's license.

Under present law the judge can impose a jail sentence and fine or license suspension but not both.

Fairfax Boy, 14, Admits Lewd Calls

An anonymous telephone caller who has been plaguing housewives and girls with lewd remarks during the past month turned out to be a 14-year-old Fairfax boy who dialed numbers at random, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos revealed yesterday.

Sheriff's inspectors, questioning the boy at Marin Juvenile Hall yesterday said the youth has already admitted making at least 30 telephone calls. His confessions could mount to 100 or more, they said.

The boy called a 15-year-old girl in San Geronimo Tuesday afternoon and made an appointment to meet her at a parking lot in San Anselmo. The girl, working with sheriff's inspectors, kept the appointment. The boy walked into the arms of the law.

Inspectors Bowen Bridges and Guido Battaglia said the boy admitted making lewd calls for the past month to women and girls in Mill Valley, Fairfax, San Anselmo, San Rafael, San Geronimo, Lagunitas and Woodacre.

Atomic Space Tests Spread Deadly Shell

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. atomic tests above the South Atlantic last year spread a 100-mile thick shell of deadly radiation over the earth at altitudes of up to 4,000 miles.

This was disclosed late yesterday when the White House released a 2,400-word report giving the first details on scientific results of the high-altitude Argus experiment.

Dr. Herbert York, research director for the Defense Department, said the strongest part of the shell compared in intensity with the natural radiation zones in space named after Dr. James A. Van Allen of the University of Iowa.

He told reporters at a White House news conference that bigger bombs would have created a correspondingly bigger and more intense zone of radiation.

Military details were kept out of the White House report, and York refused to discuss the explosions' effect on such things as radio communications, missile electronic equipment and radar early warning systems.

Poisoned Fish Scare Narrowed To 2 Areas

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A poisoned fish scare that spread through 16 eastern states after the death of a 3-year-old boy and a farm laborer was narrowed by health officials today to the Philadelphia and south New Jersey area.

Persons in that region were warned to throw away any filet of flounder of fluke they may have purchased since Monday. Authorities said all poisoned fish except that already purchased by the public has been recovered.

Dead are Dale Kleinschmidt, 3, of Haddon Heights, N.J., and Charles McQuade, 53, of Philadelphia. Both ate flounder dinners Tuesday night, and medical authorities suspect fish poisoning.

All the poisoned fish was in the form of filet, according to Philadelphia Health Commissioner James P. Dixon.

Dixon said the poison involved was sodium nitrite, a chemical similar to salt in appearance which sometimes is used in weak solution to preserve fish between the time it is processed and the time it is put on sale in refrigerated cases. Dixon speculated the solution used might have been stronger than intended or that the chemical might have been mistaken for salt and used to wash the fish.

Some Vets May Lose Tax Benefit

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A Senate committee has done its part to save California almost six million dollars a year in taxes.

The Revenue and Taxation Committee this week approved a bill which would strip the property tax exemption from 80,000 veterans who did not serve in wartime and killed a bill which would have exempted prescription drugs from the sales tax.

RECOVERED FROM SEA

Dummy Space Capsules Successful In Air Drops

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dummy space capsules the size of those that someday may carry American spacemen into orbit have been dropped into the ocean from high-flying planes and recovered intact, scientists reported today.

After they dropped in free fall for set distances, parachutes opened to slow the capsules' descent.

Next step in the space research program: Development of materials to absorb the shock of landings on ground.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration today reported significant progress in air drops, escape techniques, impact tests, and wind tunnel and flight studies of model capsules.

The early research is part of Project Mercury, the program to place a man in orbit around the earth.

Space scientists have been experimenting at Wallops Island, Va., on the firing of escape rockets that would permit a man to get out of a capsule high enough in the air for a parachute to open—if trouble should develop soon after launching.

The agency disclosed today that its scientists last summer developed methods for dropping a full scale model capsule from an Air Force C130 Hercules transport.

In the tests over land, capsules were pushed out of C130s almost 10 miles above the earth. They fell into target areas in the Army's Ft. Bragg, N.C., "Salerno" and "Normandy" drop zones, and on a deserted airfield at West Point, Va.

Maureen and her twin sister found the seven-month-old puppy recently and took him to their hearts. Wilding To Host Former Wife Liz

When a Daily Herald reporter expressed surprise at this arrangement, Wilding said:

"Why not? Elizabeth is coming over in May with my two boys—whom I adore. Naturally I want them to stay with me. Obviously she will come and stay with us as well. We are all good friends, you know."

Wilding is now married to wealthy Susan Nell. He added he did not think Eddie Fisher would be coming to England at this time.

Dixie District To Call Bids On Site Grading

The trustees also approved plans for the 10-classroom seventh-eighth grade school building submitted by John Lyon Reid and Partners, architects. These will go to the state Division of Architecture for approval.

The building is estimated to cost $182,000. Cost of the site work is estimated at $50,000.

Paving of Las Gallinas avenue in front of Hoffman School in Terra Linda by E. A. Forde Co. of San Anselmo was finally accepted, three and one-half months after the job was to have been completed.

The trustees instructed Superintendent Willis to "do anything necessary" to induce State Sen. John F. McCarthy to work up opposition in the Senate to AB 156, a California League of Cities-sponsored measure which would turn selection of school sites over to city councils and county boards of supervisors.

Ambrose C. Chase of San Rafael was hired as janitor for the Terra Linda Community Building, which the school district rents from the Terra Linda Community Services District to handle overflow kindergarten and first and second grade classes from Hoffman School.

Also, the board was notified that the state fire marshal has ordered installation of an automatic fire alarm in the community building. Trustees reluctantly agreed to have the school district bear the cost.

Trustee Marcus W. Savage was absent.

Plea Issued Against Live Easter Pets

The Marin County Humane Society today issued a plea against the purchase of live chicks, ducklings or rabbits as Easter pets for children.

Persons who sell them, declared Mel L. Morse, Humane Society manager, "openly defy the laws . . . and cause much suffering, not only on the part of the little fowl or rabbits, but the heartbreak of children when the pets become ill or injured from being literally 'loved to death.'"

Marin County ordinance makes it unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to display, sell, offer for sale, barter or give away any chicks, rabbits or ducklings or other fowl as pets or novelties, said Morse.

Despite the law, he said, every Easter the society learns of cases where chicks, ducklings and rabbits have been sold.

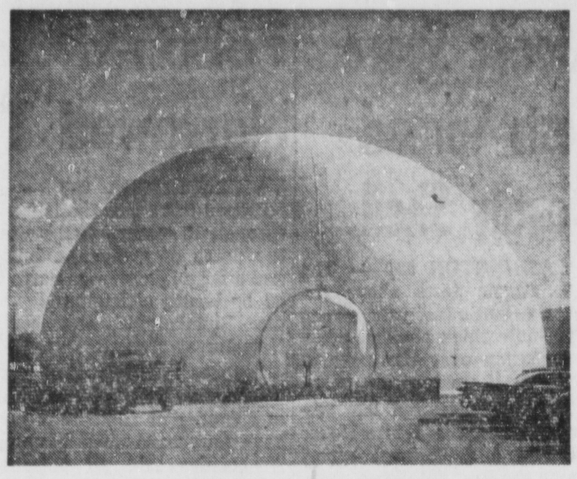

"Every commercial raiser knows that the fragile bundles of life must have a set temperature and careful handling for the first few weeks of life," said Morse.

"The society suggests that if Easter is to be celebrated with a toy, it should be an inanimate object that can be loved and squeezed."

Harbor Fund Bill Back In Assembly

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill permitting cities and counties to borrow money from the state for small craft harbors without submitting the transaction to a vote of the people was back on the track today in the Assembly.

The measure, authored by Assemblyman Robert Crown (D-Alameda) was passed by the Assembly two weeks ago but was subsequently reconsidered and sent back to the Public Utilities Committee.

The committee sent the bill —with minor amendments— back to the floor yesterday.

Under the terms of the bill, cities and counties could borrow state money for small craft harbors with no more security than the harbor itself and without referring the plan to the voters of the area.

Plan To Reduce Bay Authority Powers Urged

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A plan to strip the proposed Golden Gate Authority of control over all San Francisco-Oakland Bay facilities except five toll bridges is under study today.

The new plan, excluding the Golden Gate Bridge, was proposed after authority backers, led by Oakland industrialist Edgar Kaiser, conferred with City Atty. Dion Holm and a supervisors' committee hearing on the authority proposal.

Kaiser agreed yesterday to have lawyers write up a substitute legislative measure covering only the bridges but expressed his unhappiness over the shrunken authority with the words:

"I want to make it clear that on behalf of the proponents I am not ready to say that I will give up the airports, seaports and Golden Gate Bridge."

If adopted, the new plan would remove the five bridges from control by the state Division of Bay Toll Crossings.

Regional Planning Conference For Bay Area Slated

These questions will be discussed at the Bay Area Conference on Regional Planning to be held in San Francisco on April 3. Planners and officials from nine counties and 80 cities will gather at the dinner meeting on the 13th floor of the Marines' Memorial Club, Sutter and Mason streets.

Marin County will be represented by a delegation headed by Pat Hetherton, chairman of the San Rafael Planning Commission, and Mary Summers, county planning director.

He was placed on six months probation by Judge Richard M. Sims Jr.

Crucifixion Was Romans' Most Savage Torture

Gospels Tell Story Of Christ's Agony In Four Stark Words

By LOUIS CASSELS
U.P. International

The gospel accounts tell the story in four stark wards:

". . . and they crucified him."

No elaboration was necessary, at the time the gospels were written, to convey the agony of Jesus' death. Crucifixion was known throughout the Roman world as the most horrible form of execution ever devised. It was slow death by torture.

This form of capital punishment was usually reserved for slaves and insurrectionists. The condemned man was nailed through his hands and feet to a wooden cross, and left to hang there until he died of what modern medical science would describe as a state of shock induced by excruciating pain.

It usually required about 12 hours for a crucified man to die. Cicero records that most of the victims became raving maniacs. It was often necessary, he adds, to cut out their tongues to put a stop to their terrible screams and curses.

Jesus had already undergone many hours of suffering before he reached the skull-shaped hill called Golgotha on which his cross was planted.

During the long hours of the night, the soldiers had buffeted him and spat upon him, fitting a purple robe around his shoulders and thrusting a sharp crown of thorns onto his head to mock the "king of the Jews."

Pilate had "scourged" him. A scourging was a brutal beating administered to prisoners with a special kind of whip whose many thongs were loaded with bits of metal.

In keeping with Roman custom, he was required to carry the heavy wooden crossbar to which his outstretched arms would be nailed. (The upright pole of the cross was already in place at the execution site.)

Exhausted by his sleepless night and the beating he had received, Jesus stumbled under the load. The guards compelled a bystander, Simon of Cyrene, to carry the cross for Jesus. Cyrene was a town of North Africa, and an ancient legend holds that Simon was a Negro, who later became a Christian apostle.

At Golgotha, Jesus was stripped to a loin cloth and the Roman soldiers rolled dice for his clothing. He was offered wine containing an opiate — an act of mercy which women of Jerusalem customarily extended to crucified men. But he would not take the pain-easing drug.

It was nine o'clock on a Friday morning when they nailed him to the cross.

Curious onlookers waited for him to curse and rail like other crucified men. When he remained silent, some of them began to taunt him, "If you're the Messiah," they said, "come down from that pole, and we'll believe in you."

"Father, forgive them," he said, "for they know not what they do."

Toward the end of his six-hour ordeal on the cross, Jesus uttered a cry that has been a source of great perplexity to his followers.

He cried:

"My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

Some modern scholars point out that these are the opening words of the 22nd Psalm — a psalm that goes on to answer the question with a fervent affirmation of faith in God's unchanging love.

Others, however, see in this cry of despair a brief glimpse of the ultimate agony which Jesus suffered on the cross — that of "bearing the sins of all mankind," taking on himself the total burden of humanity's guilt and alienation from God.

When the end finally came, at 3 p.m., Jesus was once again serene. His dying words were:

"Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit."

San Clemente Levee Discussed

Members of the Marina Village Improvement Club discussed the proposed levee on San Clemente Creek and elected a nominating committee at a meeting Tuesday night at 108 Harbor drive.

Tony C. Freitas, president, said club members went on record urging early action on the proposed improvement of Paradise drive in Corte Madera.

Members of the nominating committee include Charles W. Garrison, chairman; Jess Raphael, Mrs. Bruna Massoletti, Mrs. Patricia Hamilton, Mrs. Gloria Artegiani, Russell Clark and Robert Gutowsky. The committee will present a slate of nominees at the April 28 meeting.

Miller To Meet With Marin Demos

Rep. Clement W. Miller will begin a round of meetings in his home county of Marin next Thursday with a noon luncheon with Democratic leaders at the Edgewater Inn in Corte Madera.

The meeting with members of the Marin and state Democratic Central Committees and the executive board and officers of the Marin Democratic Assembly, will be held instead of a meeting previously scheduled for that hour with Marin, Sonoma and Napa County officials to discuss harbor developments, Miller's home office announced today.

The rest of Miller's schedule of meetings that day will remain as previously announced.

Woman Treated For Razor Cuts

Mrs. Gloria Nau, 27, of 529 Easterby street, Sausalito, was treated at Marin General Hospital last night for razor cuts on both wrists which Sausalito police said were self-inflicted.

The cuts were not serious.

Police said Mrs. Nau, wife of Fred Nau, admitted attempting to slash her wrists and said, "I was foolish." They said she previously inhaled gas in what apparently was a suicide attempt.

Carrol Madsen Crews Doing Grading Work

Dynamite Explodes Around Miner Trapped In Shaft

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A 35-year-old miner who lay injured in a mine shaft while 11 charges of dynamite exploded in a series leading closer to him each time today related his terrifying experience from a hospital bed.

"I figured I'd had it," Frank Rasmussen said. "I hollered at my friend (Harry Boyer) and told him, 'Don't come in here —no use both of us dying.' He couldn't do nothing."

Rasmussen, who said the accident happened Sunday night in a small mine 18 feet below the surface near his Death Valley home at Skidoo, about 100 miles northeast of Los Angeles, suffered a compound fracture of the right leg and possible internal injuries.

"We were making a crosscut after sinking a shaft about 18 feet down," he said. "I'd put 15 holes in the ground and had 11 of them loaded with dynamite. When I finished loading the 11th one, the first one went off.

"The blast knocked me down and busted my leg. But it covered me up with dirt. That must have been what saved me. I lay there and listened as the next 10 went off, one by one, about four or five seconds apart."

Rasmussen said he stayed trapped in the hole until thick clouds of dust and powder began to clear and his partner, Boyer, came in after him.

Reports Say Dalai Lama Fled Capital

DARJEELING, India (AP)—A reliable sou;rce here on the Indian border reported today that the Chinese Communists have announced that the Dalai Lama fled from Lhasa during the revolt in the Tibetan capital.

The whereabouts of Tibet's 23-year-old religious and political leader, revered by his people as "the living Buddha," were unknown in Kalimpong. There were rumors he was heading south toward the Indian protectorate of Sikkim, between Darjeeling and Tibet, or southeast toward the Indian province of Assam.

Refugee Tibetans were speculating that their Buddhist god-king would remain with resistance forces in southern Tibet or might cross into India. Reports have persisted that the revolt which broke out in Lhasa last Friday has spread to the countryside. The Chinese have been reported in control once again in Lhasa.

The report in Darjeeling was that advisers to the Dalai Lama, before the fighting started in Lhasa, added their names to a declaration declaring Tibet independent of Chinese control and charging the Communists with breaking promises in the 1951 treaty to respect Tibet's religion and way of life.

The report said the declaration was presented by a delegation from the public and was handed on to the Chinese.

The Chinese for more than two centuries have maintained that Tibet is part of China.

30 STUDENTS ENLIST IN 'TIBET BRIGADE'

BERKELEY (AP) — A drive to form a "Tibetan Brigade" to go to the aid of Khumba tribesmen rebelling against Red Chinese rule has raised some 30 University of California student volunteers.

Leading the call is John T. Blackmore, 27, San Francisco, who said he was seeking advice on whether the brigade should go over to Tibet and fight or send supplies.

So far, only pledges are being accepted. No cash.

Attorney Robert H. Andresen will head the Mill Valley club, succeeding Guido Todaro, who becomes an ex-officio director. Archer Forsyth was elected secretary and Larry Mayer re-elected treasurer. Directors will be Dr. P. R. Danforth, G. Robert McConnell, Philip T. Smith and William E. Casterson.

LUXURY LINER AFTER COLLISION

Funnel of the tanker Valchem perches on the bow of cruise ship Santa Rosa as the liner pulls away from the damaged cargo vessel after collision this morning off New Jersey coast. One tanker crewman was killed, three are missing and 16 injured. See story on page 1.

ONE-WAY

where cars could disperse in any direction.

Additional traffic signals would aid the one-way traffic circulation. Signals are proposed on Third street at A, B, C and D streets. The existing signals on Second street would be synchronized eastbound.

Baird's plan would tie in to the present one-way circle, extending the one-way streets to relieve congestion at Third and Lincoln and Third and Irwin.

STREET EXTENSION

It would also tie in to the future opening of Third street past E Street School to Latham street and out to Second street at Ida. The earliest that this can be accomplished is September, 1960, Baird pointed out, because the San Rafael School District cannot close E Street School at least until the end of next school year or perhaps later.

Businessmen of the one-way circle area expressed satisfaction with the new plan to extend the circle. They said the one-way circle now in operation is bottling up traffic at Lincoln, Irwin, Francisco and Third.

LOSING INCOME

Eugene Lackenbach of Eugene's Restaurant complained that he is losing $200 to $250 per week in business income since the one-way circle began. He called it a "crazy merry-go-round."

Edmund Meyer, who operates Coca-Cola Bottling Co., said heavy trucks are funneled up Irwin street because they cannot turn left under the Irwin underpass.

Thomas Parks of Parks Electric and Fred Pape, who runs a car wash, said the extension of the circle would probably relieve the congestion.

POLICE SUPERVISION

At the suggestion of Louis Milani of Yellow Cab Co., the committee also recommended that police supervision be provided for pedestrians crossing Third street at the bus depot during commuter rush hours.

"Somebody is going to be hurt there," Milani warned.

Chairman Richard Cuthbert gave encouraging news that the First street extension may not be as far off as at first anticipated. He said the state Division of Highways had invited city traffic officials to San Francisco to a meeting this afternoon to discuss designs for expansion of the San Rafael overpass and the First street interchange. City Manager Dan E. Andersen and Public Works Supt. Norris Rawles were to attend.

Vehicle Wrecked; Woman Uninjured

Mrs. Beverly Jane Jerome, 37, of 4903 Ranch road, told police she was eastbound on Paradise drive at the entrance to Mariner's Cove when she lost control of her vehicle on the muddy pavement.

The station wagon slid into a low bank and then rolled over. Mrs. Jerome said she crawled out the rear tail gate window and got a ride home before calling police.

Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said recent rains had caused the road to become muddy in the area of the accident.

Mrs. Jerome went back to work today at her job with the University of California Radiation Laboratory in Berkeley.

HOSPITAL

North Marin to remain in the district.

It said the board finds "no practical conflict between the construction of a small private hospital in the Novato area and the need of North Marin residents for Marin General Hospital facilities . . .

"The proposed Babcock Memorial Foundation contract can enable Marin General to expand at one-half the ordinary cost to the taxpayer, providing we pass a bond issue this year, with the assistance of Hill-Burton funds."

Directors also pointed out that if North Marin remained in the district, the residents could retain all of the Marin General Hospital facilities "now available to them at no differential charge."

The five polling places for the election will be Lynwood School, Druids Hall, Marshall Garage on Tamalpais avenue, Our Lady of Loretto Parish Hall at Grant and Virginia avenues, and the main Novato firehouse.

The board will canvass the returns June 1, at an 8 p.m. meeting at the hospital.

Meanwhile, selection of George Rockrice of San Francisco as architect for the proposed Novato private hospital was announced by the group of Novato doctors which plans the hospital.

The doctors, who have formed Novato General Hospital, Inc., hope to erect the structure on property on Hill avenue.

Rockrice is to draw preliminary plans, which the corporation will use in its attempts to obtain financing.

5-Cent State Cigarette Tax Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown's supporters predicted a favorable sendoff today for the first segment of the Democratic administration's tax program to come before the Legislature.

Two Democrats proposed a five-cent cigarette tax and a sharp increase in upper bracket income taxes in place of the eight-point plan which Brown says spreads the load evenly among all taxpayers.

ORIGINAL MEASURES

But Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D-Sacramento), lower house sponsor of Brown's revenue bills, declared he would press for passage of the original measures.

"We've got the votes," he said.

His statement came in advance of the initial hearing by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee, of which he is chairman, on two of Brown's bills.

One calls for a new three-cent cigarette tax. The other would raise the maximum tax on incomes from 6 to 7 per cent. Finance officials estimate each would raise about 60 million dollars in 1959-60.

FIVE-CENT TAX

Assemblyman Charles H. Wilson (D-Los Angeles), a member of the tax committee, said he would offer amendments for a five-cent cigarette tax. Another committeeman, Augustus F. Hawkins (D-Los Angeles), said he would seek a 15 per cent tax on all incomes over $35,000.

The two Democrats, both cool toward the administration, said their amendments would raise enough money to balance the state budget without the other tax measures urged by the governor.

In all, Brown has asked for new or increased taxes that would bring in 202 million dollars in 1956-60 and 256 million the following year.

Attorney's Wife Injured In Crash

Mrs. Susan F. Gardiner, wife of attorney Samuel W. Gardiner, suffered a painful whiplash injury yesterday in a three-car crash in the 1800 block of Fourth street, San Rafael.

She was taken by ambulance to her private physician and released after a brace had been applied.

Police cited Miss Nancy May Spencer, 17, of 6 Bayview avenue, Mill Valley, for speeding.

When the Santa Rosa backed away, its damaged bow carried the funnel of the Valchem, sitting jauntily upright.

The tanker, unable to move, stood by to await the arrival of tugboats for towing to port.

The Santa Rosa had been due in New York this morning after a regular passenger-cargo run that took her to the Netherlands West Indies, Venezuela, Jamaica, Nassau and Port Everglades, Fla.

The Valchem carried a crew of 42. Skippered by Capt. L. A. Murphey of Lynchburg, Va., it was sailing in ballast (without cargo) from New York to Baytown, Tex.

Master of the Santa Rosa is Frank Siwik, 50, of Garden City, N. Y., a veteran of 30 years with the Grace Line.

Gardener Held On Charge Of Molesting Girl

An unemployed San Rafael gardener, who has a record of a sex offense in Minnesota, was jailed last night on suspicion of molesting a 9-year-old girl at his home.

Robert Allen Randall, 24, of 1363 Lincoln avenue was scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon for arraignment on charges of child molesting and violation of probation.

In September, 1957, Randall drew five years' probation in Marin Superior Court for tending to lead a child into a lewd or dissolute life. He was convicted of a sex offense in Minnesota in 1954, according to San Rafael Police Inspector Nick Giampoli.

The inspector said Randall's wife was baby sitting the girl and her 7-year-old brother yesterday afternoon. She left her home to take her own child to the doctor. Randall then suggested to the girl that they play "button, button, who's got the button." According to the girl, Randall then tied her hands behind her back, blindfolded her with a handkerchief and molested her.

Realty Office Bomb Threat Proves Hoax

Roy Clark, who has a real estate office on McAllister avenue, told the sheriff that a man telephoned about 11:40 a. m. with this warning: 'There's a bomb in your office ready to go off. This is no joke." The caller then hung up.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos dispatched Chief Criminal Deputy Ellis Seibert to check the building. Seibert radioed back that everything was in order, and the threat was probably a prank.

Terra Linda Recreation Action Pends

San Rafael Recreation and Park Commission last night took no action on the proposed Terra Linda recreation district, pending a joint meeting with the planning commission.

No date has been set yet for the joint meeting.

Terra Linda Community Services District is looking ahead to recreation facilities including a swimming pool, recreation building and outdoor play areas

If the proposed annexation of Freitas ranch goes through, Las Gallinas Valley south of Highway 101 will be split in half. Therefore, Terra Linda leaders want a recreation district to retain a single entity for recreation purposes.

The recreation and park commission last night also received a 25-page report from Recreation Director Joseph Rodota, who outlined a flexible general policy for future parks and recreation. Rodota requests that a recreation and park planning consulting firm be hired in the 1959-60 budget to work out the details of the general plan.

The commission set for April 10 a discussion of the park budget.

The past year's budget was $49,000. The new budget is expected to range between $45,000 and $50,000.

A summer program may be started this year for the San Pedro School-Glenwood area. The commission hopes to meet with the San Pedro Dads' Club early in May.

Novato City Map Won't Be Ready

The map of boundaries proposed for Novato if the area incorporates will not be ready for consideration by the county boundary commission at its regular meeting tomorrow.

George Steele, head of the county's central mapping service, said today the map definitely will not be ready for tomorrow, but that he could have it ready if the commission wants to hold an adjourned meeting the following Friday. Otherwise, it would go over to the next regular meeting April

Jessie G. Bubalo Dies In Fairfax

Mrs. Jessie G. Bubalo, 72-year-old Army employee, was found dead in bed today in her home at 362 Forrest avenue, Fairfax.

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said the death obviously was natural, and apparently occurred shortly after Mrs. Bubalo retired last night. Mrs. Bubalo had been released from a San Francisco hospital only two months ago after treatment for a heart ailment.

Mrs. Bubalo was a file clerk at the Presidio of San Francisco. Every morning, she was picked up by Mrs. Holly Rapp of Fairfax near the Fairfax Greyhound Bus depot for a ride to the Presidio.

This morning, Mrs. Bubalo was not at the usual place. After driving to San Francisco, Mrs. Rapp called Fairfax police.

Capt. Clifton Cordes entered the home through a rear door at 9:45 a.m. and found Mrs. Bubalo dead in bed.

Mrs. Bubalo lived alone. A son, Harold Mink of Petaluma, is employed by Golden State Co., Ltd., in San Rafael. A daughter, Mrs. Lois Coleman, lives in Oslo, Norway.

Mrs. Marie Muller Succumbs At 65

Mrs. Marie Muller, widow of Dr. William K. Muller of Philadelphia, died at a local rest home last night after a long illness. She was 65 years old.

She lived at 339 San Anselmo avenue, San Anselmo, since coming to Marin County six years ago. She was a native of Baltimore, Md., but spent most of her life in Philadelphia.

Her husband died in 1940. Mrs. Muller is survived by a daughter and son, Mrs. William V. Fries of San Rafael and William P. Muller of Ross, and seven grandchildren.

A WHITE EASTER?

Springtime Hasn't Come To The Rockies

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A pre-Easter snow storm whipped across the eastern Rockies into the Midwest today after kicking up a rash of violent weather in sections of the plains and Mississippi Valley.

The year's worst snow storm which hammered the eastern slopes of the Rockies left drifts waist-high in parts of Colorado, Wyoming and western Nebraska. Snow depths were more than a foot in many places. Denver sloshed through a foot of fresh snow.

The early spring storm, abating in the Rockies, didn't lose much of its fury as it swept eastward, powdered by strong northerly winds.

Heavy snow warnings were posted for Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota. Lighter amounts were in prospect in northern sections of Wisconsin and Michigan and parts of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas

Texas staggered from an outbreak of mild weather. Tornadoes, snow, hail, rain and strong winds lashed the Lone Star state yesterday. Freezing weather followed the snow in the Panhandle region. The tornadoes caused some property damage and injured one person.

In the western sections of the snow belt, many roads were impassable. Hundreds of autos were abandoned as motorists found shelter in motels. Bus travel was halted at Denver and Cheyenne, Wyo. Schools closed in many areas of both Colorado and Wyoming.

At Ogallala, Neb., students from rural areas spent the night in the city's school when buses were halted by the huge drifts. Further west, in Kimball County, schools remained closed.

The tornadic winds which hit Texas also struck in nearby Oklahoma. One twister swept the area of Alva, in northern Oklahoma, damaging some homes. Heaviest damages from the violent winds in Texas was in Denison, in the north central section.

San Rafael Seeks New Parking Site

San Rafael is moving ahead to buy more property for an offstreet parking lot on Third street between Lincoln avenue and Cijos street.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen said today he had been authorized by city councilmen to negotiate prices for the properties.

A council committee headed by Joseph F. Sauer has been looking for additional lots to add to the newly opened three municipal parking lots. An unofficial estimate is that the new lots under negotiation would accommodate 64 cars.

On April 4 the last snow trip of the season will be taken to the Sierra Ski Ranch on Highway 50.

Bill Gordon, program director, said information on the two events can be obtained at the Larkspur City Hall.

Rockefeller Firmly In Saddle As N.Y. Legislature Adjourns

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Nelson A. Rockefeller sailed through his first legislative session as governor of New York looking more than ever like a potential candidate for president.

After a slow start, he wound up with a glittering array of legislation that would look good in any White House hopeful's showcase.

He showed that, when the going got rough, he could fight back to win.

The Empire State's Legislature formally adjourned early today and the dominant feature of Rockefeller's first 84 days in office was the "battle of the budget."

The youthful-looking Republican millionaire barely had settled himself in the governor's chair when he ran hip-deep into trouble by submitting the first two-billion-dollar budget in the state's history and calling for the greatest round of tax increases the state had ever seen.

Rockefeller's record budget shocked conservative, economy-minded Republicans in the Legislature. They rebelled and demanded deep cuts.

The governor eventually agreed to a 40-million reduction. When the rebels demanded still more, he refused. The revolt broke. That was his major victory.

Rockefeller followed up his budget and tax-increase triumphs with these legislative successes:

1. An anti-rackets, labor-control bill.
2. A program of tax relief and other assistance for financially strained railroads and bus companies.
3. A plan for expanding the state's middle-income housing program.
4. Extension of unemployment insurance benefits.

Dorothy Dandridge To Wed June 30

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Negro actress Dorothy Dandridge and Jack Denison, white owner of a Sunset Strip nightspot, will be married June 30.

Miss Dandridge announced her engagement shortly before she left yesterday for London and Madrid to make a movie.

The two met four years ago when Miss Dandridge was singing in a Las Vegas hotel and Denison was operating the dining room.

She is about 35, Denison about 45. Miss Dandridge was divorced from Negro dancer Harold Nicholas in 1951. Denison has also been divorced.

New Jersey has 81 commercial airports.

Gibson May Favor Third Court Here

Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson of the state Supreme Court did not oppose a third municipal court for Marin at Tuesday's luncheon meeting in Sausalito.

He did not say so in so many words, but the chief justice may be favorably inclined, according to members of the Marin Bar Assn. who met with him at the Alta Mira Hotel.

Thomas Nelson, chairman of the bar committee working for a third court, stressed that Chief Justice Gibson took no stand either for or against a third court. "But our committee got the impression he is not radically opposed," said Nelson.

The bill for a third court for Marin has passed the state Senate and is before an Assembly committee.

In the Giants' case, veteran pitcher Sad Sam Jones is the reason for joy.

"I'm happy as hell," said Manager Bill Rigney, ecstatically digging divots out of his hotel room carpet with an eight-iron, after Jones was acquired from St. Louis in a multi-player swap yesterday.

Jones and Jack Sanford, recent import from Philadelphia, give the Giants a potent one-two pitching punch, said Rig, who predicted the 33-year-old former Card alone should be good for 18 or 19 victories this season.

'We won't lose those 9-8 games this year," he added, ticking off these statistics on Jones:

1. He compiled a 2.88 earned run average last season — second in the league to Stu Miller's 2.47 for the Giants.

16 FULL GAMES

2. Stuck with a fifth-place club, Jones had a 14-13 record, pitched 16 complete games, second in the league to Warren Spahn, and 250 innings.

3. In 1958, he struck out 225 to set a league record and break the Cards' all-time mark of 199 set by Dizzy Dean in 1933.

4. Most important — Jones has a lifetime 8-4 record against Milwaukee. The league champion Braves were 16-6 against the third-place Giants last season.

Rigney noted happily that Sanford was 6-1 against the Braves. He compared that to these lifetime totals for Giant returnees: Johnny Antonelli 14-14, Gordon Jones 2-3, Stu Miller 10-8, Al Worthington 3-13 and Mike McCormick 1-2.

Jones, who throws 'em high and hard, is a longtime friend of Willie Mays, Rig recalled.

"Will they be less apt to throw at Willie now that Sam's here?" someone asked.

"You're damn right," Rigney declared. "They'll be about 89 per cent less apt. There are a couple pitchers in this league who take shots at Willie every time he steps up to the plate. But they'll think twice with Sam around."

In yesterday's trade, the Giants swapped Bill White, first-baseman-outfielder, and pinch-hitter Ray Jablonski for Jones and Don Choate, right-handed pitcher in St. Louis' farm system. Choate was assigned to Phoenix and will report to the Pacific Coast League club's spring training site at Sanford, Fla.

Rigney plans to team Jones and Sanford with southpaws Antonelli and McCormick as starters. Miller is a possible fifth starter. Jones is expected to fill two pitching dates before the Giants leave Arizona about April 3.

'Have we won the pennant?" a well wisher asked.

"No," Rigney answered, "just deepened the staff. There's still 154 games to play and, as a matter of fact, quite a few exhibition games before the season starts."

Drake Shades Game, Gains Tourney Final

Drake High's Pirates battle their cousins from Redwood at 3:30 p.m. next Monday for the championship of the Marin County High School Baseball Tournament at Albert Field, San Rafael.

The final game, scheduled last night, was postponed at the last minute when a downpour drenched the field. Earlier in the day Drake won its way into the finals by nipping the defending champion Tamalpais Indians, 2-1, in a torrid pitchers' duel between Drake's Dick Spackman and Tam's Ron Cole.

In consolation play yesterday the Marin Catholic Wildcats clobbered San Rafael's Bulldogs, 11-1 as John Boccabella smashed one of the longest home runs ever seen at Albert Field. Officials estimated the drive carried 400 feet.

Redwood warmed up for its championship game by meeting Washington High of San Francisco in a practice game. Redwood Coach Al Endriss used second stringers in the early evening game and Washington scored a 5-0 victory.

UNEARNED RUNS

All the runs in the Drake-Tam game were unearned. Drake scored its pair in the first inning when an error on an attempted double play allowed Dick Llewellyn and Spackman to score. They were on base with an error and a walk.

Tam got its run in the fifth frame when Cole drew his third straight walk, stole second and came home on an error.

Sparkling defensive play of the game came in the seventh inning when Drake's Mike Bresnan made a diving catch of a sinking liner off the bat of Jones to end the game.

Spackman gave up only two hits while Cole limited Drake to four hits.

Boccabella's tremendous homer was the highlight of Marin's easy win over San Rafael. The slugging Wildcat ace completed his tournament play with four hits in five official at-bats.

Doug Wilson had three hits and Boccabella and Art Quinn two each to lead the Wildcats yesterday. Marin righthander Craig Goldman limited San Rafael to three hits.

Jones Gives Giants Just What They Lacked In '58 Title Race

CONNOLLY

It is too early yet to tell whether the S.F. Giants hit the jackpot by trading Bill White and Ray Jablonski to the Cards for Sam Jones, a right-handed pitcher.

As one oldtimer put it, "The Giants never had White, so what did they give away?"

True enough, White hasn't been in harness long enough since 1956 to be considered a real loss. But I saw enough of him to know that he is as fast or faster than Orlando Cepeda, a better fielding first sacker and much more alert, mentally, than the hard-hitting slugger from Puerto Rico. But no one can stay that White or any other first sacker in the National League is any greater hitting prospect than Cepeda.

It is almost impossible for anyone to second guess Manager Bill Rigney or Horace Stoneham on the deal they made for Jones.

The Giants needed a first line pitcher and they got a real high class one in Toothpick Jones. In the four years he has been in the league Jones has been the strikeout king for three of 'em.

In 909 innings he has allowed 740 hits and struck out 785. Last year he was second only to Stu Miller in earned runs per game.

THE NICEST thing about Jones coming to San Francisco is the Giants won't have to face him in the first two series which, on dope, Jones figured to be pitching in two of the first six games the Cards and Giants played.

The ghost of Bill White may come jumping at the Giants it is true, but not nearly so much as if they had played White for a couple seasons and really knew how good he was. As matters now stand the Giants will never know what they gave up in White because they never really knew what they had.

I'm 100 per cent for Rigney and Stoneham in the deal. If ever a ball club needed first-line pitching in 1958 it was the Giants. They had everything in the way of run makers, but were very shaky in the pitching department.

JONES COULD be the salvation of the Giants and the fair haired boy who could lead them from the wilderness into the promised land.

And believe me he's going to get his full share of work as a front liner.

Skipper Rigney now has three starters in the righthanded department and two good southpaws in the lefthanded division.

If Jack Sanford and Miller can do their share I'm satisfied Jones will hold up his end. But don't think for one moment the Giants have a clutch hold on the pennant because they've got Jones. Everyone on the club including the great Willie Mays has to go at top speed to carry the club to the top.

Johnny Antonelli and Mike McCormick will have to carry the load as will all the relievers such as Al Worthington, Billy Muffett, Paul Giel, Curt Barclay and the wild man from Borneo, Joe Shipley.

RIGNEY HAS already stated that Barclay is a starting pitcher if he remains with the Giants.

"Barclay either is a starter or he isn't on the ball club, Rigney stated some weeks ago.

And by that Rigney means that the worth of Barclay is starting and packing the load for the full nine innings. Barclay isn't a relief coot. He has to start and, if he doesn't, he isn't worth a dime to the club and won't be kept.

So, if Jones, Miller, Sanford and Barclay make it, the chores for Antonelli and McCormick are made to order. These two lefties should come close to winning 40 games between them. And with that added to what the other righthander should do, I can't see anything but good luck for the Giants at the kickoff . . .

Rodgers O.K. After Beaning; Giants Win

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Doctors reported today San Francisco Giants shortstop Andre Rodgers apparently would get off with only a sore, discolored cheek as a result of being smashed in the face by a pitched ball.

Rodgers was struck yesterday taking his turn at the bat as the Giants walloped the Boston Red Sox, 9-4, for the second straight time in the Cactus League.

The ball, heaved by pitcher Tom Brewer in the second frame, struck Rodgers a glancing blow and knocked him to the ground. But Rodgers made it out of the ball park under his own power and subsequent X-rays showed no serious damage had been inflicted.

In yesterday's game at nearby Scottsdale, Brewer was tapped for eight Giant runs in the seven frames he pitched. He was relieved by former San Francisco Seal hurler Leo Kiely, who gave the Giants an additional tally.

Giant starter Johnny Antonelli went five frames, giving up two scores to the Red Sox.

And, coupled with Antonelli's suave pitching, a three-run Giant rally in the seventh put the game on ice for San Francisco. The runs came off a double by Willie Kirkland and singles by Leon Wagner and Bill McCovey.

Dodgers Say Giants Got Best Of Trade

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Most of the gossip in the Dodger camp today concerned yesterday's Giant-Cards trade.

The concensus is that Sam Jones really strengthens San Francisco's pitching and makes the Giants more of a pennant threat than ever, while the Cards, taking the Giants' second string first baseman, Bill White, and the pinch-hitting Ray Jablonski, come off second best in the deal.

Rumors of a possible trade between the Dodgers and Milwaukee apparently are only rumors. The Braves weren't interested enough in Los Angeles' surplus infielders to make a proposition yesterday, when the National League champs clouted the Dodgers 8-4.

Buzzie Bavasi, the Dodger general manager, says there is a chance of a deal before the season starts, but he emphasized he doesn't want to strengthen an already strong club.

"I can't figure that Giant-Card deal," says Buzzie. "Where are the Cards going to play Jablonski?"

Braves outfielder Wes Covington had this to say:

"That deal will make Willie Mays happy. He hates to bat against that man Jones."

Braves' Manager Fred Haney said he isn't worrying about deals between other clubs. He has a second base problem.

Gil Hodges, Dodger first baseman who has been sidelined by a bad knee, looked good in his return to the lineup Wednesday. He clouted a first inning homer good for three runs and ran out two ground balls without favoring the knee.

Palmer Ties Souchak At Palm Beach

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The touring golf pros headed north today, some to Wilmington, N. C., for a tournament there and others to Augusta, Ga., to prepare for the Masters.

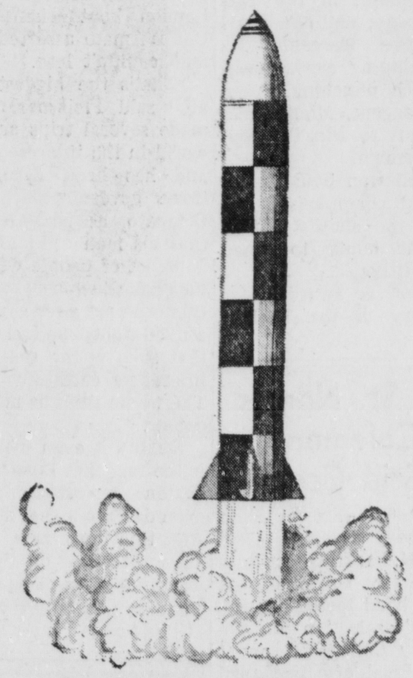

They closed out their Florida tour yesterday in the 36-hole Seminole pro-amateur. Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., was the big winner at $2,150.

Palmer had a 70 to go with his first-round 71 and split $1,800 with Mike Souchak of Grossingers, N. Y., who had 72-69—141. But Souchak finished out of the money in the best-ball competition while Palmer picked up $1,250.

Palmer's amateur partners were Arthur O. Willman of Boston and Kenneth Rich of Dallas, Tex.

The Palmer-Wellman duo had a best ball score of 66-61—127. Palmer's score with Rich was 64-65—129.

Moore-Durelle Set For Repeat Of 1958's Top Fight

MONTREAL (UPI) — Fight promoter Jim Norris today chalked up his first victory since the courts disbanded his International Boxing Club — the signing of light-heavy champion Archie Moore and Yvon Durelle for a July 15 repeat of 1958's "Fight of the Year."

MAJOR MOVE

Truman Gibson, president of the Norris-backed N.B.E., called the signing "a major move by the N.B.E." He insisted that the signing didn't mean the N.B.E. had given up trying to match Moore and Robinson, either, but said a Moore win over Durelle "would make a Moore-Robinson fight even more attractive."

And Gibson made it plain he thinks the N.B.E. would be the outfit that would land Moore-Robinson, too.

Moore, who got off the floor four times to kayo Durelle in the 11th round last Dec. 10, will receive a $250,000 guarantee. Durelle, Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., fisherman who never has had a "big pay day," will settle for a $15,000 minimum. The fight will be at the Montreal Forum, if Quinn, Gibson and Co., can convince Moore it should not be held outdoors.

Quinn estimated that the attraction "should draw about $450,000." Present plans call for the fight to be carried on home TV in the U.S. and Theater TV in Canada. Gibson disclosed that U.S. TV will pay $100,000 for the television rights, $25,000 more than the last Moore-Durelle scrap.

London Defies British Ban On Title Go

BLACKPOOL, England (AP)—Britain's biggest boxing row in years flared today with a British heavyweight hurling defiance at officials who forbade him to fight America's world heavyweight king Floyd Patterson.

The country's boxing bosses—the British Board of Boxing Control—banned Brian London from meeting Patterson for the world title in Las Vegas, Nev., April 21.

The claimed the bout would not be in the best interests of British boxing.

London promptly announced he would go ahead with the bout anyway.

"I've got a big pay day coming ($75,000) and a chance to win the world title," the pugnacious, 24-year-old Briton said. "I'll risk suspension at home for that."

The BBBC said London probably will lose his license to fight in Britain if he defies them.

UP TO U. S.

"It is now up to American authorities to decide whether they will permit an unauthorized British boxer to fight Patterson," said BBBC President J. Onslow Fane.

U. S. boxing bigwigs appeared ready to go along with London, although their statements were cautious.

Cooper used a jabbing left to take away London's British title. London was made to look like a novice as he plodded smack into the nagging lefts of Cooper.

Experts argue Cooper should be the man tackling Patterson but Cooper lost his chance by asking for too much money—$140,000.

Cards Send V. McDaniel To Farm Club

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals today cut off 15 of the 53 players in camp, among them Von McDaniel, an 18-year-old schoolboy sensation two summers ago.

The younger McDaniel brother was the only player not shipped to the triple-A camp at Daytona Beach, Fla. He was sent to the lower-classification training base at Albany, Ga.

"Von has got to start over," said Manager Solly Hemus of the young right-hander who had troubles in double-A and Class B last season. "He needs to get back his confidence and to work further on regaining his method of delivering the ball."

Dropped off the roster, in addition, were pitchers Frank Barnes and Marshall Bridges, infielders Jim McKnight, Billy Harrell, Wally Shannon, outfielder Ellis Burton and first baseman-outfielder Duke Carmel.

Returned to their clubs were pitchers Ray Sadecki, catcher Chuck Stanisland, infielder Ed Olivares and outfielder Bob Boyer, all Omaha, and catcher Hank Kuhlmann and outfielders Charley James and Gene Oliver, Rochester.

Nats Square Playoffs With Celtics

Attention in the National Basketball Assn's division playoffs swings back to the West tonight as Minneapolis entertains St. Louis in an attempt to square their series at two games apiece.

The East, its timetable a day ahead, already is even at 2-2 after Syracuse's 119-107 victory over the Boston Celtics last night. It was the seventh time in seven games that the home team had won.

If there's a break in the pattern coming, however, it may come tonight—now that St. Louis' one-two punch of Bob Pettit and Cliff Hagan seems back in operation.

Pettit after two so-so games broke out with 39 points in St. Louis' victory over Minneapolis at St. Louis Tuesday night—more like it for the league's scoring champion.

With Hagan, who has hit at a 32-point pace in the three games, the pair have accounted for about half the St. Louis points.

In the last game, Minneapolis' Elgin Baylor was limited to only three points in the first half and 15 for the game.

Boston and Syracuse will rest until Saturday afternoon.

Balanced scoring did the job for Syracuse, with Dolph Schayes scoring 28 points, Larry Costello 26, Hal Greer 21, and George Yardley 18. The Celts' Frank Ramsey scored 29 points.

2 Marin Anglers Win Bass Prizes

Two Marin County fishermen were among last week's winners in the Schenley Sportsmen's Club's striped bass contest, it was announced yesterday. They are Marshall Huber of San Rafael with a 20-pound fish caught at China Camp and George Wigner with a 10-pounder, also at China Camp.

Dodgers Refuse To Make Deal With Milwaukee

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—General Manager Buzzie Bavasi of the Los Angeles Dodgers said yesterday he won't trade either Junior Gilliam or Don Zimmer to the Milwaukee Braves, who would like one of the veteran infielders to solve their second base problem.

"I'd be silly to trade anybody to the Braves," Bavasi said. "We're trying to catch them, not strengthen them."

He said further that the Braves were the team to beat again this year even without an established second baseman in their lineup.

"They had key men hurt last year and out of action and still won by eight games," Bavasi said. "With their power in pitching you've got to pick them again."

Red Schoendienst, the top second baseman for Milwaukee, was just released from a St. Louis hospital where he was treated for tuberculosis. Red doubts if his physicians will allow him to play before next year.

GOLDEN GLOVES

17-Year-Old Steals Show In TV Bouts

CHICAGO (AP)—New York won an unprecedented second straight inter-city Golden Gloves team title over Chicago last night, but the individual spotlight was turned on the Windy City's Cassius Clay.

Clay, a 17-year-old high school student from Louisville, Ky., proved he was quite advanced for his age as a sharp counter puncher in taking a three-round decision over New York's light-heavyweight Tony Madigan.

Madigan, at 29, is a rough, mauling type of fighter who hails from Sydney, Australia. He is the Aussie amateur cham as well as the British Empire's and had lost only 5 of 99 bouts before running into Clay.

Madigan, who now lives in Rye, N. Y., pressed the fight all the way, but Clay's pointed combinations kept rocking him.

3 TV BOUTS

The Chicago Stadium crowd of 7,261 gave the battle a fine ovation. It was one of three televised nationally.

New York took the other two TV bouts in piling up a 10-6 triumph over Chicago. New York won last year 12-4. Chicago, however, still leads the rivalry 15-9 with 8 draws.

In other TV bouts New York's Angel Morales 19 defeated Gil Yanez Toledo high school graduate, in the 112-pound division, and the Easterner's Ossie Marcano, 21-year-old shipping clerk, flashed too much punching power for Don Sargent, Minneapolis truck driver, to win the welterweight crown.

New York won both the alternate and championship divisions in the show's closing heavyweight bouts to cinch the team title.

One point is awarded for each victory in the 16-fight program.

Fresno St. Names Cecil Coleman New Grid Coach

Coleman's selection was announced by College President Arnold E. Joyal, effective April 1. He will succeed Clark Van Galder.

In announcing Coleman's appointment as head coach and professor of education, Joyal said he is expected to work within rules set up by the state board of education and California Collegiate Athletic Assn. His salary was not disclosed, but as a professor he will receive a minimum of $8,500 annually.

Fleischer Charges 'Boxing In A Mess'

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—A gnome of a man who has made boxing his life stood up today and threw rocks at it.

Nat Fleischer, undoubtedly boxing's chief historian, charges that greed and the struggle for state's prestige has ruined all control in the United States. And he brands the "open defiance" of such title-holders as Floyd Patterson and Ray Robinson as "preposterous."

"All in all," barked the rugged little septuagenarian, "boxing is in a mess."

Fleischer, an intimate of all the heavyweight champions since Jim Corbett, scorns the crafty maneuverings of the Patterson camp which have kept the current heavyweight ruler wrapped in mothballs. Not even his boxing enthusiasm can condone such "fights" as these against setups like Pete Rademacher, Roy Harris and the zephyr-like "Hurricane" Jackson.

But capping the climax was the recent eye-popping strategem in which Patterson was matched against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson in June and—after that—was signed to risk the title a month earlier in a "tuneup" against England's Brian London. The Patterson brain trust ridiculed its own London bout when Manager Cus D'Amato asserted that his man couldn't lose.

"That's the biggest joke of all," said Fleischer, who has made several trips around the world in the interest of boxing and has been decorated by three governments. "Imagine D'Amato assuring everybody that his man can't lose.

"A lot of people will get the idea from such a statement that this can't be anything else but a fixed fight," he insisted. "Not that such is the case, but the inference certainly is there. The whole thing is utterly ridiculous."

Making it even more absurd is the fact that London, an oft-beaten heavyweight, doesn't even deserve a shot at the title. And this must rate as a title fight because in the heavyweight division there is no such thing as a "non-title bout."

"D'Amato has brought boxing down to its lowest ebb," Fleischer charged. "London is just an ordinary fighter; slow, inept and easy to hit. Yet the gamble is always there that even a featherweight might lay one on the champion's whiskers and put him away."

The aggressive Boswell of boxing also blows his stack when he thinks of the manner in which Sugar Ray Robinson defies the various controlling authorities, shrugs off the rule that he defend the middleweight title within six months, and bides his time deciding what to do.

"The European Boxing Union would take his license away, declare the title vacant and hold a series of eliminations to crown a new champion," says little Nat.

This is impossible in the United States, he explains, because of the toothless association among the states composing the National Boxing Association and the ineffectiveness of the NBA's working agreement with powerful New York State.

HANLEY'S TRAINING CAMP REPORT

Giants Ahead Of 1958 HR Pace — No Flukes, Either

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz.—Those Giant power-hitters are banging home runs in the Cactus League at a clip better than last year when a lot of snide comments were passed about "cheap circuit clouts, cans of corn and eight iron golf shots in the dry desert air."

Such gossip noticeably is lacking along the cactus trail this year with half of the 29-game exhibition schedule now in the score books which duly note 25 Giant homers. In the same number of pre-season games last year the homer mark was 19.

What about the four Arizona baseball parks where the boys are belting? Are they band boxes? Not a bit of it. None has distances less than 320 feet along the foul lines and center field in all of the parks is 400 feet or more.

The distances adhere rigidly to official baseball rules that allow a minimum of 250 feet from home base to the nearest fence but state, "A distance of 320 feet or more along the foul lines, and 400 feet or more to center field is preferable."

TWENTY-FOUR of the Giant homers have been collected in the three smallest parks: Tucson's Hi Corbett Field where the wind did aid some homers in the Cleveland-Giant games; the Cub training camp at Mesa where fence distances are just a little shorter than at Wrigley Field in Chicago, and the Giants' own camp at Phoenix Municipal Stadium.

Scottsdale, where the Giants are visiting the Boston Red Sox today for the last time, is the one park where only mighty smashes go for the circuit. The one Giant homer here was made by Jimmy Davenport two weeks ago. It cleared the 360-foot left field fence by 15 feet.

SCOTTSDALE'S measurements explain the lack of homers in this park: 360 feet along the foul lines, with the fences tapering outward to 375 and 417 feet toward the center field wall which is 430 feet from home plate.

Felipe Alou and Bill White, with four apiece, lead the home run race. Orlando Cepeda and Andre Rodgers have three each. Hank Sauer, Davenport and Don Taussig have two each.

Billy Martin, the ex-Yankee traded by the Detroit Tigers to Cleveland in a five-player deal last November, had this to say about the Giants:

"They're not going to win the pennant—they haven't anybody who can hit singles."

WILLIE MAYS, back in uniform for batting practice and anxious to get back in the line-up, caught up with his paper work on his first day back. For 15 minutes he signed autographs as he sat on the top step of the Giant dugout—where he always sits—while two score of youngsters passed programs to him from the stands.

"Thought you might have forgotten me," he kidded them.

The healing shinbone he damaged sliding home March 12 gave him no trouble whatsoever during batting practice. He hit a couple out of the Phoenix park.

Al Stieglitz, the one rookie who looks like he will make the grade this year as a substitute catcher, asked Willie where they went. He pointed to the palm trees behind the left center field wall.

"Over them," said Mays, "but you don't have to worry about those. You are just supposed to catch the ball if I don't hit it."

EX-GIANT

Gomez Likes Philly; Sees 15 Victories

CLEARWATER, Fla (AP)—Ruben Gomez, the Puerto Rican right-hander who puts up a fuss about pitching in cool weather and occasionally pops a batter with a pitch, admits he's a little temperamental.

"Everybody has things they like to do or don't like," said Ruben, who does a pretty good job with English. "I don't like to pitch in cold weather."

"No pitcher does, unless he has a fast ball, and I don't throw so hard. When it is cold you don't break a sweat. I like to have moisture on my hands so I can control the ball better."

Gomez, a thin guy who stands 6-0 and is listed at 170, admits the December trade that sent him from the San Francisco Giants to the Philadelphia Phillies came as a surprise. Two surprises, in fact.

"First I was surprise that they trade me," he said, "and then I am surprise that they trade me to Philadelphia. I think they trade me to Cincinnati.

LIKES PHILS

"I like this team. I get a chance to learn from that fellow," Ruben added, pointing to Robin Roberts. "I watch to see how he moves the ball around. And if there is some hitter he gets out all the time I watch and maybe I will too."

Ruben, 31, had a 10-12 record last season, his sixth in the majors. He thinks he can win 15 with the Phillies, "if they pitch me regularly so I can get into the groove."

"My best year was 1954. I won 17. But I pitched better the next year and didn't win so many (9-10).

About those duster brawls Gomez gets into, does he make a practice of pitching tight — high, inside?

"I don't throw inside. I throw low and down there, outside. Sometimes I throw close, up here," Ruben said, making a swipe at his chest.

"I hit some," he admitted, "but sometimes I don't see how they get hit."

Olson's Chin May Get Good Test From Rory

The big question — "Can Bobo Olson's chin take a good punch?" — might be answered next Monday when the former middleweight champion engages Rory Calhoun, White Plains, N.Y., in a light heavyweight battle at the Cow Palace in San Francisco.

Olson has been kayoed five times in a career numbering 79 fights, of which 69 are victories. He's lost five decisions.

In none of the five knockouts suffered by Bobo has he been able to rise from the canvas after taking the big punch — three times by Sugar Ray Robinson and once each by Archie Moore and heavyweight Pat McMurty.

Calhoun himself has been knocked out only once — that coming at the hands of Spider Webb in a Cow Palace bout last year — after he had Webb on the canvas twice.

"It was a desperation punch that happened to catch my guy," recalls Calhoun's manager, Frank Bachman.

The 25-year-old visitor, with a record of 39-6-1, is best remembered here for his sensational upset victory over Joey Giambra in August, 1957. It was one of the worst thrashings suffered by Giambra, a 2½ to 1 favorite.

After more than three weeks of sparring in the private, downstairs ring, Manager Billy Newman is now showing Olson to the public in the upstairs ring. The "new" Bobo works daily at 1:30 p.m. at Newman's Gym.

Calhoun, who has been drilling in the East for the past month, has set up local quarters at the same hour at Dolph Thomas' Gym, 541 Turk street.

There will be no TV or radio broadcast of this important match.

Advance ticket sales continue to be heavy, according to Matchmaker Bennie Ford, of the San Francisco Boxing Club, who predicts a gate of better than $50,000.

Grand Jury Studying Cahan Case

Hears Pro, Con Sides From D.A., Public Defender

The Marin County Grand Jury is trying to decide whether it should recommend legislation to counteract the famous Cahan decision on use of evidence obtained without a search warrant.

A committee of the grand jury, headed by Chairman Louis Freitas, called in Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich and Public Defender Leonard A. Thomas to hear both sides of the question yesterday.

The controversy started in 1955 when Charles Cahan of Los Angeles was convicted of bookmaking.

WINS APPEAL

He appealed, and the state Supreme Court freed Cahan on grounds that police had broken into his home and seized evidence illegally for use in the trial. Since the Supreme Court decision on the Cahan case, many California law enforcement officials have complained that their hands are tied. Asst. Atty. Gen. Clarence Linn called the decision "the Magna Carta of criminals."

Grand juries of several counties, including San Mateo, Los Angeles and Orange, have endorsed a proposed bill to reverse the policy laid down by the Cahan decision.

WEISSICH'S STAND

Weissich yesterday asked the Marin County Grand Jury committee to do likewise. The district attorney said he supports a bill to permit use of evidence obtained without legal sanction to convict narcotics offenders and to protect informants in narcotics case from being identified.

Public Defender Thomas contends the Cahan decision is just in that it protects the rights and privacies of individuals from illegal search and seizure. He and Weissich argued the point for two hours before the grand jury committee.

The committee has not yet announced whether it will support the bill.

San Quentin To Open New Forest Camp

A new San Quentin Prison forestry camp for 80 minimum-security prisoners will open April 1 at Clear Creek, 18 miles west of Redding, it was announced today by Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff.

The year-around camp will be operated by San Quentin Prison. Lt. Robert Major and five correctional officers will staff the camp. The first contingent of inmates, a kitchen crew and about 30 transfers from other forestry camps, will set up the camp. The main body of parole-bound San Quentin men will be taken by bus to the camp on April 6.

The 80 San Quentin inmates will do conservation work under the direction of the state Forestry Division and help fight forest fires.

Hub Council Called To Special Session

A special meeting of the San Anselmo City Council at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the city hall has been called by Mayor Arthur W. Smith to give council approval to a revised storm damage grant of $130,390 proposed by the state.

If the state gives final approval to the new figure, it will cover two Forest avenue reconstruction projects and one on Redwood road, said City Manager Arthur W. Brewer. The city opened bids for this work at its March 10 meeting and has 30 days in which to award a contract. An earlier state-approved grant of $104,400 for seven San Anselmo storm repair projects did not allow enough for the Forest avenue and Redwood road projects.

The special meeting is expected to be short. The city planning commission is scheduled to meet at 8 o'clock in the council chambers.

And For All The Family—Based On Visits To The Wonder Research Laboratories And Bakeries

Dr. Marietta Eichelberger of Chicago, Illinois. Former Director of Home Economics and Nutrition Service, Evaporated Milk Association

"TO ME WONDER BREAD MEANS GOODNESS—

The trip I took through your bakery and your research laboratories convinced me of that!"

Mrs. Kathryne Sheehan Hughes of Washington, D.C. President, District of Columbia Home Economics Association

"NOW I KNOW WHY WONDER BREAD SELLS BEST—

Everyone should go through your bakery and visit your wonderful research laboratories the way I did."

Mrs. Iris H. Albert of South Pasadena, California. Former Director of Home Economics, Los Angeles City Schools

"WONDER BREAD IS TRULY WONDERFUL—

"NO WONDER MILLIONS PREFER WONDER BREAD—

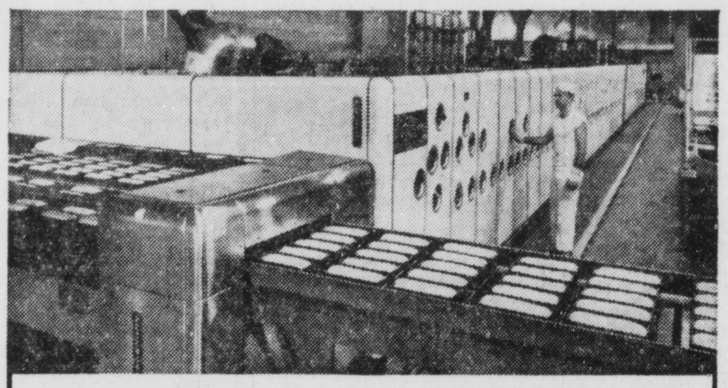

I had no idea of the care taken in baking and of the size of your research laboratories."

Scientific research—the key to improved nutrition! Continental Baking Company is justly proud of its modern research laboratories where scientists strive to improve the nutritional values of breads and cake.

MORE MOTHERS BUY WONDER BREAD THAN ANY OTHER BRAND

THEY KNOW IT HELPS BUILD STRONG BODIES 12 WAYS!

Modern bread baking is a far cry from the old wood stove. Scientific control not only turns out a more uniform loaf, but, through the addition of milk proteins, vitamins and minerals, produces bread superior in nutrition to that grandmother used to bake.

What Wonder Bread Can Do For Your Children, For You and Your Husband

What does a home economist want in a bread?

Which is why more women buy Wonder Bread than any other brand.

12 Ways To Growth

For normal physical and mental development, children must get a well-balanced diet of protein, fat, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals, such as come in meats, milk, eggs, fruit, green-leafed and yellow vegetables.

The amounts of these 12 food elements in Wonder Bread are compared with similar amounts contained in other foods.

This does not suggest that Wonder Bread take the place of these other foods. Or that your child is deficient in any of these elements, particularly cobalt, copper, zinc and manganese.

However, the fact is Wonder Bread does contain each of the 12 food elements approximately in the amounts shown.

Thus, when you give Wonder Bread to your child, you know you are helping your child grow bigger and stronger 12 ways.

This suggests that you do 3 things:

(1) Start your child eating 8 slices of Wonder Bread today.

(2) Measure your child's height and weigh him today.

(3) See how height and weight increase in 3 months; 6 months; each year.

Fresh And Tender

You should have no trouble getting your child to eat plenty of big, new Wonder Bread.

And start helping your child grow bigger and stronger 12 ways.

They toil not only here in California, but in several other Western states and in Hawaii.

The results of the many "kaffee klatsches" which have taken place throughout the county have netted over 150 new members for the guild. All the mothers of children taught by the Sisters are invited to attend the luncheon and to help in gathering articles for the Silent Auction.

FOCUS LUNCHEON

Wolo, Puppet Mice, Fashions, Make 'Easter Dreams' Reality

Spreading the Easter dream dust were the Junior Museum Service League in fresh, feminine fashions from the Ross Valley Shop and charming outfits for their well-mannered young sons and daughters from Bell's Children's Shops.

Tuesday's "Easter Dreams" began at the entrance where the rabbits and a friendly guinea pig lunched on lettuce, nodding a reminder that Marin's Junior Museum is a fascinating place to learn about the wonders of nature and wildlife during Easter vacation, or any time.

In the Garden Room, furry pink and yellow bunnies popped out of Easter hat boxes to greet the children "smorgasbording" around the table.

The Easter dreams of fashion-minded mothers were a bit more practical. They found Bell's most beautiful Easter dress was "wash and wear" and remembered the hours it once took to "do up" a young lady's confection. Reflecting back on "fuzzy new permanents you got at Easter time" they applauded the soft, shining halos created for the models by the House of Kwan Yin. And no one had quite forgotten the "shape" of Easter dreams last year as contrasted with Ross Valley Shop's 1959 subtle feminine approach to fashion, and the coordinated Beauty Counselor makeup by Frances Gaines to accent it.

With her furry tail bobbing, Mopsy Cottontail, Fashion Focus coordinator for the day, and Wolo introduced the hour of Easter dreaming reminding that "Easter and dreams go together, it seems, whether you are 40 or four; no matter how long you've been dreaming there are always more dreams in store."

Fashionable "Easter dreams": "No More School," Penny Adams cruising in pale blue roll-up tapers, matching skirt and yachting jacket; mother, Mrs. Adams, sunning in an orange play suit, a skirt to discreetly cover.

"Date With Daddy," irresistible, Nancy Bennett and Polly Flanders hand-smocked pink cotton, a straw halo of white ruching and pink flowers to crown her dark bob; mother, Mrs. Huntley Bennett, matching pink perfection in Caryle's cotton sheath tucked with white set-in lace.

"Easter at Grandma's," Jerry Gilden's shocking pink linen sheath with handspan banded belt the accent for Mrs. William Patten plus sons, Keith, in blue corded slacks and nautical shirt, and Bruce, plaided in brown and white shirt and brown Sunday slacks.

"Dance Dreams," pale lavender sheer organdy plaided with avocado stripes on a full, skirted, scooped-neck short formal for daughter, Diane, peach geranium dacron cotton smocked and sashed with charm.

"Easter Parade." Lisa Bettini a portrait in Viola's flower garden paisley print of polished cotton, the overskirt caught with posies; her hat fetchingly tied under the chin; for a late spring night, Mrs. Richard Bettini and the crispness of white organdy, the full skirt banded tiers, her tiny waist sashed in velvet.

On Tuesday, Fashion Focus takes a journey "Spiced With Foreign Flavor" by Orrick's Travel Bureau, to preview fashionable imports from a dozen countries gathered by Tiki's of Sausalito with footwear by Netboy's and honoring Marin Chapter of B'nai B'rith and the Sisterhood of the Jewish Community Center. Reservations are made by calling Rickey's.

Mrs. Arthur Bottini Honored By Temple At Surprise Dinner

Mrs. Arthur Bottini, newly installed most excellent chief of Muir Temple, Pythian Sisters of Mill Valley, was guest of honor at a surprise dinner given her by members at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, recently.

Those participating were Mesdames William Wegner, Henry Meyer, Doris Leacock, Leslie Vogensen, Elizabeth Iverson, Paul Hanson, James Smith, Verna Strittmatter, Emma Young, Etta Coats, Max Graefe, Frank Oliveira, Winifred McMahon, Leona Swanke, George Vogensen, Charles Hadley, Harold Owen and Miss Elsie Peterson.

Mrs. Bottini was presented with a corsage and gift and group singing completed the evening.

The last meeting of Muir Temple was followed by a pictorial "Around the World in 80 Minutes," presented by means of colored slides shown by Ludia Ruiz.

Next event for the group will be a bake sale to be held Saturday at the Corte Madera Shopping Center near the "Thrifty" store.

Sausalito Dancers Set Easter Party

An Easter folk dance party with an all request program is planned for Saturday by the Sausalito Step-Togethers for its regular fourth Saturday dance at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley.

The popular all request program will be continued at all fourth Saturday parties given by the group. Dancing begins at 8:15 p.m.

Helen and Bill Wood, Eloise Hopkins and Leo Parachini will be hosts. All folk and square dancers are invited to attend and write in their favorite old and new dances.

Friends Begin Work On New Library

Volunteers of The Friends of Arequipa that participated recently were Mesdames A. R. Sauter, Robert Evgu, R. L. Thompson, Victor Kagan, Willard Hall, Acacia Unit; Louis Vogler, Driftwood Unit and W. L. Costa from the Baywood Unit.

Miss Helen Westlake, well-known Marin librarian, has donated her time and services. Her valuable experience has been shared with the volunteers who are sorting and cateloguing the books. According to Miss Westlake, there is a good basic collection of older books of fiction. There is hope that the library can be augmented by donations of more non-fiction books, biographies, travel, popular science and psychology, arts and crafts and texts on mental and spiritual health. Fiction books published since 1950 would also be appreciated.

At the recent library "launching," it was noted that volunteers able to type can help expedite the two card file and book card system. Those who would like to learn book mending and others who can help in general service would aid the completion of a library that will be of value to the handicapped. Anyone desiring to volunteer for any of these services on Thursday contact Mrs. Costa of San Anselmo.

Marin Women

TOM THUMB CHAPTER SETS STYLE SHOW

At last the men can join their wives in anticipation of summer fashions. The members of the Tom Thumb Chapter of the Children's Home Society have decided their husbands have too long been ignored in the fashion parades.

Saturday evening, April 18, they plan to introduce their husbands and guests to this year's "High Fashions and Guy Fashions, featuring many selections from the Modern Eve Shop and Cazassa's Men's Shop, both of San Rafael, with hair styles by Town House. Preceding the showing, to be held in the Flamingo Room of the Bermuda Palms, will be an 8 o'clock cocktail hour.

Mrs. John Russell of Kentfield is chairman of this fundraising event, the proceeds of which will be used to further the services of the Children's Home Society, a private adoption agency which last year placed 971 children in adoptive homes. Children's Home Society is a member of the United Bay Area Crusade.

Mothers' Day Carnival Set In Marinwood

The Marinwood Home and School Club is planning a gigantic carnival for May 10, Mothers' Day, to be held at the Mary E. Silveira School grounds in Marinwood.

Mrs. Richard L. Shirley is in charge of the carnival which will get off to a start with the serving of breakfast with Edwin Lewin acting as master chef and chief pancake flipper.

Breakfast will be served all during the morning hours. This provides an excellent opportunity to take Mom and the whole family out to breakfast on her day. A midway will be constructed on the school grounds under the direction of Daniel Harris and will be replete with games under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. Pedersen.

Each grade at the school will be represented by a booth. These will include the ever-popular fish pond, wheel of fortune, coke ring toss, and a post office with packages from all over the world.

Paul Kiefer and Howard Council are arranging for the door prizes, and Mrs. James Levien is making plans for a sidewalk cafe where food and refreshments will be served by the Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls. The affair will conclude with an evening production planned by Mrs Glenn Howerton which promises lots of exciting entertainment.

Leather Garments On Color Rampage

Leather coats and jackets come in for a big share of fashion coverage this spring.

Blooming on the scene in a host of new leather colors and styles, in both smooth grains and silky suedes, they're designed to go fashionably 'round the clock.

In keeping with the more feminine look in spring fashion, suede leather garments are styled with soft, fluid lines and are simply detailed.

Coats, for instance, feature wider collars that are sometimes softly draped out to the shoulder line. Sleeves are deep-set for freedom of movement and, except on sporty styles, pockets are flat and discreet.

Ultra feminine and fashionable are the coats and jackets detailed to give the effect of the high-rising waistline. This is done by stitched seams, tucking, deep-set yokes, either in front or in back, and high-placed front pockets. Other slim coats are designed with belts that can be worn at waist level or tied just below the bosom.

Color is one of the main fashion points in leather garments this spring. Just name the color—it's yours! The new vivid pinks and blues and yellows are popular, along with the pale, pale tones such as off-white and beige.

The pale hues are made practical as well as fashionable by the easy cleaning of leather. Wiping with mild soapsuds or just a damp cloth is suggested.

Horizon Club Girls Will Usher For Choir Performance

When Barry Mineah's Boys' Choir of the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour performs the Music for Minors program on April 4, several groups of Horizon Club girls will again be ushering.

Marin County Horizon Clubs have assumed the responsibility of seeing that there are adequate ushers for all performances. Groups participating have been the Stardusters, advisors, Mrs. W. F. Hinkley and Mrs. A. V. Girot Jr.; the Nozirohs, advisor, Mrs. Harry Bell, and the Horizon Club, advisor, Mrs. D. W. Schneider assisted by Miss Marge Bilderback.

Church Sets Dates For Salvage Sale

Dates for the Mill Valley Episcopal Church's annual salvage sale have been set for May 14 through 18, according to Mrs. H. E. Houchard, general chairman.

She will be assisted by Mesdames Kenneth Beebe and G. R. Brockmann.

Those interested in donating articles may leave them at the church or call the church office to arrange pickup service.

Churchills Entertain At Dessert-Coffee

Entertaining before the Low-Jinx at the Sausalito Woman's Club Saturday night were the John Churchills who had a group of their friends in for dessert and coffee before going on to the repeat performance of "And It Came To Pass," the very successful High-jinx production that was staged at the Founders' Day luncheon the previous Thursday.

Fit In Knits

Look for fit in knits. An important casual cover-up will be jacket-styled sweaters, in plain or looped mohair. Knitted dresses and suits vary from a relaxed sheath silhouette to the fitted waist, either natural or Empire, with a curved ribcage belt or self tie

School Problems Are Discussed By Old Mill P-TA

Four school problems were discussed in "Buzz Session" fashion with members seated around tables in groups at the recent March meeting of the Old Mill School Parent-Teacher Assn.

Topics planned for the evening as a follow-up on the information series of programs presented during the year were (1) What do you want the school to do for your child?—Mrs. Salem Rice, leader (2) Shall we unify our school districts?—Mrs. Pierpont Buck, leader; (3) What do you want in your school buildings? — Arne Anderson, leader; and (4) How do you want to pay for your schools?—George Wood, leader.

With Pierpont Buck as discussion group leader, results from each table were reported on to the general assembly and a further evaluation was made.

A slate of officers for the coming year presented by nominating committee chairman Mrs. Hugh James consisted Jof Mesdames Horace Schwartz president; Grant Lippitt, first vice president; Robert Loeb, second vice president; Taber Kopan, treasurer; and John Thomson, secretary.

Anderson announced that a new civic affairs group called "VIG," standing for "Voters' Information Group" emerged as a result of interest and activity stimulated by the informative series of programs.

Coffee was served during the evening by hospitality chairman Mrs. Richard Kemp and second grade room mothers, Mrs. Weld Wilke and Mrs. Maurice Leonard.

Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae Aid Marindale School

An interesting morning was spent recently by members of the Marin Zeta Alumnae in visiting the Marindale School in Terra Linda which is maintained for the orthopedically handicapped.

Pleasure was derived by the members in assisting the teachers and aiding in folk dances with the children. The eagerness to participate and willingness of each child to do his best were an inspiration to the alumnae. Additions to the record library of the school have been purchased and sewing machines will soon be installed to construct sturdy, removable doll clothes for the five dolls which have been acquired for presentation to the younger children in the school.

As a national philanthropy Zeta Tau Alpha has produced a Teaching Aid Manual for cerebral palsied children, for distribution to the audio-visual departments of schools, to special schools, doctors, therapists and others working with these children. Thousands of these manuals have been distributed in the United States but so many requests have come from other countries that they are now being sent abroad in quantity. The fraternity has also produced a set of filmstrips entitled "A Child's Road to Independence" which many alumnae groups have purchased and presented to school departments and societies for crippled children throughout the United States.

The last meeting of the Marin Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae group was a dessert-bridge-games evening at the home of Mrs. D. R. Mitchell in Lucas Valley.

Those present were Miss Kay Causey and Mrs. Bobby Yankey of Sausalito; and Mesdames Vernon Baumann of San Rafael, Aden Cuykendall of Corte Madera, Robin Galloway of Kentfield, Richard Hill of San Anselmo, Mitchell of Lucas Valley, and Daniel Strohl of Marinwood. All Zetas living in the county who would like to join the group are invited to contact Mrs. Hill.

Wise Words For Parents, Baby Sitters

COLUMBUS, O. (UPI)—A family's attitude determines the kind of job a baby sitter does, says an extension specialist.

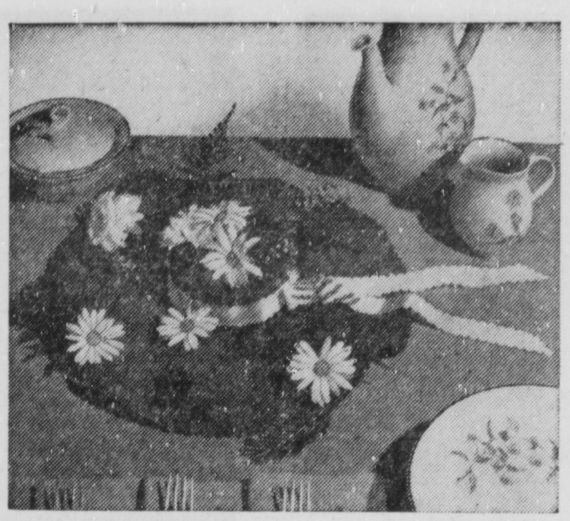

The more accurate information given the baby sitter, the better the results, according to John Shultz, of Ohio State University.

Parents should tell sitters how to lock and unlock doors, where to find main switches, telephones, and children's clothing and how to regulate furnaces.

The child's routine also is important, he said. The sitter should understand what time the child goes to bed, if he says prayers, if a light is left on in the room or hall, and if the window should be open.

Parents must make it clear whether the sitter's friends are allowed, and whether she may use the telephone, radio, and television or raid the refrigerator.

Also leave a note giving a number where you can be reached, the hour you expect to return, and the name of a responsible neighbor in case of emergency. Finally, Shultz added, arrange for safe return of the baby sitter to her home.

Easter Bonnet Sets Party Table Theme

By DOROTHY ROE

An unusual, dramatic table centerpiece gets the party off to a gala start. If you are serving an after-church brunch on Easter Sunday, let the Easter bonnet set the theme for you table.

Local sewing center experts suggest you make a centerpiece hat of felt in springtime violet. Set the crown over a low bowl and cut tiny holes in it to hold fresh flowers, so their stems are in water. Scalloping shears used around the edge of the hat and on its ribbon give a decorative scalloped edge.

To make the hat, cut a circle of felt about 18 inches in diameter. Cut a four-inch circle out of the center. Cut a strip three inches wide and as long as necessary to form the crown of the hat. Stitch to the four-inch circle of felt and to the brim. Add a slender roll of tissue paper to under-section of crown, to keep it in shape. Use scalloping shears along sides of a piece of ribbon and tie around crown of hat.

Now set the hat over a low bowl. With sharp, pointed scissors, make holes in the crown and stick fresh flowers in the hat, with stems reaching the water.

School Groups Tour Hospital

Several school groups have recently taken advantage of the tours conducted by the Pink Ladies at Marin General Hospital. Thirty members of Zander's sixth grade group from Alto School in Mill Valley were recent visitors, and Mr. H. D. Hildebrandt's Physiology Club of San Rafael High School also visited the hospital. Members of the club who attended were Mary Beth Garrison, Lenola Winnie, Karen Erickson, Bob Zunino, May Erickson and Rosemary Cook.

Cookie Sale Proceeds To Build Kitchen

A kitchen for the new Sierraville Girl Scout Camp, plus needed funds for Scouting in Marin, will be the anticipated result from the annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale which will take place in Marin County from April 3 to April 17.

A Danish type assorted box of cookies will be sold by the Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Scouts in neighborhoods, stores and banks.

Buttons will be presented to girls who sell two cases of cookies and ribbon awards for all troops selling two cases per girl. A trophy will be awarded to each of the two troops who sell the greatest number of cases per girl. The trophies are perpetual and are inscribed each year. All girls who sell two dozen boxes or more will be invited to attend a theater party at the Sequoia Theater in Mill Valley, May 9. In addition to the movie, awards will be presented and a program of community singing will follow.

Chairman of the 1959 Girl Scout cookie committee is Mrs. Thomas J. Mellon. County sale chairman is Mrs. Howard Perry and committee members are Mesdames Arthur Collbran, Harold Green, Robert Kettenbach and Charles Stuart.

Watch The Soap

Don't oversoap when doing the family laundry. It is almost impossible to rinse clothes properly when an overdose of washing compounds have been used. This poor rinsing causes a build up of gray or yellow residue on garments.

Original Founder Pays Visit To Club On Birthday

A delightful surprise to the members of the Sausalito Woman's Club was the appearance at the recent Founders' Day Luncheon of Miss Fannie Shoobert, the last of the original 10 founders of the club.

Miss Shoobert presented to the club a birthday gift on the occasion of its 46th birthday. The gift was a beautiful antique 'wassail' bowl which had been in the Shoobert family for many years, and "now it has found a home," she said in presenting it.

This was Miss Shoobert's first appearance in many years at the club as she is unable to get about as much as she used to. She was greeted by many of her old friends who knew her when she was an active member of the club and by the newer members.

Mrs. Richard Phillips, general chairman for the Founders' Day celebration, arranged for Miss Shoobert's outing and surprise visit to the club.

Miss Shoobert was delightfully entertaining telling stories about the club and on herself and family "in the early days." Tiring from the day's unusual festivities, she was unable to stay for the "little Jinxies," as she called the annual Founders' Day program. The club members gave her a standing ovation when she left.

AMATEUR CAMERA STUDY—This still-life, photographed in College of Marin sculpture class, is typical of better work of students in intermediate photography class of the college's adult school. Carroll Stoerker of San Rafael bounced his flash off the ceiling to bring out the texture of the clay. This and other photos on this page were taken by photography students as class work at the college.

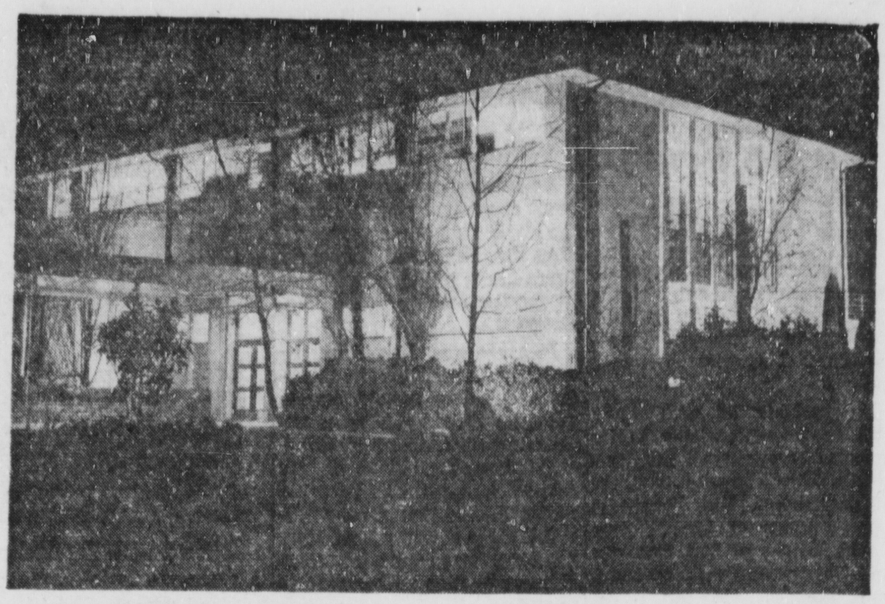

NO TIME TO SMILE—A study in concentration is this beginning typing student at College of Marin, pictured candidly by existing light. Typing is but one of a number of business courses beginning spring quarter next week in the adult school program.

SHINES BY NIGHT—A class assignment in advanced flash technique resulted in this well illuminated view of the College of Marin art department. Exposure was made for the interior lights while four students triggered flashbulbs up close to the building to put detail in the exterior. This is one wing of the art building.

SKILLFUL HANDS—Another Smickler photo in one of the college's pottery classes. Students were encouraged to work in close and find pictures where they might not have realized they existed. The well-equipped pottery department becomes a favorite subject for existing light photos.

Marin Adults Go To School

College of Marin adult school will open its spring quarter Monday evening.

Registration for spring quarter classes will be accepted until Saturday, April 4, said Dr. Samuel N. LeCount, director of adult education. Tuition is $4 per student per class, payable at the first meeting of the class. The only courses with no charge are those in citizenship training and English for the foreign-born.

The college office is open this week to answer questions regarding the adult program.

Molino's intermediate photography class will have its first spring quarter session Wednesday at 7 p.m. A basic photography class taught by Arthur Strout will start its spring schedule Monday at 7 p.m.

SEEMS TO BE A PROBLEM—Dennis McCarthy, an intermediate photography student, caught up with this pensive young lady in crafts class, using flash and a twin lens reflex. This class offers individual help to students in a variety of arts and crafts.

MURAL-SIZE CANVAS OF HIGH SIERRA

"High Sierra From Mt. Whitney," painted by Ray Strong of Mill Valley, shows the artist's skill in adapting naturalistic forms to abstract design. This and more than 30 other Strong canvases will be exhibited at one-man show at Maxwell Galleries in San Francisco, which started Tuesday and ends April 13. Included in exhibition will be small field sketches from which the artist composes his larger works. One of Strong's best-known paintings, "Golden Gate Bridge Under Construction," hangs in the White House in Washington, D.C. His works also may be seen at Lassen, Rainier and White Sands National Parks.

The Becker team was six points down after the first 18 hands but picked up 26 markers in the second 18 to take its 10th victory in 11 Vanderbilt matches. It was a double elimination tournament.

The winner from the Marin region in the 22nd annual contest will go on to district competition May 8 at Hoberg's Resort in Lake County.

The student talks are to be based on some phase of the subject "Complacency, a Danger to America."

John Chambers of Kentfield, a junior at Redwood High School, will represent the Corte Madera Lions Club. Melinda Krause, a Marin Catholic High School student, will be Kentfield Lions Club's entry. Deanna Denman of San Rafael, also a Marin Catholic student, will represent San Rafael Lions Club.

The competition will be started about 8 p.m. at the Mission Inn in San Rafael. The contestants and club officials will meet at the inn at 7 p.m. for dinner. Deputy District Governor Arthur Robetson of Novato will preside.

The winner of the competition at Hoberg's will compete in an area contest. The winners from the four areas in California and Nevada will compete for the District 4 championship, top prize in which will be a $1,500 scholarship.

Discipline Worries Neophyte Teachers

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A University of California professor says prospective teachers worry more about discipline than other problems as they prepare for their first teaching assignment.

Dr. Lawrence E. Vredevoe, professor of education at the university's Los Angeles campus, says he has questioned more than 5,000 administrators, teachers and students on school problems.

When he recently asked 3,000 prospective teachers, "What gives you greatest concern or worry as you plan for your first teaching position?" 2,480 answered, "Discipline."

Administrators also gave as the chief reason for dismissal or failure to recommend teachers for re-employment as problems coming under the "discipline" classification.

20 Million Visit Beaches, Parks

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A record 20 million people visited California's state beaches and parks in 1958.

That five and one-half million more than the state's total population, and almost four million more than went to the parks in 1957.

Nine new parks, four beaches and six historical monuments were operating in 1958, making the total 52 parks, 22 beaches and 21 monuments.

Ballot Court Bills Favored

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Two bills designed to speed up California's painfully slow election ballot count have been approved by an Assembly committee under a procedure which virtually assures passage through the lower house.

The measures, authored by Assemblyman Robert Crown (D-Almaeda), were passed by the Elections Committee yesterday and placed on the consent calendar.

Crown explained his bills would permit county clerks to divide the ballot into partisan and non-partisan offices. He said this would permit easier electronic vote counting.

"In addition," Crown said, "it would permit the press to obtain the results of partisan elections sooner.

The measures were supported by California newspapers.

Coffee Shop Sale Not Complete Yet

Plans for purchase of the Village Fair Coffee Shop in Sausalito and the creation of a mezzanine floor ice cream parlor are still in the preliminary stage, according to David K. Orthwein of Sausalito, potential purchaser of the business.

A report in the Independent-Journal that Orthwein has purchased the shop from Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rose was premature, Orthwein stated. He said papers on the transaction are in escrow.

Great Universities Debase Selves By Hiring Athletes

The University of California won a great victory over the weekend in capturing the national championship in the tournament at Louisville.

Nobody could take that away from the team; nobody should want to.

But we can't help throwing just a little cold water on the enthusiasm of some of Cal's officialdom.

U.C. Chancellor Glenn Seaborg was reported as expressing great pride because "the team is so representative of the student body and ideals of the school.

"It should be obvious that this is not a semi-professional club." This latter refers to Cal's claim that U.C. basketball players receive no remuneration or other special inducements to enroll and play for Cal.

It strikes us that things have reached a sorry state when it becomes unique for a great university to claim an unpaid athletic team.

Chancellor Seaborg must find himself in the inexplicable situation of boasting on the one hand that Cal's basketball team is unpaid, while being party to new football eligibility rules which provide, in effect, for salary increases for football players who, curiously, maintain their official amateur standing as non-professional athletes.

How can we maintain respect for our institutions of higher learning when their officials participate in such hypocrisy?

Institutions of higher learning ought to abandon the evil practice of hiring athletes and the University of California—with "encouragement" from the governor, the legislature and the Board of Regents, if necessary—ought to lead the way back to integrity in college athletics.

A Hint Of Color To Come

The spring wildflowers are coming on now, not in large showy masses yet, but just a hint of color to come. Along highway 101 between San Rafael and the Golden Gate occasional poppies and lupine are blooming.

On the road from Fairfax to Alpine Dam the wild lilac is in full bloom. Shooting stars, milk maids, Indian paintbrush, buttercups and lupine are making small group appearances.

Give Mother Nature a couple more weeks and some of our hills and dales should be literally a carpet of wild flowers. It will be interesting to see what effect the comparatively dry spring has on the flowers. Will they be less abundant than usual?

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

HOLY THURSDAY

After instituting the Holy Eucharist, the Lord gave an extraordinary discourse to His apostles.

1. "I am the way and the truth, and the life. No man cometh to the Father, but by me." (14:6).
2. "If you love me, keep my commandments." (14:15).
3. "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you." (14:27)
4. "This is my commandment: that you love one another, as I have loved you." (15:12)
5. "If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you." (15:20)
6. "Ask and you shall receive, that your joy may be full." (16:24)
7. "These things I have spoken to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you shall have distress: but have confidence, I have overcome the world." (16:33)

Draw me, O my Redeemer, to Your saving truths and away from the deceptions of man.

If You Want Job To Impress Wife, Don't Let Her Visit Your Office

NEW YORK (AP) — Should a wife be encouraged to visit her husband's office frequently?

Prof. James A. Peterson, a marriage counselor at the University of Southern California, says this is a good idea. He says it would help give wives an appreciation of their husband's problems and pressures on the job.

We don't agree at all. We have another idea. We think every office should hire a 230-pound ex-football tackle as a receptionist.

His duty would be simple. Every time a wife stuck her nose in the door, the receptionist would throw a hammerlock on her, rassle her into the nearest elevator, and push the button marked "Down."

We are somewhat old-fashioned in this matter. We don't say a woman's only place is in the kitchen of her home. But we do say her place definitely is not in her husband's office. And, except for one or two born cowards, every man we know feels pretty much the same way.

So what happens when his wife, during a pause in shopping, drops into the office unexpectedly?

Everybody in the office is busy working but her husband. He is sitting there, laughing, with his feet on the desk and seemingly staring at the derriere of a passing stenographer.

THE WIFE'S visit is brief and frigid. Here is a sample of the conversation at home that night.

Wife: "You were the only one loafing."

Husband: "As God is my judge, I'd just put my feet on that desk one second before you came in — just to rest them."

Wife: "But you were laughing."

Husband: "The boss had just told me a joke and gone into his office. When the boss tells a joke, you have to laugh, it's a form of unemployment insurance."

WIFE: "Why were you staring at that pretty stenographer?"

Wife, unconvinced: "Well, I wish someone would pay me money just to sit around and laugh with both feet on the desk. Don't give me any more guff about what a hard life you have at the office. If you ask me, I don't think you'll be there much longer — from the looks of things."

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

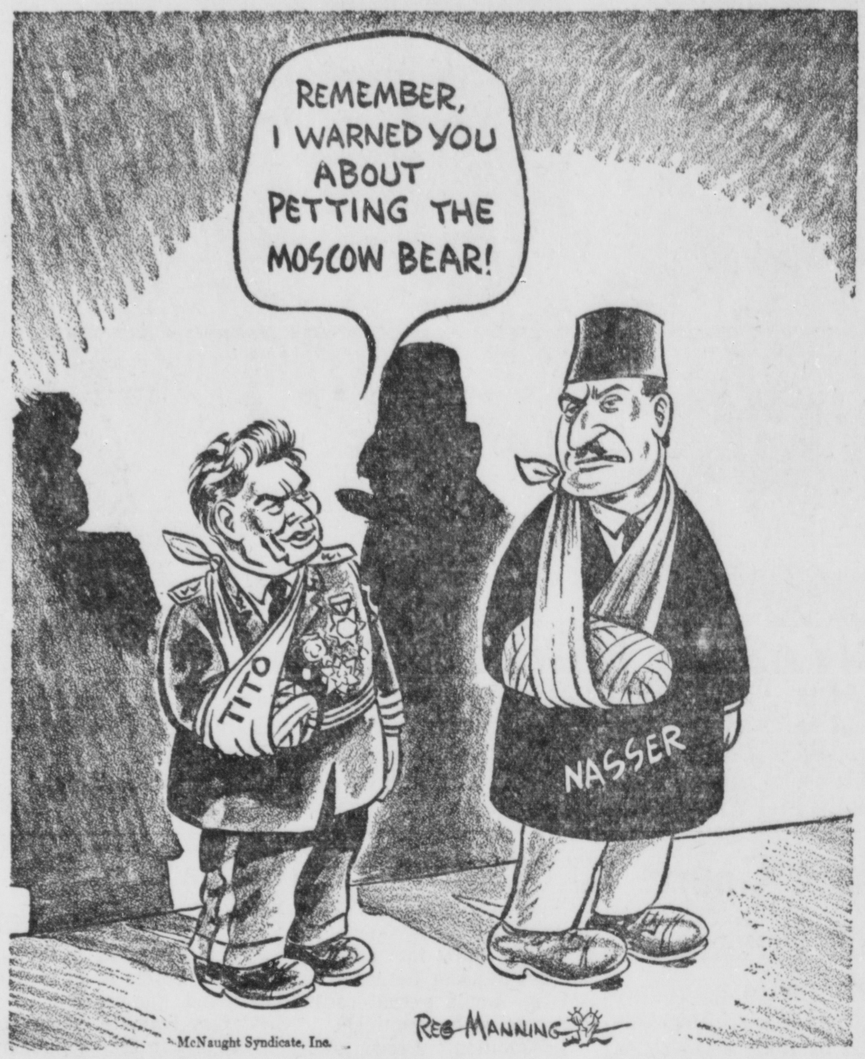

"I wish I could be impressed by my own self-importance. . . . !"

10 YEARS AGO

A plea by the Town of Corte Madera to annex property owned by Charles E. Paganini on Highway 101 was declared null and void by Judge C. A. Paulsen of Trinity County Superior Court after nearly two years of legal tangling. Judge Paulsen rendered the judgment in favor of Paganini, who as president of Carton Label Lithograph Co. of San Francisco, planned to build a million dollar plant and wanted to remain in unincorporated area for tax reasons.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Must Maintain Free Choice

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

One answer to Reader Sherry's question in his Saturday, March 21 letter "Why Recruiting and Draft Both?" is that it affords one of the Four Freedoms, namely, freedom of expression. With only the draft, when one becomes eighteen and a HALF he becomes eligible to go and then by law into the Army. Between ages seventeen and eighteen and a HALF with recruiting he can express his choice of military obligation by voluntarily seeing the Recruiter of his choice. A person will generally do a better job whether it is military or civilian if he is in the line of occupation he likes and can do the best. It is a fundamental expression of our American heritage to be able to serve our country in the branch of the service which will be of mutual advantage to the citizen and his country.

Too Many Wrong Kind Of Trees?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In a certain place we read "there were giants in those days — and also after that."

The latter clause may refer to the giants we have in Marvelous Marin.

Evidentaly what makes the county marvelous are the trees, hills, climate, location, etc.

Now the giants could not very well change the location of our county or the climate, but they could have cut down many trees, and they could have leveled many hills.

However, we have only to look at some of the hills to see that they have planted more trees than they have cut down. Now, along come Tiburoners to plant 10,000 more trees. From the Independent-Journal of October 16, 1958, we learn that wonders in tree planting are proceeding on the Redwood Highway in Sonoma County. Nevertheless, sometimes the wrong kind of trees have been planted in the wrong places.

On one of the writer's trips to the High Sierra, he met some young people coming down from above the timberline. Being enthusiastic, they said, among other things, "and, there are no trees."

Sometimes trees may hide more beautiful ones or an inspiring skyline. The P.G.&E. can tell us how costly it may become to maintain the wrong trees in the wrong place. They will give you free, a beautiful pamphlet listing trees which fit into the right place.

When Dr. Stanley traveled in tropical Africa, he spoke of the green hell. When the natives finally got out, they jumped and shouted for joy because there was a view.

Starting to walk along the Miracle Mile from San Rafael we have mostly a beautiful view of tree-clad hills and the skyline. However, when we reach Sequoia Drive in San Anselmo the case is quite different. The trees are of such a nature, and are treated in such a way that they reveal the ugliness which is beneath, and they hide the beauty of the hills and the skyline above.

CAPITOL REPORT

Fight Over Minimum Wage Finds Gov. Brown In Middle

By JAMES C. ANDERSON

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Farm groups and organized labor are flexing their muscles for an all-out battle over a guaranteed minimum wage — but the man who may be caught in the middle is Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

At the outset of his administration, Democrat Brown asked the Legislature for a $1.25 an hour minimum wage "to assure a worker that he will be paid enough to maintain himself in health and decency."

Backing the bill to the hilt were C. J. Haggerty, the AFL-CIO leader, and Brown's new director of the Department of Industrial Relations, John F. Henning, ex-research director of the AFL-CIO.

ALMOST FROM the day it was introduced, the measure by Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins (D-Los Angeles) became a target for every farm group lobbyist in the capitol.

When the bill finally got its first committee hearing last week, the farmers were ready.

Anticipating the opposition, the Brown administration made the first move. On his own motion and before any testimony had been heard, Hawkins changed his bill so that the minimum wage for Agricultural workers would be only a dollar an hour with a $1.25 figure set for all other adult workers.

But if the Brown administration thought that would satisfy the farm groups. it was mistaken.

The farm lobbyists made two main points:

1. A guaranteed minimum wage "puts a premium on laziness." The farmers explained that under existing piece work rates of pay, a hard-working field hand makes more than the lazy one or inefficient worker. If all were guaranteed $1 an hour, it would be an invitation to loaf.

2. California must compete in the Eastern market with products of southern states where average wages paid farm laborers run as low as 40 cents an hour.

Henning and Hawkins handled the rebuttal which went like this:

"We should never try to remake this state in the image of Alabama, Arkansas or Mississippi," said Henning. "The agricultural worker is most in need of help and assistance."

"How can anyone survive in human decency on less than a dollar an hour," asked Hawkins. "We're talking about a minimum wage less than what people are getting on straight relief."

The Democrats' dilemma is that while they want to stand up and be counted for Brown's program for "responsible liberalism" they still can't overlook or ignore the pressures from the home folks.

In the Senate, particularly, farm groups are going to pull out the stops to get the 27 upper house Democrats to forget the party and the Governor and vote to "save the farmer."

Unanswered Question: Should Voters Decide Civic Center Issue?

ARE MARIN COUNTY Supervisors using steam-roller tactics as they go ahead with plans for a civic center at Santa Venetia or aren't they?

Oor to put the question in more abstuse terms, how frequently may a voter legislate directly and still keep some sort of efficiency in self-government?

This is the problem: The determined foes of a civic center at Santa Venetia (joined by critics of Architect Frank Lloyd Wright who designed it) have advanced the suggestion that the project be placed on the ballot at a special election so that the Marin voter can say yes or no directly.

Wright is now in the process of drawing plans. The first two stages of the civic center, he estimates will cost $2,724,000 or $1,400,000.

The Santa Venetia civic center foes — which include members of the Marin County Taxpayers Assn. and independent, unaffiliated foes — say: The Marin voter should be able to pass on such a large expenditure of money.

(As of this moment, there actually is no way of gauging how many people are opposed to the Santa Venetia civic center.)

ONLY ONE MEMBER of the county board of supervisors has shown any interest in the ballot proposal. That one is Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

Mrs. Evelyn McDougall of Mill Valley, a spokesman for the anti-civic center people, took the supervisors to task this week for committing Marin taxpayers to 12 or 15 million dollars for a civic center (these were her estimates).

Supervisor Vera Schultz replied to Mrs. McDougall. "You can't have direct legislation on every policy decision before the county supervisors," said Mrs. Schultz.

"If the voters do not agree with the board's policy decision, they may retire a member of the board at the next election," pointed out Mrs. Schultz.

But Mrs. McDougall did not like this idea, even if a totally new board of supervisors were elected who wanted to drop the Santa Venetia civic center project. "You're still obligated," she said. "It's expensive to drop it and expensive to carry it on."

"It's been done before," Mrs. Schultz reminded her, apropos of a turnabout on the part of the board of supervisors when they already had plans in hand for a certain project.

COUNTY CLERK George S. Jones agreed that over the years "there have been any number of plans for additions to the court house." On one occasion prior to World War II, a contract had actually been let, but the war started and the project was dropped.

The supervisors postponed a decision on a special civic center referendum by referring the proposal to County Counsel Leland H. Jordan for an opinion.

And the question remains unsettled — should the supervisors refer the proposal to the voters or shouldn't they? Are Marin voters represented directly enough by electing a supervisor from their district once every four years or not?

A great source of annoyance to the Santa Venetia civic center foes is that the supervisors are not forced to go to the polls to get money to finance it. It is being paid for out of current county money, a portion reserved each year out of the county's general fund.

Democrats Unbalance Eisenhower Budget 'Behind The Curtains'

WASHINGTON — Are the Democratic leaders going to be willing to face the Eisenhower balance-the-budget issue head-on and soon in order that the voters may have some say in the outcome?

They are not doing it so far.

THE EFFECT of Democratic speeches and Democratic maneuver is to blur the issue that it will be difficult to determine who has unbalanced the budget, where, and for what reason. And it will come so late in the session that public opinion will have little chance to make itself felt one way or the other.

If the Democrats are going to meet the Eisenhower hold-the-line budget issue and give the voters a chance to support or reject an alternative policy, they must do two things:

1 — They must quit jiggering the budget piece-meal, adding a hunk here, chipping off a corner there, and, instead, offer Congress and the country a coherent, total spending program which they can look at whole and decide whether they want it.

2 — Do it soon enough so that the consequences of the Democrats' national budget—good or bad — can be seen and judged in comparison with the Eisenhower national budget.

WHEN THE President sent his budget to Congress — precariously balanced, but still balanced, with an estimated $70,000,000 surplus — he was beginning to point up a real, fundamental and philosophical difference between the Democratic and Republican parties.

Mr. Eisenhower, even in the face of a $40,000,000,000 defense program, is proposing to hold-the-line on a great deal of Federal spending; he was freezing some programs, cutting others, and proposing little in the way of new or increased public services. He emphasized balancing the budget as a vital end in itself and as a measure to hold inflation.

Here, at last, there appeared to be in the making a basic party divergence of both principle and practice. Most of the Democrats said they wanted to spend more for defense, more for housing, health, aid to education, airports, roads, and aid to distressed areas where unemployment is still high. At the same time many Democrats argued that more Federal spending would promote economic growth and that an unbalanced budget might even be beneficial.

THERE IS NO doubt, I think, that a pretty sizable gulf spreads out between the two parties on this budget-spending issue. But so far it is being fogged by a piecemeal approach and the prospect is that it will be cleared so late in the session that neither Congress nor the country will quite know what's happening before it is too late.

It seems to me that the Democratic majority — or the Democratic Advisory Council — owes it to the country to show openly what they want the public to approve rather than to remake the budget piece-meal behind the curtains.

HILLHAVEN HOME COMES TO MARIN

This $140,000 nursing home, the latest in Hillhaven, Inc., chain, will go up in San Rafael on the south side of the Miracle Mile this year. Arthur R. Nicolaisen, partner in a San Anselmo contracting firm, will own and build the structure on a lot at West End avenue and Sentinel court, just east of the Marin County Real Estate Board building. Nicolaisen hopes to build the 55-bed nursing home by the end of this year. He plans to lease it to Hillhaven, Inc., with headquarters in Tacoma, Wash., for 15 or 20 years. Construction will be of wood frame and brick veneer. It will have a flat roof of tar and gravel.

Bus, Bicycle Collide; Boy, 10, Injured

Driver of the bus, Harry Hutton Jr., 32, of 117 Mabry way, San Rafael, saw the boy on a bicycle pull into Magnolia avenue to go around a parked car and swerved his northbound bus to avoid hitting the youngster, reported Larkspur Police Chief Howard A. Clark.

The rear wheel of the bus caught the bike and the boy was flipped to the pavement, Chief Clark said. Both bus and bike-rider were headed north in the evening rush-hour traffic.

The boy was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital.

Crackdown Urged On Delinquency In 'Class' Suburbs

FRESNO (AP)—California's juvenile officers were warned yesterday by Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk not to close their eyes to delinquency in suburbs and better class neighborhoods because of social and political pressures.

Mosk said parents should be made to realize that "keeping youngsters off the record is not keeping them out of trouble."

The attorney general said juvenile drinking, narcotics and sex deviation are on the upswing. He said many youngsters "sport a pseudo-sophisticated attitude that is really nothing more than indifference toward the home, school and church."

He declared that 95 per cent of all delinquency is rooted in the home.

Mrs. Schultz Assails Districts' Proliferation

By JACK EISEN
I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — An "invisible thief" is picking the pockets of Marin County taxpayers, Supervisor Vera Schultz charged here.

She identified the thief as as the proliferation of special districts formed to provide a variety of community services.

Mrs. Schultz said these districts cannot be controlled by the board of supervisors, yet they leave the county government with only 30 cents of each local tax dollar.

The Southern Marin supervisor made the assertions at a panel discussion of the Urban County Congress of the National Assn. of County Officials held here last week.

Mrs. Schultz said her presentation was a "cry of protest" which she had not been able to voice previously.

Her description of the overlapping special districts—nine fire districts, 12 sanitary districts, four community service districts, a recreation district, three public utility districts, a harbor district and a mosquito abatement district — drew astonished laughter from the audience.

So did her ticking off of the increases in tax rates reported for the various fire districts in Southern Marin.

Many of these districts are self-perpetuating and unresponsive to taxpayers, Mrs. Schultz contended.

In some instances, she said, even the names of the supposedly elected commissioners are not known at the courthouse in San Rafael.

She explained the California law that provides for automatic retention in office, without election, of fire commissioners if there is no opposition.

PREPARED PAPER

In a prepared paper that accompanied her presentation, Mrs. Schultz declared:

"Marin's auditor states there is no doubt that the administrative and operational costs of many small districts in our county are far greater than they need to be, due to the duplication of effort that takes place."

Each new addition of a special district or similar device adds to the confusion, she declared.

"The future of Marin County as part of the San Francisco Bay metropolitan area is completely dependent upon how soon or whether the Legislature modernizes the methods by which general-law counties can come to grips with the metropolitan problem without catastrophic tax costs to our residents."

LOCAL LEADERSHIP

She said local leadership is needed but it must be supplemented by "the driving desire of business and industry to achieve reasonable government operation at the local level."

The present system is a straitjacket, she contended.

When Mrs. Schultz finished, the moderator — a county official from New York State — said he was "damn glad" he didn't have to put up with the special district situation.

On a panel that preceded Mrs. Schultz's was a planning expert with a Marin County background, Hugh Pomeroy. Pomeroy prepared the first master plan for Marin County in the 1930s, and later became planning director of another suburban area, Westchester County, N.Y.

Young Holdup Pair Scolded, Sent Home

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two boys accused of attempting bank robbery stood awed and contrite before Juvenile Court Judge Melvin I. Cronin.

He looked sternly at Dan McKay, 9, and Danny Husk, 13, and asked where they got the idea.

"From television," stammered the boys.

Judge Cronin scolded them, lectured the parents and sent them home yesterday. Little Dan and Danny had spent the night in Youth Guidance Center after their arrest Tuesday.

They admitted going to the Bank of America's Mission branch and presented a note demanding $100 under threat to "blow up the bank." The teller, Miss Filamene Miller, shooed them away and told the manager. He called police, who staked out the boys' homes and arrested them after their return from a movie.

Little Dan and Danny said they had only wanted to replenish their supply of play money issued by a bank as a promotion.

YMCA Teen Clubs Discuss Varied Interests At Weekly Sessions

Interests ranging from juvenile drinking to the physical aspects of growing to adulthood motivate the weekly meetings of the 48 teen-age clubs of the YMCA, it was observed today by Brad Bayliss, executive secretary.

"Many parents have asked 'what in the world do they do at these weekly meetings?'" reported Bayliss. In reply, he listed seven typical meetings held by the clubs last week.

"How do we handle problems of teen-agers drinking?" was the question asked last Tuesday night at a joint meeting of the Tri Zemmies Ti Hi-Y of San Rafael and the Psi Gamma Alpha Club of Corte Madera, Larkspur and Mill Valley, both girls clubs. Dr. Samuel LeCount, director of education at College of Marin spoke on the subject.

Drake High School freshmen boys, members of the Gladiators Hi-Y, were given advice that same night by Larry Myer, Mill Valley department store owner, on how to apply for a summer job.

Also Tuesday night, a joint meeting between the Regents Hi-Y, Drake High School sophomore boys, and the Pepperettes, San Rafael High School sophomore girls, concentrated on the problems of highway driving, said Bayliss. Paul Zensius, California Highway Patrolman, was questioned by the two groups.

The physical development of boys and girls and looking ahead to marriage was discussed by Dr. Eugenia Hayes Wednesday night before a meeting of the Doowder Seituaebs, senior girls at Redwood High school.

"Phases of Dating" evoked the interest of the Stags Hi-Y members, sophomore boys at Redwood High, and the Y Teenettes, sophomore girls at San Rafael High at a meeting Wednesday.

The Corte Madera Woodchoppers Hi-Y and the Pharoahs Hi-Y of Redwood High watched a color movie Wednesday on the work of the "Y That Wouldn't Die," commented on by Mrs. Charles Stumpf of San Rafael, a delegate to the World YMCA Centennial in Paris in 1955.

Margaret Karenke, an exchange student attending San Rafael High School from Germany was the special guest of the Calico Cats, senior girls, and the Gremlins, sophomore boys of that school at a joint meeting Wednesday in Santa Venetia.

Selassie To Visit Russia

MOSCOW (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie has accepted an invitation to visit the Soviet Union this summer. Exact dates of his visit were not announced.

Pilots Shoot Walruses

CHITOSE, Japan (AP)—Japan's air force today carried out its first combat mission since World War II—against invading walruses.

There were no confirmed kills.

The air force went into action after fishermen in the area claimed the walruses were wrecking their nets and eating the fish.

History Strikes Twice

SITKA, Alaska (AP) — Sitka's Castle Hill, one of this huge state's most historic spots, will again become the scene of a history-making event July 4.

It was on Castle Hill on Oct. 18, 1867, that Czarist Russia formally signed over to the United States the vast, unexplored territory of Alaska for 7 million dollars.

Next July 4, state officials said the first 49-star flag in this newest state will be raised on Castle Hill.

His Luck Changed

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP)—Less than two weeks ago Romeo Giacin, a 49-year-old timber dealer, and a friend won $394,000 on a football pool. Giacin died early today of peritonitis after an emergency appendectomy.

Jet Fuel Tank Ignites

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A 4,200,000-gallon tank containing jet fuel was ignited by lightning last night at an Air Force fuel depot, but the fire was put out with chemicals in 30 minutes.

The lightning ignited fumes which surrounded the tank but the fire didn't get hot enough to set off the jet fuel. Damage was slight.

'Outstanding' Thief

HONOLULU (AP)—John Peelua, selected as outstanding young man of 1958 for the Hawaiian island of Molokai, will be sentenced April 14 for embezzling $200 from Molokai Community Hospital.

Peelua, 35, was a bookkeeper at the hospital. He pleaded no contest to the charge before Circuit Judge Cable A. Wirtz in Wailuku.

Falls 3 Floors, Lives

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A 2-year-old boy fell to the sidewalk from the third floor of an apartment house yesterday but escaped with facial cuts.

Gerald Wayne Lee fell out of a window when the screen gave way. The screen came down too and apparently cushioned Gerald's fall.

A 'Right' To Strip?

The court turned down yesterday an appeal of two Philadelphia bar owners, whose liquor licenses were suspended on charges of permitting lewd entertainment and allowing entertainers to associate with customers.

Twins Survive

LONDON (UPI) — The 11-month-old Thackeray Siamese twins, separated Monday in a 10-hour operation, showed slight improvement today, doctors reported.

The twins, Jeremy and Timothy, were joined at the head at birth. A third brother was normal and has been restored to his parents.

Jeremy and Timothy were sleeping in separate oxygen tents under the effects of heavy doses of drugs. They will be kept under sedation until the effects of the operation wear off, doctors reported.

Yesterday doctors expressed fears that the life of Jeremy was "in the balance," but a hospital spokesman said he "has surprised and delighted us all" in his struggle to survive.

Mill Valley's Classroom Needs Cited

The report of a "fact-finding committee" headed by former Mill Valley Mayor William A. Hamilton on the need for a $600,000 Mill Valley School District bond issue was presented today to the committee urging passage of the issue.

Declaring that "enrollment of pupils should determine the need of classrooms," the report notes that "average increase in enrollment in the past three years has been 133 new pupils per year," and "over the past 10 years, the average increase has been 156 pupils per year."

FIVE PER YEAR

It notes that "at an average of 39 pupils per room, this requires the addition of approximately five classrooms per year."

The proposed bond issue anticipates addition of 20 classrooms in the next three years.

The report notes also "out of 93 classrooms in use, six are substandard," and that "for further expansion, there remain only three available additional rooms, with one of these substandard."

The report notes further that "it appears from the figures supplied this committee, the district is not eligible for a state loan in this expansion program because it is not bonded to capacity."

NO TAX HIKE

A report from the district's accountants is quoted, which holds that bond redemption could be handled in such a way as to avoid a tax increase.

Committee members, besides Hamilton, were William J. Smith, an engineer and president of the Mill Valley Area taxpayers Assn.; J. W. Bertenshaw, architect; Mrs. John R. Adams, member of the Tamalpais Valley Parent-Teacher Assn.; Arnold J. Oehler, retired auditor and member of the taxpayers association, and Robert C. Cook, executive of California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corp. and member of the Mill Valley Library Board.

Brown Signs Appointment, Refund Bills

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday signed into law a measure giving him power to appoint the chief of the Division of Beaches and Parks.

He also signed a bill permitting property tax refunds for any church which failed to file a loyalty oath to obtain an exemption in 1958. Both laws take effect immediately.

The chief of beaches and parks has been appointed by the director of natural resources from nominees chosen by the state Park Commission. In the new law, the governor will name the chief on recommendation of the director.

The measure was introduced by Assemblyman Jesse Unruh (D-Los Angeles), approved in the Senate 30-2 and in the Assembly 69-10.

Abolition of the loyalty oath for church exemptions from the property tax, written by Assemblyman Glenn Coolidge (R-Felton) complies with a ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court. The Assembly passed it unanimously and the Senate 33-1.

Reed Board Authorizes Bonds Sale

Reed Union School District trustees Tuesday authorized sale of $20,000 worth of bonds to pay for connection of Reed School sewers to the Tiburon Sanitary District lines.

Reed School now uses Belvedere's sewer facilities. Belvedere has served notice on the school district that it must make other arrangements.

Trustees vetoed board participation in a proposed county-wide school district unification survey because "to start another study while the Tamalpais High School District unification survey is in progress would be premature."

Tenure status was approved for seven teachers; 24 teachers were re-employed on an annual basis. The resignation of Robert Tremmerling, eighth grade Reed School teacher, was accepted.

Merchants Give More To League

The Fairfax Merchants Assn. decided yesterday noon to contribute $50 to the Little League as a sponsor, an increase of $25 over last year, reported Mrs. Evelyn Benson, secretary.

Plans are being laid for the association's annual merchants' dinner, open to the public, on April 28 at Rubini's Restaurant in Fairfax. Arrangements for the 7 p.m. dinner are being made by William T. Benson.

Trustees Of Three Schools To Meet

The 8 p.m. meeting will be held at Brookside School in San Anselmo, announced Supt. Harold R. DePue.

MARIN MAIDS TO BE IN AQUACADE

Dominican Presents Sacred Music

By MARTHA BRUCKNER

Palm Sunday, Dominican College of San Rafael presented a concert of sacred music featuring the student chorus of the college and the Dominican College Chamber Singers, both under direction of Winifred Baker, assistant professor of music.

The main work of the concert was Guilio Silva's "The Hound of Heaven," a cantata for women's voices, soprano solo, baritone solo and chamber orchestra.

Silva, who was for about 10 years director of music at Dominican College and now lives in Novato, was apparently inspired to this composition by his teaching at the college, and the delicate sound of the women's chorus and must have appealed to him to achieve a certain unearthly expression. The appealing and melodious composition, however, does not center around the chorus but around the soprano solo, even more so in this particular performance because of the exquisite voice of Gwen Curatilo of San Rafael. Her soprano is warmer and mellower than sopranos usually are, and at the same time very light and expressive.

The chamber orchestra sounded well. Even the violins —except for a few off-key flaws — had acquired a new lusciousness. Silva knows how to write for instruments so they sound their best.

After the performance, the composer, a brisk octogenarian, appeared in person on the stage to express thanks for the vivacious applause.

In the beginning of the concert the Dominican College Chamber Singers rendered a cultivated performance of Brahms' Psalm 13, Op. 27.

Brown To Appear On Monthly Television Show

He'll appear with a panel of TV newsmen from the three stations who will carry the show beginning this weekend.

The stations are KRON, San Francisco; KCRA, Sacramento, and KRCA, Los Angeles. Brown said he expects KFMB, San Diego, to carry the show later on.

Brown said yesterday he'll open each program by speaking on a subject of his choice, then answering questions from the panel.

The programs are scheduled for Saturday night in Los Angeles and Sunday afternoon in San Francisco and Sacramento.

Senate Resolution Honors Heroism Of Mill Valleyan

The heroism of a Mill Valley telephone man J. Stanley Woodward has been officially recognized by the State of California.

In a resolution introduced by Sen. John F. McCarthy and unanimously adopted by the California Senate, Woodward was honored for his rescue in December, 1957, of a man who had blacked out while working in a tall tree in Mill Valley.

The resolution referred to the act as "an outstanding feat of humanitarian bravery," and stated: "This state is indeed fortunate to have citizens of the caliber of Mr. J. Stanley Woodward who are resourceful, skilled, and able, and at the same time willing to undergo personal danger in order to be of service to their fellowmen."

California produces more than 90 per cent of the nation's lemons, almonds, artichokes, walnuts, olives, dates, prunes, tomatoes, lettuce, figs and brussels sprouts.

Panel Talk Slated On Conservation

The first in a series of monthly discussions on conservation will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at the Marin Rod and Gun Club at Point San Quentin.

Panelists tonight, who will discuss "Development of an Effective Conservation Program at the Local Level," will be Robert Jones, regional manager of the state Department of Fish and Game; Pat Hetherton, director of the Marin Conservation League; Robert Golden, wildlife management specialist for the Sierra Club, and Helton Taylor of the Sonoma Soil Conservation District. Mike Abrahamson, the gun club's coordinator, will serve as moderator.

Stumped! Heavy Petting Theory, 'School Phobia' Puzzle Parents

Mrs. L. C. "I'm stumped. I know I should give my daughter some scientific advice about her conduct with boys. But how can a mother tell her girl that heavy petting is a valuable preparation for marriage? I've read books which said so. Yet I can't bring myself to tell her. Will you help me?"

Reply. I've read those books. I'm sorry you take them so seriously. They're based on the unverified chatter of women who asked for the privilege of discussing their intimate lives with research men I believe the conclusions given in the books are not valid. The advice you suggest would be dangerous. Don't give it.

Mrs. T. A. "Our girl gets sick with fear when we make her go to school. After being sick she goes into a dreamy state, and we can't get through to her. We've whipped her dozens of times. It makes her worse. A school psychologist said she had a 'school phobia.' What on earth is that?"

Reply. A school phobia is a deep, irrational fear of school. It is comparable to claustrophobia, or fear of being enclosed. It is a symptom of serious emotional problems. The problems may or may not center in school. Be sure your girl is studied and treated by a psychiatrist. Meantime, don't force her to go to school. Genuine school phobia is rare. Maybe one child in 10,000 has it.

Mr. H. G. "Our son is 3. When we punish him he thinks we're just getting even with him. Then he tries to get even with us. What can we do?"

Reply. Explain the reasons for your punishment clearly. Set up practical standards and rules for him to follow. Be consistent with him. Use reasonable rewards. Praise his good behavior. Always use the mildest punishment that will do the trick. Try to have the punishment come as a natural consequence of his mistakes, not as a whim from you. He'll catch on.

"In the Rhubarb, everybody's a star!"

Such is the description of performers in the "Rhubarb Revue" set for its fifth annual presentation April 10-11 and 17-18 at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club on Maple street.

More than 40 persons are in the cast, director-producer Laurie Tusup announced today, many of them doubling as scene painters, carpenters, electricians, sound men and workers in props, costumes and makeup.

With admission restricted to adults, the always-popular production will present an informal atmosphere including beer, pretzels and "set-ups."

For the first time, the "Rhubarb Revue" is being scheduled for a second weekend. "We don't like to turn people away," ticket chairman Kurt Helmshaedter announced, "but we must remind our many Rhubarb repeaters that our house capacity is 200 seats — and that's why we decided on a second weekend.

Dances in the performance are under direction of Shirley Taldo, star of previous "Rhubarbs," aided by Kim Badger, former member of several ballet companies. Bernard Healey is art director.

The event is to raise funds for the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club building fund.

Bill Would Control Trading Stamps

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assembly yesterday passed 46-21 a bill to require stores which advertise trading stamps to give them on all items not specifically excluded in the advertising.

"All this bill asks is that the merchant honestly advertise what he does," said Assemblyman S. C. Masterson (D-El Sobrante), the author.

The store would have to include in the advertisement or post a list of items on which stamps are not given.

It's here and only Standard has it—an entirely new grade of gasoline so far ahead in octane and other qualities... it's unequalled!

CUSTOM SUPREME

the West's first gasoline custom-refined for the world's most powerful cars

Now there are three great Chevrons to cover the octane needs of all cars far more exactly than two grades possibly can. Everyone gets a better buy because every motorist can get all the power and performance his car can deliver—without paying for higher-octane gasoline than it really needs.

Why Standard now offers three grades of gasoline

For many years, only two grades of gasoline—"regular" and "premium"—have been needed to satisfy the power requirements of automobile engines.

But today, the power demands of the new cars are so exacting that a new problem has arisen:

If premium grade gasolines are continually increased in octane, millions of premium-users whose cars do not require these extra octanes, will be paying for "the other fellow's" power needs.

The solution is clearly three grades of gasoline:

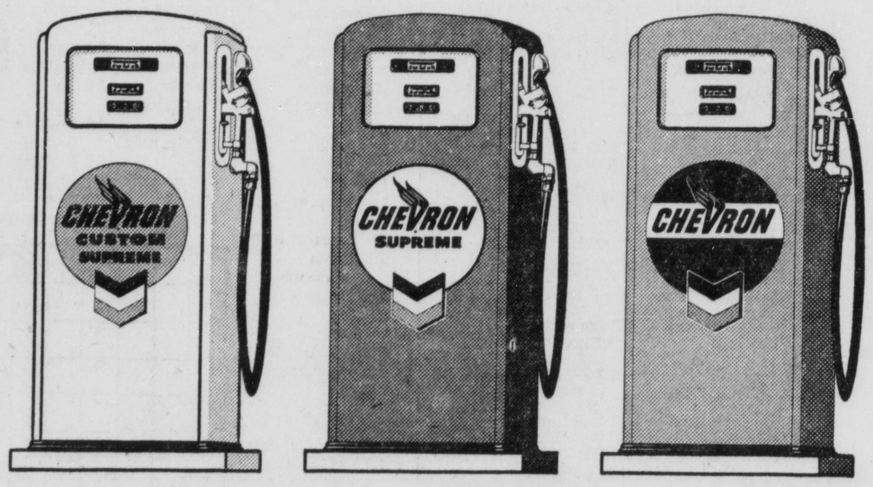

(1) an unequalled new grade of gasoline for the highest-compression cars.

(2) a powerful premium grade for late-model cars that do not need extra high octane. Full performance without having to buy a higher-octane gasoline than is really needed.

(3) a higher-octane economy grade for all cars that run on "regular."

Clean burning, of course, with all three new Chevrons. And one is just right for you in power, performance and price.

As fast as possible, we're bringing the new three grades to stations throughout your area.

exclusive Chevron Custom Supreme ... a new grade of gasoline for the highest-compression cars that need a clean burning gasoline far more powerful than any available until now. Delivers unequalled performance and unequalled value!

powerful Chevron Supreme ... the West's biggest-selling premium for late-model cars that do not need extra high octane. Motorists get full performance in a clean burning gasoline without having to buy octanes they do not really need.

economy Chevron ... a new, more powerful money-saver for the owners of all cars that run on "regular" grade gasoline. Clean burning Chevron gasoline gives these motorists new high octane—and better performance—at the regular price.

East Bay Plane Crash Kills 2 Hamilton Men

FATAL FLIGHT — Two Hamilton Air Force Base men — a captain who was to have been married on April 4 and his enlisted man companion — died in the crash of this privately owned T34 plane early today on a ranch near Livermore in southern Alameda County. (AP Wirephoto)

1 Victim Was To Wed Soon

Two Hamilton Air Force Base fliers, one of whom was to be married on April 4, were killed today in a plane crash near Livermore.

Capt. Charles R. Malloy, 36, the bridegroom-to-be, and A/2c Richard W. Cahill, 21, both of the 78th Field Maintenance Squadron, were victims of the crash. They were flying back to Hamilton from Pomona in a T34 propeller-driven plane which belonged to the Hamilton Aero Club, a semi-private flying club for military personnel at the base. Captain Malloy was at the controls.

CRASHES IN FOG

The plane crashed in dense early morning fog on the Old Colony ranch, eight miles east of Livermore. Captain Malloy died at the controls, strapped to the seat. The body of Airman Cahill was thrown clear.

The plane did not burn.

Pete Yroz, an employee at the ranch, found the wreck and notified the Alameda County sheriff's office, United Press International reported.

Malloy and Cahill had flown south Tuesday to attend a funeral—that of Catherine Joyce Field, Malloy's half-cousin and godchild.

APRIL 4 WEDDING

Captain Malloy, a widower, had engaged the Hamilton Base Chapel for April 4 for his wedding to a Denver, Colo., woman. Officials at Hamilton did not know the name of the captain's fiancee, nor of his 7-year-old

CHIANG VOWS FIGHT IF TIBET REVOLT KEEPS UP

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — President Chiang Kai-shek said today he would lead his Nationalist Chinese forces against the Communists if the Tibetan rebels carry on their fight.

Chiang, in his first statement since the anti-Communist revolt broke out in Tibet, said the Nationalists are "making every possible effort" to aid the revolutionary forces.

Chiang's declaration followed reports from Nationalist intelligence sources that the insurgents have cut the two mainland routes from Red China to the remote Himalayan kingdom.

New Hospital Bond Issue Vote In Offing

Directors of the Marin County Hospital District apparently pushed the button today to start the machinery for another bond issue attempt this year.

The directors (1) set for next Tuesday at 4 p.m. an adjourned meeting to consider the possible formation of a citizens committee to support an issue, and (2) set for April 2 a meeting of the Marin General Hospital medical staff with hospital planners to discuss possible revised needs for hospital expansion.

The actions came in the wake of the announcement yesterday of a half-million-dollar grant to the hospital from the Babcock Memorial Foundation which could be applied along with federal and local funds for hospital expansion.

The last two bond issues of the district narrowly failed to achieve a two-thirds majority necessary for passage.

It is expected that with the aid of the Babcock and federal funds a local bond issue this year might be only about half the amount of the $950,000 issue sought last year.

Allied Leaders Tell Russia Conditions For Summit Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and French President Charles de Gaulle agreed conditionally today to meet Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the summit on the Berlin crisis and other problems.

They differed materially, however, in the emphasis they placed on the conditions.

A U.S. note said this country is prepared for a meeting of heads of state "on the understanding" that a prior meeting of foreign ministers at least narrows differences and prepares "constructive proposals."

The British note to the Kremlin took a considerably more positive approach. It said the British would be glad to go to the summit "as soon as developments in the foreign ministers meeting warrant." It spoke of a summit meeting this summer, whereas the U.S. note only spoke of such a conference as soon as the foreign ministers' action might "justify" it.

The French language concerning conditions was still stiffer than that of the United States.

President de Gaulle, in his note to Moscow, made his attendance hinge on whether the foreign ministers meeting "permits the envisagement of genuine progress" at the top.

NO SPECIFIC TIME

And the French spoke only of a summit session "at an appropriate time" instead of mentioning this summer.

All three of the Western notes reserved the right of all participants to bring up whatever subjects they choose.

That is in contrast to the Soviet idea of confining the talks solely to Berlin and a German peace treaty. In a March 2 note the Kremlin proposed that the foreign ministers meeting, at least, be held exclusively to those subjects.

U.S. officials said that in spite of the differences in wording, they considered the Western notes to say substantially the same thing.

MINISTERS' MEETING

The Western powers proposed that the foreign ministers, meeting start in Geneva May 11 "to consider questions relating to Germany, including a peace treaty with Germany and the question of Berlin."

From there on, they went into their divergent approaches to the summit session.

Despite the variations of emphasis, the Western proposals appeared to bring closer the prospect of a conference of President Eisenhower, Macmillan and de Gaulle with Khrushchev.

Liner Rams Tanker; 1 Killed, 3 Missing

(Picture on page 8)

NEW YORK (UPI)—The cruise ship Santa Rosa sliced into the tanker Valchem in apparently good weather in the Atlanic early today, nearly cutting the cargo vessel in two.

One tanker crewman was killed, three were missing and 16 were injured, the Coast Guard said, in the 3 a.m. crash 22 miles east of Atlantic City, N.J.

Nobody on the plush cruise ship was hurt, but a fire broke out in a forward paint room. It was kept from spreading but smoldered for hours before it was extinguished.

The Coast Guard and ship owners could give no immediate reason for the collision. Both vessels were equipped with radar and the U.S. Weather Bureau said there was eight-mile visibility in the area at the time of the collision.

Seventeen other Valchem crewmen were transferred to the Santa Rosa. Three were to be hospitalized in New York, 13 were treated for minor injuries and one was uninjured, the Coast Guard said.

At 10:10 a.m., the 20,000-ton Santa Rosa steamed slowly from the scene under her own power and headed for New York. The 25-million-dollar vessel, placed in service to the Caribbean area last June, was expected to dock early this evening. It carried 247 passengers and a crew of 265.

The Santa Rosa's prow knifed half through the stern section of the 10,146-ton tanker and disabled its engines. For some two and one-half hours, the ships were kept wedged together until their captains decided there would be no danger

The new Lucky Store in Fairfax is scheduled to open April 15, according to a spokesman at the market chain's headquarters in San Leandro.

The half-million-dollar supermarket is being built by Clarewood Co. of Berkeley on property of Max Friedman at Center boulevard and Pastori avenue. Work on the site began last July. Signs are already in place on the concrete and stone-faced supermarket. A 9,000 square foot parking lot adjoins the market.

North Marin Hospital Vote Set May 26

Marin County Hospital District directors today officially set May 26 as the date for the Novato hospital secession election and hinted there may be another hospital district vote this year—on a bond issue proposal.

Polls wil be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. May 26 at five polling places within the Novato Fire District, for residents to approve or disapprove withdrawal of their area from the hospital district.

At a public hearing March 18 in Novato the board held it was unable to find that North Marin received no benefit from the county hospital district so could not grant separation without an election.

At the suggestion of board president Wilson P. Goddard, the board today approved a statement of its feeling regarding the election.

The statement said the board feels it is in the best interests of Novato and the district for

1-Way Plan To Extend 'Big Circle' Proposed

A revised one-way street plan for San Rafael, which would extend the "Big Circle" but not directly affect the West End area, won unanimous approval of the mayor's one-way street committee this morning.

The plan, worked out by City Planner Mitchell Baird, will be presented to the city council for approval.

This is how the plan would work:

Third street would be one-way westbound from Irwin street to E street, where traffic could disperse north or south. Second street would be one-way eastbound from D street to Irwin street underpass. The rest of Second street, from D street to the Miracle Mile, would be two ways as at present. Irwin street would be one-way from the underpass northbound to Mission avenue,

San Rafael Chef Badly Hurt In Black Point Cutoff Crash

A 33-year-old San Rafael restaurant chef was seriously injured in a side-swipe automobile collision at 5:40 p.m. yesterday on the Black Point cutoff.

Taken to the hospital by United Ambulance, Panamaroff had a compound fracture of the lower left arm and badly cut left hand. His elbow was shattered and several nerves torn. He was given emergency transfusions of plasma and blood.

Panamaroff was eastbound on Highway 37 on the Marin approach to the Black Point Bridge. California Highway Patrol Officer V. C. Weimer, was talking to a motorist whose car was out of gasoline and parked on the north road shoulder. Officer Weimer heard the crash and ducked to avoid being hit by flying glass and debris.

The point of impact determined by skid marks showed that Panamaroff's Thunderbird was on the wrong side of the white line, Officer Weimer reported.

Driver of the westbound car was Helen Amy Devlin, 35, of 431 Cascade drive, Fairfax. She apparently was uninjured.

Fair Weather In Store Tomorrow

Conditions remained unstable over Northern California today, however. Scattered showers still were falling in the extreme north and light showers were expected today as far south as the Santa Maria area, the Weather Bureau said.

Snow flurries were forecast for the high mountains.

Education Board Candidates Debate

Five candidates for the San Rafael Board of Education today expressed varying opinions over the issues of countywide school unification, educational "frills," loyalty oaths for teachers and teaching "communism in the schools."

The five appeared on radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board," moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer. The program will be rebroadcast from a recording Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Speakers were incumbents Rex Silvernale, C. Paul Bettini and Roderick P. Martinelli, and aspirant C. Roy Calder, systems analyst for a San Francisco bank, and William G. Thompson, KTIM newscaster.

Regarding unification:

"Unification of schools in the county as a whole is impossible," declared Martinelli, "and I am opposed to it—although it would benefit certain small or adjoining districts."

"Unification on a countywide basis is inevitable, and the people will benefit educationally and financially," countered Thompson.

"In the next 10 or 20 years, with our population in Marin increasing as it is today, we will have to have unification."

Silvernale, who has served with the County Committee on School District Organization, agreed that "some unification" would prove beneficial. "There is a good possibility that the San Jose and Novato school districts will unify at a special election May 19," he added.

Calder also declared himself in favor of unification "in any area." With unification, "better ends of education are achieved," he said.

"Frills":

"I have been dubbed a 'foe of frills,'" said Calder, "whatever that means. I do believe in a strong fundamental curriculum. I would like to increase the academic standard of our schools and get back to to the three R's—to provide as much knowledge as possible to the student without permitting him to take the easy way out."

Incumbents Martinelli and Bettini emphatically agreed with Silvernale that "we are indulging in no frills in San Rafael schools."

"Many persons might classify anything but reading, writing and arithmetic as frills," asserted Silvernale. "But in San Rafael we consider the music program as one of the most vital being offered. We are operating a comprehensive system."

Thompson contradicted an assertion by Silvernale that San Rafael High School graduates "rank high at the University of California and are in the top 10 per cent at Stanford." Thompson declared: "A professor in the science department at a Bay Area college recently told me that San Rafael High School graduates have made the poorest showing."

"There is not enough homework given at the lower levels," added Thompson. "I'm not for homework for homework's sake, but children should learn to work . . . Our aim should not be to turn out happy, satisfied, mediocre students."

LOYALTY OATHS

Loyalty oaths:

To a radio listener's question, "what do you think about loyalty oaths?" Silvernale and Martinelli agreed that they had no particular objection to them. Bettini said, "no comment." Thompson and Calder both declared "violent" opposition.

"The loyalty oath has nothing whatever to do with determining a teacher's qualifications as a teacher," said Calder. "There are other means available for determining a person's loyalty to country."

"Persons whom loyalty oaths are intended to disqualify are just the persons most apt to sign them," declared Thompson.

ON COMMUNISM

Communism:

Another questioner asked: "Explain the nest of social science teachers who are encouraging foreign ideologies in the classroom."

The three incumbents all declared that no such situation exists.

"I studied communism in school," said Martinelli, "and I believe all students should become aware of the different ideologies."

Calder agreed that communism should not be banned from studies. "The better equipped students are to understand foreign ideologies, the better able will they be to cope with them when they are encountered later on," he said.

Jobless Pay Extended By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Beneficiaries of the temporary federal jobless pay program who become unemployed before April 1 were assured today their checks would not be cut off on that date.

Congress last night sent to President Eisenhower, a bill extending the program to June 30 but limiting it to persons who become jobless before April 1.

Eisenhower is expected to sign it soon.

It is estimated to benefit about 405,000 persons at a cost of 78 million dollars.

Demo Group Backs Brown's Program

A Democratic Party legislative action committee was set up today in the 1st Congressional District. Its purpose is to urge district legislators to support Gov. Edmund G. Brown's program.

Gerald N. Hill of Mill Valley, California Democratic Council district director, announced appointment of attorney John Dunlap of Napa as committee chairman. Other members are Charles M. Geller of San Anselmo, I. A. Barlas of Petaluma and Conrad Goerl of Ukiah.

Similar committees are being set up throughout the state by the California Democratic Council.

Ike's Budget Unbalanced, Experts Say

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Democratic Congress, under fire for unbalancing President Eisenhower's new budget, came up with evidence today that it never was balanced in the first place.

Congressional staff tax experts reported that the President's precariously "balanced" budget actually called for $1,200,000,000 in red-ink spending in the fiscal year starting July 1 because the President overestimated tax revenues by $1,300,000,000.

COULD HIKE DEFICIT

The report said that moves in Congress could, if carried to completion, boost the spending deficit for the new fiscal year above four billion dollars.

The report came from the staff of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation. Its tax revenue estimates, issued every spring, generally are accepted by Democrats and Republicans as more reliable than the administration's January budget estimates.

The report produced differing reactions.

LIBERAL REACTION

The reaction of some liberal Democrats who have been denounced for "budget-busting" because they have been pushing for a bigger federal spending program was "I told you so; the so-called balanced budget was a phony all along."

But Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), a leader of the congressional economy bloc, accepted the report as the signal for ever greater efforts to hold down congressional moves to boost spending above budgeted levels.

"The need for the President to veto every bill involving excessive expenditures is crystal clear," he said.

Suspected Kidnaper Caught With Girl, 12

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A former mental patient was captured today with a 12-year-old girl he carried away from her home here yesterday. He was booked for investigation of kidnaping.

However, both the man, William Edward Beckwith, 26, and thin, freckle-faced Lois Marbut, denied to officers that she was kidnaped.

Sheriff's Deputies Jesse Hale and Les Skiles spotted Beckwith's car stalled in a country lane 10 miles east of Marysville at 2 a.m. The husky Beckwith, unkempt and shoeless, offered no resistance.

He and the girl had been the object of a massive police search across Northern California since yesterday afternoon, when he took Lois and two playmates out of town, dropping off the other two children about 20 miles north of here.

At the sheriff's office in Marysville, about 35 miles north of Sacramento, Beckwith said that he had merely taken Lois for an afternoon drive. He said he intended "to telephone her mother at daylight."

Lois did not appear harmed.

Lois is a twin daughter of Mrs. Thomas Bryant of suburban Gardenland and J. D. Marbut of nearby Rio Linda. Deputies said Mrs. Bryant is divorced from Lois' father and separated from her present husband.

Deputies said Beckwith had been "an habitual escapee" from Stockton State Hospital until he received an indefinite leave last June 4

He has a record of arrest for petty offenses.

Deputies questioned Beckwith in connection with the slaying of 9-year-old Candice Rogers, Girl Scout found ravished outside Spokane, Wash., Sunday. She vanished March 6 while selling mints door to door.

They said Beckwith acknowledged he returned recently from Washington after visiting his ex-wife. They are uncertain where she lives.

Engineer Oglesby Sells Business; He'll Stay On As Director

John C. Oglesby today announced that he is selling the Marin County civil engineering practice which he has carried on for nearly half a century to a new corporation, of which he will be a director.

The firm, to take over April 1 at Oglesby's office at 1322 Fifth avenue in San Rafael, will be known as Oglesby, Jacobs and Wickham.

Its principals will be J. Donovan Jacobs, a neighbor of Oglesby on Almenar drive in Greenbrae, as president; George E. Wickham of Mill Valley, as vice president and resident manager, and Oglesby as director.

STAYS WITH CITIES

Oglesby announced he will continue to serve as city engineer for Larkspur, San Anselmo and Ross and will continue to act as individual consultant.

"At 74, I think it's about time to quit climbing hills," commented Oglesby in announcing the sale. He will complete projects on which he is now engaged, he said.

The 12 employees in the office will continue in their present positions under Wickham's management, the three owners of the new firm announced.

Jacobs and Wickham are associated in Jacobs Associates, a San Francisco civil engineering firm with an office at 503 Market street and a branch in Sydney, Australia.

PUBLIC WORKS

Jacobs established Jacobs Associates, a corporation, four years ago. The firm specializes in the field of public works, dealing extensively with construction problems. It has contracts in connection with the Snowy Mountains hydroelectric project in Australia, a complex of dams, power plants and distribution lines which Jacobs described as "a sort of Australian TVA."

Jacobs has also done civil engineering work in many parts of the United States, including Hawaii, and in New Zealand and Fiji. He worked on the Queens-Midtown Tunnel and Delaware Aqueduct projects in New York and spent three years in Cleveland, Ohio, before moving to California. He also did engineering work in Montana, Indiana and Delaware.

All his work was with Walsh Construction Co. until he set up his own business. He was born in Minnesota and received his engineering degree from University of Minnesota in 1934.

Jacobs and his wife moved to Greenbrae eight years ago. They have one son.

Wickham has been a Marin resident since childhood. He was born in Nebraska. He attended College of Marin and received his engineering degree from University of California in 1947.

He was a civil engineer and construction manager for Utah Construction Co. for 10 years prior to joining the Jacobs firm two years ago. He and his wife, the former Caroline Phelps, live on Manor drive in Mill Valley. They have three children.

STARTED IN 1913

The new owners move into a business which had its beginning in 1913 when Oglesby, a University of Alabama graduate who moved to San Francisco two years earlier, became city engineer of Larkspur—a job he still holds. It was incorporated four years ago as John C. Oglesby Engineering Co.

Over the years, Oglesby has been city engineer for every incorporated city in Marin County except Fairfax. He resigned as city engineer of Sausalito only this year, and still serves in that capacity for Larkspur (continuously since 1913), San Anselmo and Ross. He laid out all of Larkspur's streets.

From 1919 to 1927, and again from 1942 until the office was abolished at the end of 1954, Oglesby was county surveyor. In this job he laid out many county roads, including Panoramic highway, Tiburon boulevard, San Pedro road and what is now State Highway 1.

MANY SUBDIVISIONS

Oglesby has engineered so many subdivision projects in Marin that he long ago lost count of them.

He expressed hope his less arduous duties under the new office setup will give him more time for relaxation at his ranch in Cazadero, Sonoma County.

Said Wickham of the new owners' plans for the business: "We don't know any better way to carry on than to follow the path that John Oglesby has so capably beaten. . . . We expect to give attention to planning and design of both public works and commercial and industrial developments, without losing sight of the fact that real estate development engineering will probably account for a major part of our work."

AT 74, A LIGHTER JOB — John C. Oglesby, who entered civil engineering practice in Marin in 1913, today announced sale of his business to a new corporation, effective April 1. He will remain as a director and consultant. (Independent-Journal photo)

Bill Entered To Help Curb Pornography

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Publishers of obscene literature "have created a universal schoolyard sex service," Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) declared yesterday as he introduced legislation designed to curb the business.

"This loathesome industry," Francis said, does half a billion dollars worth of business a year, three-quarters of it to youngsters under 18.

His measures define obscene material as that appealing predominantly to purient interest. They outlaw requiring book and magazine dealers to take lewd material in order to get other reading material for sale.

They also toughen penalties for distributing obscene literature to youngsters as well as make it illegal to use minors to handle it.

"Some of your largest distributors are minors right in school yards," Francis said.

The assemblyman said he has considerable support but expects opposition from civil liberties groups and possibly others on claims the bills could encourage censorship.

Francis, however, denied they would mean any form of censorship.

Petition Passers Target Of Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assemblyman Bruce F. Allen (R-Los Gatos) introduced a bill today to outlaw professional petition circulators in California elections.

"All you have to do now is plunk down $200,000 to buy an initiative," he said. "This business of buying signatures to qualify an initiative or referendum measure is an interference with the democratic process."

Which Sanitary Area To Join? Advice Sought

The Paradise Drive Property Owners Assn. today sought professional advice as to which of two existing sanitary districts to join.

One hundred and forty-three members attended a meeting of the association last night, called to consider a sanitary district to serve properties along the drive. After three and one-half hours of discussion, they decided to hire a sanitary engineer to give advice on whether to join Richardson Bay Sanitary District or Corte Madera Sanitary District.

The engineer's study is to be presented within 30 days, said A. Jack Weber, association president.

"There is a proposal now before the Marin County Planning Commission by the Pullman Co. for inclusion of the Paradise Cay sanitary service line in the Corte Madera Sanitary District," Weber said. "If this request is granted, residents of Paradise drive are committeed to be in the Corte Madera district.

"According to cost figures presented by representatives of the two districts last night, the project will cost us $300,000 in the Richardson Bay district and from $700,000 to $800,000 in the Corte Madera district.

"We want to investigate this discrepancy fully before we are committed to one course of action."

Loyal M. Nerdahl, president of the Richardson Bay district, B. K. Rippe of the Corte Madera district, and County Sanitarian William H. Desmond addressed the group. Representatives of the Pullman Co. were also present at the meeting in the Reed School auditorium.

Mayors Name Group To Study Fire Policy

A three-member committee was appointed last night by the Marin County Council of Mayors to delineate the group's policy on fire protection in unincorporated territory.

Mayor Robert D. Huber of Mill Valley was named chairman of the committee, with Councilmen Carmel H. Booth of San Anselmo and Kenneth M. Edgar of Fairfax as members.

The mayors indicated the committee might suggest a policy in connection with other county services.

The mayors' council last month directed a letter to the county board of supervisors asking changes in the coverage and cost spread of fire protection to areas not within cities or fire districts. The board heard the letter two weeks ago and said it was not specific enough.

The committee appointed last night is to draw up specific proposals for a second letter to the supervisors.

In other action, the mayors unanimously approved a request by Ross Councilman Harry C. Scott that the cities urge Assemblyman Richard H. McCollister to support a legislative bill which would permit cities to control, through zoning regulations, the construction of schools or state facilities within incorporated cities.

Scott told the mayors that under present statues, a school or state facility may be built in any incorporated city of the state without regard to local zoning provisions.

The mayors also heard Joseph B. Rice of Corte Madera, longtime director of the California State Automobile Assn., make a plea for continued study of pedestrian safety and to adopt precautionary measures recommended by the association as a result of exhaustive studies.

The mayors will hold their next meeting April 29 in Sausalito.

Bill Sets Penalties For Drunken Flying

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A measure designed to crack down on drunken airplane pilots passed its first legislative test yesterday before the Assembly Public Utilities Committee.

The bill, authored by Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo), would permit a judge to sentence a convicted drunk flier to six months in jail, a $1,000 fine and a year's suspension of his pilot's license.

Under present law the judge can impose a jail sentence and fine or license suspension but not both.

Fairfax Boy, 14, Admits Lewd Calls

An anonymous telephone caller who has been plaguing housewives and girls with lewd remarks during the past month turned out to be a 14-year-old Fairfax boy who dialed numbers at random, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos revealed yesterday.

Sheriff's inspectors, questioning the boy at Marin Juvenile Hall yesterday said the youth has already admitted making at least 30 telephone calls. His confessions could mount to 100 or more, they said.

The boy called a 15-year-old girl in San Geronimo Tuesday afternoon and made an appointment to meet her at a parking lot in San Anselmo. The girl, working with sheriff's inspectors, kept the appointment. The boy walked into the arms of the law.

Inspectors Bowen Bridges and Guido Battaglia said the boy admitted making lewd calls for the past month to women and girls in Mill Valley, Fairfax, San Anselmo, San Rafael, San Geronimo, Lagunitas and Woodacre.

SPACE CAPSULE TEST — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration today, released this drawing showing tests being conducted on the escape system for the Project Mercury man-carrying space capsule. In case of a mishap during launching, the rocket on top of the capsule will be fired, taking the capsule and its occupant to a safe altitude. There recovery parachutes will be opened. (AP Wirephoto)

Atomic Space Tests Spread Deadly Shell

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. atomic tests above the South Atlantic last year spread a 100-mile thick shell of deadly radiation over the earth at altitudes of up to 4,000 miles.

This was disclosed late yesterday when the White House released a 2,400-word report giving the first details on scientific results of the high-altitude Argus experiment.

Dr. Herbert York, research director for the Defense Department, said the strongest part of the shell compared in intensity with the natural radiation zones in space named after Dr. James A. Van Allen of the University of Iowa.

He told reporters at a White House news conference that bigger bombs would have created a correspondingly bigger and more intense zone of radiation.

Military details were kept out of the White House report, and York refused to discuss the explosions' effect on such things as radio communications, missile electronic equipment and radar early warning systems.

Poisoned Fish Scare Narrowed To 2 Areas

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A poisoned fish scare that spread through 16 eastern states after the death of a 3-year-old boy and a farm laborer was narrowed by health officials today to the Philadelphia and south New Jersey area.

Persons in that region were warned to throw away any filet of flounder of fluke they may have purchased since Monday. Authorities said all poisoned fish except that already purchased by the public has been recovered.

Dead are Dale Kleinschmidt, 3, of Haddon Heights, N.J., and Charles McQuade, 53, of Philadelphia. Both ate flounder dinners Tuesday night, and medical authorities suspect fish poisoning.

All the poisoned fish was in the form of filet, according to Philadelphia Health Commissioner James P. Dixon.

Dixon said the poison involved was sodium nitrite, a chemical similar to salt in appearance which sometimes is used in weak solution to preserve fish between the time it is processed and the time it is put on sale in refrigerated cases. Dixon speculated the solution used might have been stronger than intended or that the chemical might have been mistaken for salt and used to wash the fish.

Some Vets May Lose Tax Benefit

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A Senate committee has done its part to save California almost six million dollars a year in taxes.

The Revenue and Taxation Committee this week approved a bill which would strip the property tax exemption from 80,000 veterans who did not serve in wartime and killed a bill which would have exempted prescription drugs from the sales tax.

RECOVERED FROM SEA

Dummy Space Capsules Successful In Air Drops

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dummy space capsules the size of those that someday may carry American spacemen into orbit have been dropped into the ocean from high-flying planes and recovered intact, scientists reported today.

After they dropped in free fall for set distances, parachutes opened to slow the capsules' descent.

Next step in the space research program: Development of materials to absorb the shock of landings on ground.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration today reported significant progress in air drops, escape techniques, impact tests, and wind tunnel and flight studies of model capsules.

The early research is part of Project Mercury, the program to place a man in orbit around the earth.

Space scientists have been experimenting at Wallops Island, Va., on the firing of escape rockets that would permit a man to get out of a capsule high enough in the air for a parachute to open—if trouble should develop soon after launching.

The agency disclosed today that its scientists last summer developed methods for dropping a full scale model capsule from an Air Force C130 Hercules transport.

In the tests over land, capsules were pushed out of C130s almost 10 miles above the earth. They fell into target areas in the Army's Ft. Bragg, N.C., "Salerno" and "Normandy" drop zones, and on a deserted airfield at West Point, Va.

SUGARFOOT BITES THE DUST

Maureen Marshall, 10, rests a comforting cheek on her injured pet, Sugarfoot, after the dog was hit by a car near her Brooklyn, N.Y., home. Maureen and her twin sister found the seven-month-old puppy recently and took him to their hearts. The newspaper photographer who made this picture took the injured dog to a veterinary, who gives the animal a fighting chance for life. Plea Issued Against Live Easter Pets

The Marin County Humane Society today issued a plea against the purchase of live chicks, ducklings or rabbits as Easter pets for children.

Persons who sell them, declared Mel L. Morse, Humane Society manager, "openly defy the laws . . . and cause much suffering, not only on the part of the little fowl or rabbits, but the heartbreak of children when the pets become ill or injured from being literally 'loved to death.'"

Marin County ordinance makes it unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to display, sell, offer for sale, barter or give away any chicks, rabbits or ducklings or other fowl as pets or novelties, said Morse.

Despite the law, he said, every Easter the society learns of cases where chicks, ducklings and rabbits have been sold.

"Every commercial raiser knows that the fragile bundles of life must have a set temperature and careful handling for the first few weeks of life," said Morse.

"The society suggests that if Easter is to be celebrated with a toy, it should be an inanimate object that can be loved and squeezed."

'IGLOO' SPROUTS AT PALO ALTO

Looking like an Eskimo igloo, this inflatable temporary building has been erected at the Palo Alto Philco plant to house a special 60-foot antenna being constructed by the firm. The huge building is held up by low pressure air. When the antenna is finished, the "igloo" will be taken down and stored for future use. (UPI photo)

Plan To Reduce Bay Authority Powers Urged

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A plan to strip the proposed Golden Gate Authority of control over all San Francisco-Oakland Bay facilities except five toll bridges is under study today.

The new plan, excluding the Golden Gate Bridge, was proposed after authority backers, led by Oakland industrialist Edgar Kaiser, conferred with City Atty. Dion Holm and a supervisors' committee hearing on the authority proposal.

Kaiser agreed yesterday to have lawyers write up a substitute legislative measure covering only the bridges but expressed his unhappiness over the shrunken authority with the words:

"I want to make it clear that on behalf of the proponents I am not ready to say that I will give up the airports, seaports and Golden Gate Bridge."

If adopted, the new plan would remove the five bridges from control by the state Division of Bay Toll Crossings.

Regional Planning Conference For Bay Area Slated

These questions will be discussed at the Bay Area Conference on Regional Planning to be held in San Francisco on April 3. Planners and officials from nine counties and 80 cities will gather at the dinner meeting on the 13th floor of the Marines' Memorial Club, Sutter and Mason streets.

Marin County will be represented by a delegation headed by Pat Hetherton, chairman of the San Rafael Planning Commission, and Mary Summers, county planning director.

Bartender Fined $50; His Car Cut Power

Anthony Frank Krzesowiak, 39-year-old bartender of 630 Rosal way, Santa Venetia, whose station wagon downed a power pole early Sunday and caused a blackout to 1,800 homes north of San Rafael, was fined $50 Monday in Marin Municipal Court for being drunk in and about a vehicle. He was placed on six months probation by Judge Richard M. Sims Jr.

Harbor Fund Bill Back In Assembly

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill permitting cities and counties to borrow money from the state for small craft harbors without submitting the transaction to a vote of the people was back on the track today in the Assembly.

The measure, authored by Assemblyman Robert Crown (D-Alameda) was passed by the Assembly two weeks ago but was subsequently reconsidered and sent back to the Public Utilities Committee.

The committee sent the bill —with minor amendments— back to the floor yesterday.

Under the terms of the bill, cities and counties could borrow state money for small craft harbors with no more security than the harbor itself and without referring the plan to the voters of the area.

Ribbons Of Steel

CLIFTON FORGE, Va. (AP)— The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway is trying a new method of rail welding developed in France which it expects will lower maintenance and provide a smoother ride on "ribbons of steel." It is called alumino-thermique rail welding and engineers say it can be applied to old track in place.

Wilding To Host Former Wife Liz

When a Daily Herald reporter expressed surprise at this arrangement, Wilding said:

"Why not? Elizabeth is coming over in May with my two boys—whom I adore. Naturally I want them to stay with me. Obviously she will come and stay with us as well. We are all good friends, you know."

Wilding is now married to wealthy Susan Nell. He added he did not think Eddie Fisher would be coming to England at this time.

Dixie District To Call Bids On Site Grading

The trustees also approved plans for the 10-classroom seventh-eighth grade school building submitted by John Lyon Reid and Partners, architects. These will go to the state Division of Architecture for approval.

The building is estimated to cost $182,000. Cost of the site work is estimated at $50,000.

Paving of Las Gallinas avenue in front of Hoffman School in Terra Linda by E. A. Forde Co. of San Anselmo was finally accepted, three and one-half months after the job was to have been completed.

The trustees instructed Superintendent Willis to "do anything necessary" to induce State Sen. John F. McCarthy to work up opposition in the Senate to AB 156, a California League of Cities-sponsored measure which would turn selection of school sites over to city councils and county boards of supervisors.

Ambrose C. Chase of San Rafael was hired as janitor for the Terra Linda Community Building, which the school district rents from the Terra Linda Community Services District to handle overflow kindergarten and first and second grade classes from Hoffman School.

Also, the board was notified that the state fire marshal has ordered installation of an automatic fire alarm in the community building. Trustees reluctantly agreed to have the school district bear the cost.

Trustee Marcus W. Savage was absent.

Tennis Courts Closed For Resurfacing Work

Resurfacing work was scheduled to continue today on all four tennis courts at Albert Field in San Rafael, announced Charles Matzen, recreation supervisor for the city recreation and park department.

The courts will be unavailable for play through April 10, he said.

Crucifixion Was Romans' Most Savage Torture

Gospels Tell Story Of Christ's Agony In Four Stark Words

By LOUIS CASSELS
U.P. International

The gospel accounts tell the story in four stark wards:

". . . and they crucified him."

No elaboration was necessary, at the time the gospels were written, to convey the agony of Jesus' death. Crucifixion was known throughout the Roman world as the most horrible form of execution ever devised. It was slow death by torture.

This form of capital punishment was usually reserved for slaves and insurrectionists. The condemned man was nailed through his hands and feet to a wooden cross, and left to hang there until he died of what modern medical science would describe as a state of shock induced by excruciating pain.

It usually required about 12 hours for a crucified man to die. Cicero records that most of the victims became raving maniacs. It was often necessary, he adds, to cut out their tongues to put a stop to their terrible screams and curses.

Jesus had already undergone many hours of suffering before he reached the skull-shaped hill called Golgotha on which his cross was planted.

During the long hours of the night, the soldiers had buffeted him and spat upon him, fitting a purple robe around his shoulders and thrusting a sharp crown of thorns onto his head to mock the "king of the Jews."

Pilate had "scourged" him. A scourging was a brutal beating administered to prisoners with a special kind of whip whose many thongs were loaded with bits of metal.

In keeping with Roman custom, he was required to carry the heavy wooden crossbar to which his outstretched arms would be nailed. (The upright pole of the cross was already in place at the execution site.)

Exhausted by his sleepless night and the beating he had received, Jesus stumbled under the load. The guards compelled a bystander, Simon of Cyrene, to carry the cross for Jesus. Cyrene was a town of North Africa, and an ancient legend holds that Simon was a Negro, who later became a Christian apostle.

At Golgotha, Jesus was stripped to a loin cloth and the Roman soldiers rolled dice for his clothing. He was offered wine containing an opiate — an act of mercy which women of Jerusalem customarily extended to crucified men. But he would not take the pain-easing drug.

It was nine o'clock on a Friday morning when they nailed him to the cross.

Curious onlookers waited for him to curse and rail like other crucified men. When he remained silent, some of them began to taunt him, "If you're the Messiah," they said, "come down from that pole, and we'll believe in you."

"Father, forgive them," he said, "for they know not what they do."

Toward the end of his six-hour ordeal on the cross, Jesus uttered a cry that has been a source of great perplexity to his followers.

He cried:

"My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

Some modern scholars point out that these are the opening words of the 22nd Psalm — a psalm that goes on to answer the question with a fervent affirmation of faith in God's unchanging love.

Others, however, see in this cry of despair a brief glimpse of the ultimate agony which Jesus suffered on the cross — that of "bearing the sins of all mankind," taking on himself the total burden of humanity's guilt and alienation from God.

When the end finally came, at 3 p.m., Jesus was once again serene. His dying words were:

"Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit."

Miller To Meet With Marin Demos

Rep. Clement W. Miller will begin a round of meetings in his home county of Marin next Thursday with a noon luncheon with Democratic leaders at the Edgewater Inn in Corte Madera.

The meeting with members of the Marin and state Democratic Central Committees and the executive board and officers of the Marin Democratic Assembly, will be held instead of a meeting previously scheduled for that hour with Marin, Sonoma and Napa County officials to discuss harbor developments, Miller's home office announced today.

The rest of Miller's schedule of meetings that day will remain as previously announced.

Woman Treated For Razor Cuts

Mrs. Gloria Nau, 27, of 529 Easterby street, Sausalito, was treated at Marin General Hospital last night for razor cuts on both wrists which Sausalito police said were self-inflicted.

The cuts were not serious.

Police said Mrs. Nau, wife of Fred Nau, admitted attempting to slash her wrists and said, "I was foolish." They said she previously inhaled gas in what apparently was a suicide attempt.

San Clemente Levee Discussed

Members of the Marina Village Improvement Club discussed the proposed levee on San Clemente Creek and elected a nominating committee at a meeting Tuesday night at 108 Harbor drive.

Tony C. Freitas, president, said club members went on record urging early action on the proposed improvement of Paradise drive in Corte Madera.

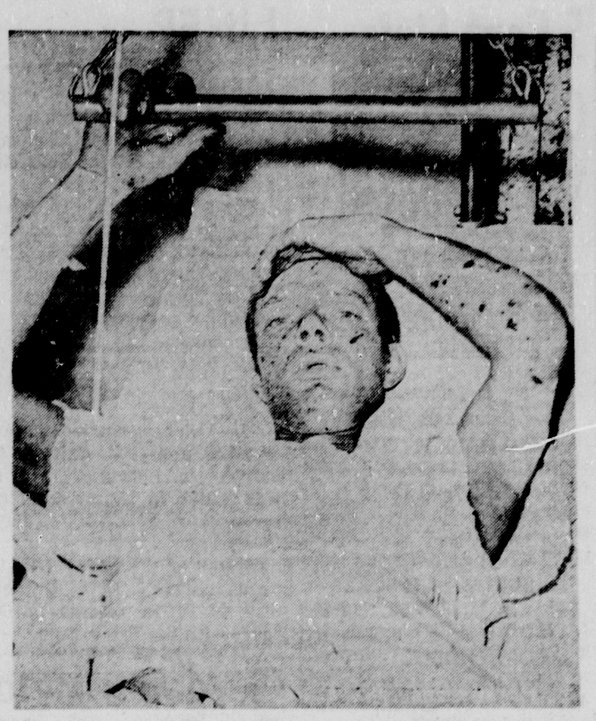

Members of the nominating committee include Charles W. Garrison, chairman; Jess Raphael, Mrs. Bruna Massoletti, Mrs. Patricia Hamilton, Mrs. Gloria Artegiani, Russell Clark and Robert Gutowsky. The committee will present a slate of nominees at the April 28 meeting.

ESCAPES DYNAMITE DEATH — Frank Rasmussen, 35-year-old gold miner, lies in traction at Los Angeles' Temple Hospital, relating how he miraculously lived throught the explosions of 11 sticks of dynamite in a Death Valley mining shaft last Sunday. (AP Wirephoto)

Dynamite Explodes Around Miner Trapped In Shaft

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A 35-year-old miner who lay injured in a mine shaft while 11 charges of dynamite exploded in a series leading closer to him each time today related his terrifying experience from a hospital bed.

"I figured I'd had it," Frank Rasmussen said. "I hollered at my friend (Harry Boyer) and told him, 'Don't come in here —no use both of us dying.' He couldn't do nothing."

Rasmussen, who said the accident happened Sunday night in a small mine 18 feet below the surface near his Death Valley home at Skidoo, about 100 miles northeast of Los Angeles, suffered a compound fracture of the right leg and possible internal injuries.

"We were making a crosscut after sinking a shaft about 18 feet down," he said. "I'd put 15 holes in the ground and had 11 of them loaded with dynamite. When I finished loading the 11th one, the first one went off.

"The blast knocked me down and busted my leg. But it covered me up with dirt. That must have been what saved me. I lay there and listened as the next 10 went off, one by one, about four or five seconds apart."

Rasmussen said he stayed trapped in the hole until thick clouds of dust and powder began to clear and his partner, Boyer, came in after him.

Reports Say Dalai Lama Fled Capital

DARJEELING, India (AP)—A reliable source here on the Indian border reported today that the Chinese Communists have announced that the Dalai Lama fled from Lhasa during the revolt in the Tibetan capital.

The whereabouts of Tibet's 23-year-old religious and political leader, revered by his people as "the living Buddha," were unknown in Kalimpong. There were rumors he was heading south toward the Indian protectorate of Sikkim, between Darjeeling and Tibet, or southeast toward the Indian province of Assam.

Refugee Tibetans were speculating that their Buddhist god-king would remain with resistance forces in southern Tibet or might cross into India. Reports have persisted that the revolt which broke out in Lhasa last Friday has spread to the countryside. The Chinese have been reported in control once again in Lhasa.

The report in Darjeeling was that advisers to the Dalai Lama, before the fighting started in Lhasa, added their names to a declaration declaring Tibet independent of Chinese control and charging the Communists with breaking promises in the 1951 treaty to respect Tibet's religion and way of life.

The report said the declaration was presented by a delegation from the public and was handed on to the Chinese.

The Chinese for more than two centuries have maintained that Tibet is part of China.

Leading the call is John T. Blackmore, 27, San Francisco, who said he was seeking advice on whether the brigade should go over to Tibet and fight or send supplies.

So far, only pledges are being accepted. No cash.

LUXURY LINER AFTER COLLISION

Funnel of the tanker Valchem perches on the bow of cruise ship Santa Rosa as the liner pulls away from the damaged cargo vessel after collision this morning off New Jersey coast. One tanker crewman was killed, three are missing and 16 injured. See story on page 1.

ONE-WAY

where cars could disperse in any direction.

Additional traffic signals would aid the one-way traffic circulation. Signals are proposed on Third street at A, B, C and D streets. The existing signals on Second street would be synchronized eastbound.

Baird's plan would tie in to the present one-way circle, extending the one-way streets to relieve congestion at Third and Lincoln and Third and Irwin.

STREET EXTENSION

It would also tie in to the future opening of Third street past E Street School to Latham street and out to Second street at Ida. The earliest that this can be accomplished is September, 1960, Baird pointed out, because the San Rafael School District cannot close E Street School at least until the end of next school year or perhaps later.

Businessmen of the one-way circle area expressed satisfaction with the new plan to extend the circle. They said the one-way circle now in operation is bottling up traffic at Lincoln, Irwin, Francisco and Third.

LOSING INCOME

Eugene Lackenbach of Eugene's Restaurant complained that he is losing $200 to $250 per week in business income since the one-way circle began. He called it a "crazy merry-go-round."

Edmund Meyer, who operates Coca-Cola Bottling Co., said heavy trucks are funneled up Irwin street because they cannot turn left under the Irwin underpass.

Thomas Parks of Parks Electric and Fred Pape, who runs a car wash, said the extension of the circle would probably relieve the congestion.

POLICE SUPERVISION

At the suggestion of Louis Milani of Yellow Cab Co., the committee also recommended that police supervision be provided for pedestrians crossing Third street at the bus depot during commuter rush hours.

"Somebody is going to be hurt there," Milani warned.

Chairman Richard Cuthbert gave encouraging news that the First street extension may not be as far off as at first anticipated. He said the state Division of Highways had invited city traffic officials to San Francisco to a meeting this afternoon to discuss designs for expansion of the San Rafael overpass and the First street interchange. City Manager Dan E. Andersen and Public Works Supt. Norris Rawles were to attend.

Vehicle Wrecked; Woman Uninjured

Mrs. Beverly Jane Jerome, 37, of 4903 Ranch road, told police she was eastbound on Paradise drive at the entrance to Mariner's Cove when she lost control of her vehicle on the muddy pavement.

The station wagon slid into a low bank and then rolled over. Mrs. Jerome said she crawled out the rear tail gate window and got a ride home before calling police.

Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said recent rains had caused the road to become muddy in the area of the accident.

Mrs. Jerome went back to work today at her job with the University of California Radiation Laboratory in Berkeley.

North Marin to remain in the district.

It said the board finds "no practical conflict between the construction of a small private hospital in the Novato area and the need of North Marin residents for Marin General Hospital facilities . . .

"The proposed Babcock Memorial Foundation contract can enable Marin General to expand at one-half the ordinary cost to the taxpayer, providing we pass a bond issue this year, with the assistance of Hill-Burton funds."

Directors also pointed out that if North Marin remained in the district, the residents could retain all of the Marin General Hospital facilities "now available to them at no differential charge."

The five polling places for the election will be Lynwood School, Druids Hall, Marshall Garage on Tamalpais avenue, Our Lady of Loretto Parish Hall at Grant and Virginia avenues, and the main Novato firehouse.

The board will canvass the returns June 1, at an 8 p.m. meeting at the hospital.

Meanwhile, selection of George Rockrice of San Francisco as architect for the proposed Novato private hospital was announced by the group of Novato doctors which plans the hospital.

The doctors, who have formed Novato General Hospital, Inc., hope to erect the structure on property on Hill avenue.

Rockrice is to draw preliminary plans, which the corporation will use in its attempts to obtain financing.

5-Cent State Cigarette Tax Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown's supporters predicted a favorable sendoff today for the first segment of the Democratic administration's tax program to come before the Legislature.

Two Democrats proposed a five-cent cigarette tax and a sharp increase in upper bracket income taxes in place of the eight-point plan which Brown says spreads the load evenly among all taxpayers.

ORIGINAL MEASURES

But Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D-Sacramento), lower house sponsor of Brown's revenue bills, declared he would press for passage of the original measures.

"We've got the votes," he said.

His statement came in advance of the initial hearing by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee, of which he is chairman, on two of Brown's bills.

One calls for a new three-cent cigarette tax. The other would raise the maximum tax on incomes from 6 to 7 per cent. Finance officials estimate each would raise about 60 million dollars in 1959-60.

FIVE-CENT TAX

Assemblyman Charles H. Wilson (D-Los Angeles), a member of the tax committee, said he would offer amendments for a five-cent cigarette tax. Another committeeman, Augustus F. Hawkins (D-Los Angeles), said he would seek a 15 per cent tax on all incomes over $35,000.

The two Democrats, both cool toward the administration, said their amendments would raise enough money to balance the state budget without the other tax measures urged by the governor.

In all, Brown has asked for new or increased taxes that would bring in 202 million dollars in 1956-60 and 256 million the following year.

Attorney's Wife Injured In Crash

Mrs. Susan F. Gardiner, wife of attorney Samuel W. Gardiner, suffered a painful whiplash injury yesterday in a three-car crash in the 1800 block of Fourth street, San Rafael.

She was taken by ambulance to her private physician and released after a brace had been applied.

of sinking if they pulled apart.

When the Santa Rosa backed away, its damaged bow carried the funnel of the Valchem, sitting jauntily upright.

The tanker, unable to move, stood by to await the arrival of tugboats for towing to port.

The Santa Rosa had been due in New York this morning after a regular passenger-cargo run that took her to the Netherlands West Indies, Venezuela, Jamaica, Nassau and Port Everglades, Fla.

The Valchem carried a crew of 42. Skippered by Capt. L. A. Murphey of Lynchburg, Va., it was sailing in ballast (without cargo) from New York to Baytown, Tex.

Gardener Held On Charge Of Molesting Girl

An unemployed San Rafael gardener, who has a record of a sex offense in Minnesota, was jailed last night on suspicion of molesting a 9-year-old girl at his home.

Robert Allen Randall, 24, of 1363 Lincoln avenue was scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon for arraignment on charges of child molesting and violation of probation.

In September, 1957, Randall drew five years' probation in Marin Superior Court for tending to lead a child into a lewd or dissolute life. He was convicted of a sex offense in Minnesota in 1954, according to San Rafael Police Inspector Nick Giampoli.

The inspector said Randall's wife was baby sitting the girl and her 7-year-old brother yesterday afternoon. She left her home to take her own child to the doctor. Randall then suggested to the girl that they play "button, button, who's got the button." According to the girl, Randall then tied her hands behind her back, blindfolded her with a handkerchief and molested her.

Realty Office Bomb Threat Proves Hoax

Roy Clark, who has a real estate office on McAllister avenue, told the sheriff that a man telephoned about 11:40 a. m. with this warning: 'There's a bomb in your office ready to go off. This is no joke." The caller then hung up.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos dispatched Chief Criminal Deputy Ellis Seibert to check the building. Seibert radioed back that everything was in order, and the threat was probably a prank.

Terra Linda Recreation Action Pends

San Rafael Recreation and Park Commission last night took no action on the proposed Terra Linda recreation district, pending a joint meeting with the planning commission.

No date has been set yet for the joint meeting.

Terra Linda Community Services District is looking ahead to recreation facilities including a swimming pool, recreation building and outdoor play areas

If the proposed annexation of Freitas ranch goes through, Las Gallinas Valley south of Highway 101 will be split in half. Therefore, Terra Linda leaders want a recreation district to retain a single entity for recreation purposes.

The recreation and park commission last night also received a 25-page report from Recreation Director Joseph Rodota, who outlined a flexible general policy for future parks and recreation. Rodota requests that a recreation and park planning consulting firm be hired in the 1959-60 budget to work out the details of the general plan.

The commission set for April 10 a discussion of the park budget.

The past year's budget was $49,000. The new budget is expected to range between $45,000 and $50,000.

A summer program may be started this year for the San Pedro School-Glenwood area. The commission hopes to meet with the San Pedro Dads' Club early in May.

Novato City Map Won't Be Ready

The map of boundaries proposed for Novato if the area incorporates will not be ready for consideration by the county boundary commission at its regular meeting tomorrow.

George Steele, head of the county's central mapping service, said today the map definitely will not be ready for tomorrow, but that he could have it ready if the commission wants to hold an adjourned meeting the following Friday. Otherwise, it would go over to the next regular meeting April

Jessie G. Bubalo Dies In Fairfax

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said the death obviously was natural, and apparently occurred shortly after Mrs. Bubalo retired last night. Mrs. Bubalo had been released from a San Francisco hospital only two months ago after treatment for a heart ailment.

Mrs. Bubalo was a file clerk at the Presidio of San Francisco. Every morning, she was picked up by Mrs. Holly Rapp of Fairfax near the Fairfax Greyhound Bus depot for a ride to the Presidio.

This morning, Mrs. Bubalo was not at the usual place. After driving to San Francisco, Mrs. Rapp called Fairfax police.

Capt. Clifton Cordes entered the home through a rear door at 9:45 a.m. and found Mrs. Bubalo dead in bed.

Mrs. Bubalo lived alone. A son, Harold Mink of Petaluma, is employed by Golden State Co., Ltd., in San Rafael. A daughter, Mrs. Lois Coleman, lives in Oslo, Norway.

Mrs. Marie Muller Succumbs At 65

She lived at 339 San Anselmo avenue, San Anselmo, since coming to Marin County six years ago. She was a native of Baltimore, Md., but spent most of her life in Philadelphia.

Her husband died in 1940. Mrs. Muller is survived by a daughter and son, Mrs. William V. Fries of San Rafael and William P. Muller of Ross, and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at St. Anselm's Church in San Anselmo. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael. The Rosary will be recited at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo, tomorrow at 8:15 p.m.

A Requiem High Mass will be offered at St. Anselm's Church on Monday at 9:30 a.m.

A WHITE EASTER?

Springtime Hasn't Come To The Rockies

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A pre-Easter snow storm whipped across the eastern Rockies into the Midwest today after kicking up a rash of violent weather in sections of the plains and Mississippi Valley.

The year's worst snow storm which hammered the eastern slopes of the Rockies left drifts waist-high in parts of Colorado, Wyoming and western Nebraska. Snow depths were more than a foot in many places. Denver sloshed through a foot of fresh snow.

The early spring storm, abating in the Rockies, didn't lose much of its fury as it swept eastward, powdered by strong northerly winds.

Heavy snow warnings were posted for Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota. Lighter amounts were in prospect in northern sections of Wisconsin and Michigan and parts of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas

Texas staggered from an outbreak of mild weather. Tornadoes, snow, hail, rain and strong winds lashed the Lone Star state yesterday. Freezing weather followed the snow in the Panhandle region. The tornadoes caused some property damage and injured one person.

In the western sections of the snow belt, many roads were impassable. Hundreds of autos were abandoned as motorists found shelter in motels. Bus travel was halted at Denver and Cheyenne, Wyo. Schools closed in many areas of both Colorado and Wyoming.

At Ogallala, Neb., students from rural areas spent the night in the city's school when buses were halted by the huge drifts. Further west, in Kimball County, schools remained closed.

The tornadic winds which hit Texas also struck in nearby Oklahoma. One twister swept the area of Alva, in northern Oklahoma, damaging some homes. Heaviest damages from the violent winds in Texas was in Denison, in the north central section.

San Rafael Seeks New Parking Site

San Rafael is moving ahead to buy more property for an offstreet parking lot on Third street between Lincoln avenue and Cijos street.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen said today he had been authorized by city councilmen to negotiate prices for the properties.

A council committee headed by Joseph F. Sauer has been looking for additional lots to add to the newly opened three municipal parking lots. An unofficial estimate is that the new lots under negotiation would accommodate 64 cars.

Spring Recreation Program Planned

The spring program of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Recreation Commission will begin April 2 with children's bowling at Greenbrae Lanes in Larkspur.

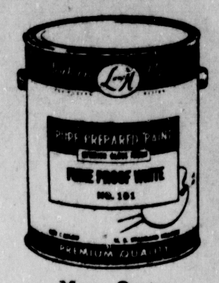

On April 4 the last snow trip of the season will be taken to the Sierra Ski Ranch on Highway 50.

Bill Gordon, program director, said information on the two events can be obtained at the Larkspur City Hall.

Rockefeller Firmly In Saddle As N.Y. Legislature Adjourns

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Nelson A. Rockefeller sailed through his first legislative session as governor of New York looking more than ever like a potential candidate for president.

After a slow start, he wound up with a glittering array of legislation that would look good in any White House hopeful's showcase.

He showed that, when the going got rough, he could fight back to win.

The Empire State's Legislature formally adjourned early today and the dominant feature of Rockefeller's first 84 days in office was the "battle of the budget."

The youthful-looking Republican millionaire barely had settled himself in the governor's chair when he ran hipdeep into trouble by submitting the first two-billion-dollar budget in the state's history and calling for the greatest round of tax increases the state had ever seen.

Rockefeller's record budget shocked conservative, economy-minded Republicans in the Legislature. They rebelled and demanded deep cuts.

The governor eventually agreed to a 40-million reduction. When the rebels demanded still more, he refused. The revolt broke. That was his major victory.

Rockefeller followed up his budget and tax-increase triumphs with these legislative successes:

1. An anti-rackets, labor-control bill.
2. A program of tax relief and other assistance for financially strained railroads and bus companies.
3. A plan for expanding the state's middle-income housing program.
4. Extension of unemployment insurance benefits.

Dorothy Dandridge To Wed June 30

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Negro actress Dorothy Dandridge and Jack Denison, white owner of a Sunset Strip nightspot, will be married June 30.

The two met four years ago when Miss Dandridge was singing in a Las Vegas hotel and Denison was operating the dining room.

She is about 35, Denison about 45. Miss Dandridge was divorced from Negro dancer Harold Nicholas in 1951. Denison has also been divorced.

Gibson May Favor Third Court Here

Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson of the state Supreme Court did not oppose a third municipal court for Marin at Tuesday's luncheon meeting in Sausalito.

He did not say so in so many words, but the chief justice may be favorably inclined, according to members of the Marin Bar Assn. who met with him at the Alta Mira Hotel.

Thomas Nelson, chairman of the bar committee working for a third court, stressed that Chief Justice Gibson took no stand either for or against a third court. "But our committee got the impression he is not radically opposed," said Nelson.

The bill for a third court for Marin has passed the state Senate and is before an Assembly committee.

Jones Tough On Braves; Rig Cheers

"I'm happy as hell," said Manager Bill Rigney, ecstatically digging divots out of his hotel room carpet with an eight-iron, after Jones was acquired from St. Louis in a multi-player swap yesterday.

Jones and Jack Sanford, recent import from Philadelphia, give the Giants a potent one-two pitching punch, said Rig, who predicted the 33-year-old former Card alone should be good for 18 or 19 victories this season.

'We won't lose those 9-8 games this year," he added, ticking off these statistics on Jones:

1. He compiled a 2.88 earned run average last season — second in the league to Stu Miller's 2.47 for the Giants.

16 FULL GAMES

2. Stuck with a fifth-place club, Jones had a 14-13 record, pitched 16 complete games, second in the league to Warren Spahn, and 250 innings.

3. In 1958, he struck out 225 to set a league record and break the Cards' all-time mark of 199 set by Dizzy Dean in 1933.

4. Most important — Jones has a lifetime 8-4 record against Milwaukee. The league champion Braves were 16-6 against the third-place Giants last season.

Rigney noted happily that Sanford was 6-1 against the Braves. He compared that to these lifetime totals for Giant returnees: Johnny Antonelli 14-14, Gordon Jones 2-3, Stu Miller 10-8, Al Worthington 3-13 and Mike McCormick 1-2.

Jones, who throws 'em high and hard, is a longtime friend of Willie Mays, Rig recalled.

"Will they be less apt to throw at Willie now that Sam's here?" someone asked.

"You're damn right," Rigney declared. "They'll be about 89 per cent less apt. There are a couple pitchers in this league who take shots at Willie every time he steps up to the plate. But they'll think twice with Sam around."

In yesterday's trade, the Giants swapped Bill White, first-baseman-outfielder, and pinch-hitter Ray Jablonski for Jones and Don Choate, right-handed pitcher in St. Louis' farm system. Choate was assigned to Phoenix and will report to the Pacific Coast League club's spring training site at Sanford, Fla.

Rigney plans to team Jones and Sanford with southpaws Antonelli and McCormick as starters. Miller is a possible fifth starter. Jones is expected to fill two pitching dates before the Giants leave Arizona about April 3.

'Have we won the pennant?" a well wisher asked.

"No," Rigney answered, "just deepened the staff. There's still 154 games to play and, as a matter of fact, quite a few exhibition games before the season starts."

Drake Shades Game, Gains Tourney Final

Drake High's Pirates battle their cousins from Redwood at 3:30 p.m. next Monday for the championship of the Marin County High School Baseball Tournament at Albert Field, San Rafael.

The final game, scheduled last night, was postponed at the last minute when a downpour drenched the field. Earlier in the day Drake won its way into the finals by nipping the defending champion Tamalpais Indians, 2-1, in a torrid pitchers' duel between Drake's Dick Spackman and Tam's Ron Cole.

In consolation play yesterday the Marin Catholic Wildcats clobbered San Rafael's Bulldogs, 11-1 as John Boccabella smashed one of the longest home runs ever seen at Albert Field. Officials estimated the drive carried 400 feet.

Redwood warmed up for its championship game by meeting Washington High of San Francisco in a practice game. Redwood Coach Al Endriss used second stringers in the early evening game and Washington scored a 5-0 victory.

UNEARNED RUNS

All the runs in the Drake-Tam game were unearned. Drake scored its pair in the first inning when an error on an attempted double play allowed Dick Llewellyn and Spackman to score. They were on base with an error and a walk.

Tam got its run in the fifth frame when Cole drew his third straight walk, stole second and came home on an error.

Sparkling defensive play of the game came in the seventh inning when Drake's Mike Bresnan made a diving catch of a sinking liner off the bat of Jones to end the game.

Spackman gave up only two hits while Cole limited Drake to four hits.

Boccabella's tremendous homer was the highlight of Marin's easy win over San Rafael. The slugging Wildcat ace completed his tournament play with four hits in five official at-bats.

Doug Wilson had three hits and Boccabella and Art Quinn two each to lead the Wildcats yesterday. Marin righthander Craig Goldman limited San Rafael to three hits.

Jones Gives Giants Just What They Lacked In '58 Title Race

CONNOLLY

It is too early yet to tell whether the S.F. Giants hit the jackpot by trading Bill White and Ray Jablonski to the Cards for Sam Jones, a right-handed pitcher.

As one oldtimer put it, "The Giants never had White, so what did they give away?"

True enough, White hasn't been in harness long enough since 1956 to be considered a real loss. But I saw enough of him to know that he is as fast or faster than Orlando Cepeda, a better fielding first sacker and much more alert, mentally, than the hard-hitting slugger from Puerto Rico. But no one can stay that White or any other first sacker in the National League is any greater hitting prospect than Cepeda.

It is almost impossible for anyone to second guess Manager Bill Rigney or Horace Stoneham on the deal they made for Jones.

The Giants needed a first line pitcher and they got a real high class one in Toothpick Jones. In the four years he has been in the league Jones has been the strikeout king for three of 'em.

In 909 innings he has allowed 740 hits and struck out 785. Last year he was second only to Stu Miller in earned runs per game.

THE NICEST thing about Jones coming to San Francisco is the Giants won't have to face him in the first two series which, on dope, Jones figured to be pitching in two of the first six games the Cards and Giants played.

The ghost of Bill White may come jumping at the Giants it is true, but not nearly so much as if they had played White for a couple seasons and really knew how good he was. As matters now stand the Giants will never know what they gave up in White because they never really knew what they had.

I'm 100 per cent for Rigney and Stoneham in the deal. If ever a ball club needed first-line pitching in 1958 it was the Giants. They had everything in the way of run makers, but were very shaky in the pitching department.

JONES COULD be the salvation of the Giants and the fair haired boy who could lead them from the wilderness into the promised land.

And believe me he's going to get his full share of work as a front liner.

Skipper Rigney now has three starters in the righthanded department and two good southpaws in the lefthanded division.

If Jack Sanford and Miller can do their share I'm satisfied Jones will hold up his end. But don't think for one moment the Giants have a clutch hold on the pennant because they've got Jones. Everyone on the club including the great Willie Mays has to go at top speed to carry the club to the top.

Johnny Antonelli and Mike McCormick will have to carry the load as will all the relievers such as Al Worthington, Billy Muffett, Paul Giel, Curt Barclay and the wild man from Borneo, Joe Shipley.

RIGNEY HAS already stated that Barclay is a starting pitcher if he remains with the Giants.

"Barclay either is a starter or he isn't on the ball club, Rigney stated some weeks ago.

And by that Rigney means that the worth of Barclay is starting and packing the load for the full nine innings. Barclay isn't a relief coot. He has to start and, if he doesn't, he isn't worth a dime to the club and won't be kept.

So, if Jones, Miller, Sanford and Barclay make it, the chores for Antonelli and McCormick are made to order. These two lefties should come close to winning 40 games between them. And with that added to what the other righthander should do, I can't see anything but good luck for the Giants at the kickoff . . .

Indians Send Padres Pitcher Russ Heman

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI)—The Cleveland Indians reduced their roster to 32 players today by optioning pitcher Russ Heman to San Diego.

Heman was acquired by the Indians in a mid-winter deal with Baltimore for second baseman Bob Avila. He won nine and lost 12 last year with Vancouver.

Rodgers O.K. After Beaning; Giants Win

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Doctors reported today San Francisco Giants shortstop Andre Rodgers apparently would get off with only a sore, discolored cheek as a result of being smashed in the face by a pitched ball.

Rodgers was struck yesterday taking his turn at the bat as the Giants walloped the Boston Red Sox, 9-4, for the second straight time in the Cactus League.

The ball, heaved by pitcher Tom Brewer in the second frame, struck Rodgers a glancing blow and knocked him to the ground. But Rodgers made it out of the ball park under his own power and subsequent X-rays showed no serious damage had been inflicted.

In yesterday's game at nearby Scottsdale, Brewer was tapped for eight Giant runs in the seven frames he pitched. He was relieved by former San Francisco Seal hurler Leo Kiely, who gave the Giants an additional tally.

Giant starter Johnny Antonelli went five frames, giving up two scores to the Red Sox.

And, coupled with Antonelli's suave pitching, a three-run Giant rally in the seventh put the game on ice for San Francisco. The runs came off a double by Willie Kirkland and singles by Leon Wagner and Bill McCovey.

Hamilton R-G Club Range To Open Sunday

Hamilton Rod and Gun Club opens its skeet range and new straight-away trap range Easter Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, Secretary P. La Lancet announced today.

The range is located across from the flight line at Hamilton Air Force Base, "and there is a generous supply of ammunition and targets for the shooters," the secretary said.

Dodgers Say Giants Got Best Of Trade

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Most of the gossip in the Dodger camp today concerned yesterday's Giant-Cards trade.

The concensus is that Sam Jones really strengthens San Francisco's pitching and makes the Giants more of a pennant threat than ever, while the Cards, taking the Giants' second string first baseman, Bill White, and the pinch-hitting Ray Jablonski, come off second best in the deal.

Rumors of a possible trade between the Dodgers and Milwaukee apparently are only rumors. The Braves weren't interested enough in Los Angeles' surplus infielders to make a proposition yesterday, when the National League champs clouted the Dodgers 8-4.

Buzzie Bavasi, the Dodger general manager, says there is a chance of a deal before the season starts, but he emphasized he doesn't want to strengthen an already strong club.

Braves outfielder Wes Covington had this to say:

"That deal will make Willie Mays happy. He hates to bat against that man Jones."

Braves' Manager Fred Haney said he isn't worrying about deals between other clubs. He has a second base problem.

Gil Hodges, Dodger first baseman who has been sidelined by a bad knee, looked good in his return to the lineup Wednesday. He clouted a first inning homer good for three runs and ran out two ground balls without favoring the knee.

Palmer Ties Souchak At Palm Beach

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The touring golf pros headed north today, some to Wilmington, N. C., for a tournament there and others to Augusta, Ga., to prepare for the Masters.

They closed out their Florida tour yesterday in the 36-hole Seminole pro-amateur. Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., was the big winner at $2,150.

Palmer had a 70 to go with his first-round 71 and split $1,800 with Mike Souchak of Grossingers, N. Y., who had 72-69—141. But Souchak finished out of the money in the best-ball competition while Palmer picked up $1,250.

Palmer's amateur partners were Arthur O. Willman of Boston and Kenneth Rich of Dallas, Tex.

The Palmer-Wellman duo had a best ball score of 66-61—127. Palmer's score with Rich was 64-65—129.

Moore-Durelle Set For Repeat Of 1958's Top Fight

MONTREAL (UPI) — Fight promoter Jim Norris today chalked up his first victory since the courts disbanded his International Boxing Club — the signing of light-heavy champion Archie Moore and Yvon Durelle for a July 15 repeat of 1958's "Fight of the Year."

MAJOR MOVE

Truman Gibson, president of the Norris-backed N.B.E., called the signing "a major move by the N.B.E." He insisted that the signing didn't mean the N.B.E. had given up trying to match Moore and Robinson, either, but said a Moore win over Durelle "would make a Moore-Robinson fight even more attractive."

And Gibson made it plain he thinks the N.B.E. would be the outfit that would land Moore-Robinson, too.

Moore, who got off the floor four times to kayo Durelle in the 11th round last Dec. 10, will receive a $250,000 guarantee. Durelle, Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., fisherman who never has had a "big pay day," will settle for a $15,000 minimum. The fight will be at the Montreal Forum, if Quinn, Gibson and Co., can convince Moore it should not be held outdoors.

Quinn estimated that the attraction "should draw about $450,000." Present plans call for the fight to be carried on home TV in the U.S. and Theater TV in Canada. Gibson disclosed that U.S. TV will pay $100,000 for the television rights, $25,000 more than the last Moore-Durelle scrap.

London Defies British Ban On Title Go

The country's boxing bosses —the British Board of Boxing Control—banned Brian London from meeting Patterson for the world title in Las Vegas, Nev., April 21.

The claimed the bout would not be in the best interests of British boxing.

London promptly announced he would go ahead with the bout anyway.

"I've got a big pay day coming ($75,000) and a chance to win the world title," the pugnacious, 24-year-old Briton said. "I'll risk suspension at home for that."

The BBBC said London probably will lose his license to fight in Britain if he defies them.

UP TO U. S.

"It is now up to American authorities to decide whether they will permit an unauthorized British boxer to fight Patterson," said BBBC President J. Onslow Fane.

U. S. boxing bigwigs appeared ready to go along with London, although their statements were cautious.

Cooper used a jabbing left to take away London's British title. London was made to look like a novice as he plodded smack into the nagging lefts of Cooper.

Experts argue Cooper should be the man tackling Patterson but Cooper lost his chance by asking for too much money—$140,000.

Cards Send V. McDaniel To Farm Club

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals today cut off 15 of the 53 players in camp, among them Von McDaniel, an 18-year-old schoolboy sensation two summers ago.

The younger McDaniel brother was the only player not shipped to the triple-A camp at Daytona Beach, Fla. He was sent to the lower-classification training base at Albany, Ga.

"Von has got to start over," said Manager Solly Hemus of the young right-hander who had troubles in double-A and Class B last season. "He needs to get back his confidence and to work further on regaining his method of delivering the ball."

Dropped off the roster, in addition, were pitchers Frank Barnes and Marshall Bridges, infielders Jim McKnight, Billy Harrell, Wally Shannon, outfielder Ellis Burton and first baseman-outfielder Duke Carmel.

Returned to their clubs were pitchers Ray Sadecki, catcher Chuck Stanisland, infielder Ed Olivares and outfielder Bob Boyer, all Omaha, and catcher Hank Kuhlmann and outfielders Charley James and Gene Oliver, Rochester.

Nats Square Playoffs With Celtics

Attention in the National Basketball Assn's division playoffs swings back to the West tonight as Minneapolis entertains St. Louis in an attempt to square their series at two games apiece.

The East, its timetable a day ahead, already is even at 2-2 after Syracuse's 119-107 victory over the Boston Celtics last night. It was the seventh time in seven games that the home team had won.

If there's a break in the pattern coming, however, it may come tonight—now that St. Louis' one-two punch of Bob Pettit and Cliff Hagan seems back in operation.

Pettit after two so-so games broke out with 39 points in St. Louis' victory over Minneapolis at St. Louis Tuesday night—more like it for the league's scoring champion.

With Hagan, who has hit at a 32-point pace in the three games, the pair have accounted for about half the St. Louis points.

In the last game, Minneapolis' Elgin Baylor was limited to only three points in the first half and 15 for the game.

Boston and Syracuse will rest until Saturday afternoon.

Balanced scoring did the job for Syracuse, with Dolph Schayes scoring 28 points, Larry Costello 26, Hal Greer 21, and George Yardley 18. The Celts' Frank Ramsey scored 29 points.

2 Marin Anglers Win Bass Prizes

Two Marin County fishermen were among last week's winners in the Schenley Sportsmen's Club's striped bass contest, it was announced yesterday. They are Marshall Huber of San Rafael with a 20-pound fish caught at China Camp and George Wigner with a 10-pounder, also at China Camp.

Dodgers Refuse To Make Deal With Milwaukee

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—General Manager Buzzie Bavasi of the Los Angeles Dodgers said yesterday he won't trade either Junior Gilliam or Don Zimmer to the Milwaukee Braves, who would like one of the veteran infielders to solve their second base problem.

"I'd be silly to trade anybody to the Braves," Bavasi said. "We're trying to catch them, not strengthen them."

He said further that the Braves were the team to beat again this year even without an established second baseman in their lineup.

"They had key men hurt last year and out of action and still won by eight games," Bavasi said. "With their power in pitching you've got to pick them again."

Red Schoendienst, the top second baseman for Milwaukee, was just released from a St. Louis hospital where he was treated for tuberculosis. Red doubts if his physicians will allow him to play before next year.

GOLDEN GLOVES

17-Year-Old Steals Show In TV Bouts

CHICAGO (AP)—New York won an unprecedented second straight inter-city Golden Gloves team title over Chicago last night, but the individual spotlight was turned on the Windy City's Cassius Clay.

Clay, a 17-year-old high school student from Louisville, Ky., proved he was quite advanced for his age as a sharp counter puncher in taking a three-round decision over New York's light-heavyweight Tony Madigan.

Madigan, at 29, is a rough, mauling type of fighter who hails from Sydney, Australia. He is the Aussie amateur cham as well as the British Empire's and had lost only 5 of 99 bouts before running into Clay.

Madigan, who now lives in Rye, N. Y., pressed the fight all the way, but Clay's pointed combinations kept rocking him.

3 TV BOUTS

The Chicago Stadium crowd of 7,261 gave the battle a fine ovation. It was one of three televised nationally.

New York took the other two TV bouts in piling up a 10-6 triumph over Chicago. New York won last year 12-4. Chicago, however, still leads the rivalry 15-9 with 8 draws.

In other TV bouts New York's Angel Morales 19 defeated Gil Yanez Toledo high school graduate, in the 112-pound division, and the Easterner's Ossie Marcano, 21-year-old shipping clerk, flashed too much punching power for Don Sargent, Minneapolis truck driver, to win the welterweight crown.

New York won both the alternate and championship divisions in the show's closing heavyweight bouts to cinch the team title.

Fresno St. Names Cecil Coleman New Grid Coach

Coleman's selection was announced by College President Arnold E. Joyal, effective April 1. He will succeed Clark Van Galder.

In announcing Coleman's appointment as head coach and professor of education, Joyal said he is expected to work within rules set up by the state board of education and California Collegiate Athletic Assn. His salary was not disclosed, but as a professor he will receive a minimum of $8,500 annually.

Fleischer Charges 'Boxing In A Mess'

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—A gnome of a man who has made boxing his life stood up today and threw rocks at it.

Nat Fleischer, undoubtedly boxing's chief historian, charges that greed and the struggle for state's prestige has ruined all control in the United States. And he brands the "open defiance" of such title-holders as Floyd Patterson and Ray Robinson as "preposterous."

Fleischer, an intimate of all the heavyweight champions since Jim Corbett, scorns the crafty maneuverings of the Patterson camp which have kept the current heavyweight ruler wrapped in mothballs. Not even his boxing enthusiasm can condone such "fights" as these against setups like Pete Rademacher, Roy Harris and the zephyr-like "Hurricane" Jackson.

But capping the climax was the recent eye-popping strategem in which Patterson was matched against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson in June and—after that—was signed to risk the title a month earlier in a "tuneup" against England's Brian London. The Patterson brain trust ridiculed its own London bout when Manager Cus D'Amato asserted that his man couldn't lose.

"That's the biggest joke of all," said Fleischer, who has made several trips around the world in the interest of boxing and has been decorated by three governments. "Imagine D'Amato assuring everybody that his man can't lose.

"A lot of people will get the idea from such a statement that this can't be anything else but a fixed fight," he insisted. "Not that such is the case, but the inference certainly is there. The whole thing is utterly ridiculous."

Making it even more absurd is the fact that London, an oft-beaten heavyweight, doesn't even deserve a shot at the title. And this must rate as a title fight because in the heavyweight division there is no such thing as a "non-title bout."

"D'Amato has brought boxing down to its lowest ebb," Fleischer charged. "London is just an ordinary fighter; slow, inept and easy to hit. Yet the gamble is always there that even a featherweight might lay one on the champion's whiskers and put him away."

The aggressive Boswell of boxing also blows his stack when he thinks of the manner in which Sugar Ray Robinson defies the various controlling authorities, shrugs off the rule that he defend the middleweight title within six months, and bides his time deciding what to do.

"The European Boxing Union would take his license away, declare the title vacant and hold a series of eliminations to crown a new champion," says little Nat.

This is impossible in the United States, he explains, because of the toothless association among the states composing the National Boxing Association and the ineffectiveness of the NBA's working agreement with powerful New York State.

HANLEY'S TRAINING CAMP REPORT

Giants Ahead Of 1958 HR Pace—No Flukes, Either

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz.—Those Giant power-hitters are banging home runs in the Cactus League at a clip better than last year when a lot of snide comments were passed about "cheap circuit clouts, cans of corn and eight iron golf shots in the dry desert air."

Such gossip noticeably is lacking along the cactus trail this year with half of the 29-game exhibition schedule now in the score books which duly note 25 Giant homers. In the same number of pre-season games last year the homer mark was 19.

What about the four Arizona baseball parks where the boys are belting? Are they band boxes? Not a bit of it. None has distances less than 320 feet along the foul lines and center field in all of the parks is 400 feet or more.

The distances adhere rigidly to official baseball rules that allow a minimum of 250 feet from home base to the nearest fence but state, "A distance of 320 feet or more along the foul lines, and 400 feet or more to center field is preferable."

TWENTY-FOUR of the Giant homers have been collected in the three smallest parks: Tucson's Hi Corbett Field where the wind did aid some homers in the Cleveland-Giant games; the Cub training camp at Mesa where fence distances are just a little shorter than at Wrigley Field in Chicago, and the Giants' own camp at Phoenix Municipal Stadium.

Scottsdale, where the Giants are visiting the Boston Red Sox today for the last time, is the one park where only mighty smashes go for the circuit. The one Giant homer here was made by Jimmy Davenport two weeks ago. It cleared the 360-foot left field fence by 15 feet.

SCOTTSDALE'S measurements explain the lack of homers in this park: 360 feet along the foul lines, with the fences tapering outward to 375 and 417 feet toward the center field wall which is 430 feet from home plate.

Felipe Alou and Bill White, with four apiece, lead the home run race. Orlando Cepeda and Andre Rodgers have three each. Hank Sauer, Davenport and Don Taussig have two each.

Billy Martin, the ex-Yankee traded by the Detroit Tigers to Cleveland in a five-player deal last November, had this to say about the Giants:

"They're not going to win the pennant—they haven't anybody who can hit singles."

WILLIE MAYS, back in uniform for batting practice and anxious to get back in the line-up, caught up with his paper work on his first day back. For 15 minutes he signed autographs as he sat on the top step of the Giant dugout—where he always sits—while two score of youngsters passed programs to him from the stands.

"Thought you might have forgotten me," he kidded them.

The healing shinbone he damaged sliding home March 12 gave him no trouble whatsoever during batting practice. He hit a couple out of the Phoenix park.

Al Stieglitz, the one rookie who looks like he will make the grade this year as a substitute catcher, asked Willie where they went. He pointed to the palm trees behind the left center field wall.

"Over them," said Mays, "but you don't have to worry about those. You are just supposed to catch the ball if I don't hit it."

Gomez Likes Philly; Sees 15 Victories

CLEARWATER, Fla (AP)—Ruben Gomez, the Puerto Rican right-hander who puts up a fuss about pitching in cool weather and occasionally pops a batter with a pitch, admits he's a little temperamental.

"Everybody has things they like to do or don't like," said Ruben, who does a pretty good job with English. "I don't like to pitch in cold weather."

"No pitcher does, unless he has a fast ball, and I don't throw so hard. When it is cold you don't break a sweat. I like to have moisture on my hands so I can control the ball better."

Gomez, a thin guy who stands 6-0 and is listed at 170, admits the December trade that sent him from the San Francisco Giants to the Philadelphia Phillies came as a surprise. Two surprises, in fact.

"First I was surprise that they trade me," he said, "and then I am surprise that they trade me to Philadelphia. I think they trade me to Cincinnati.

LIKES PHILS

"I like this team. I get a chance to learn from that fellow," Ruben added, pointing to Robin Roberts. "I watch to see how he moves the ball around. And if there is some hitter he gets out all the time I watch and maybe I will too."

Ruben, 31, had a 10-12 record last season, his sixth in the majors. He thinks he can win 15 with the Phillies, "if they pitch me regularly so I can get into the groove."

"My best year was 1954. I won 17. But I pitched better the next year and didn't win so many (9-10).

About those duster brawls Gomez gets into, does he make a practice of pitching tight—high, inside?

"I don't throw inside. I throw low and down there, outside. Sometimes I throw close, up here," Ruben said, making a swipe at his chest.

Olson's Chin May Get Good Test From Rory

The big question — "Can Bobo Olson's chin take a good punch?" — might be answered next Monday when the former middleweight champion engages Rory Calhoun, White Plains, N.Y., in a light heavyweight battle at the Cow Palace in San Francisco.

Olson has been kayoed five times in a career numbering 79 fights, of which 69 are victories. He's lost five decisions.

In none of the five knockouts suffered by Bobo has he been able to rise from the canvas after taking the big punch — three times by Sugar Ray Robinson and once each by Archie Moore and heavyweight Pat McMurty.

Calhoun himself has been knocked out only once — that coming at the hands of Spider Webb in a Cow Palace bout last year — after he had Webb on the canvas twice.

"It was a desperation punch that happened to catch my guy," recalls Calhoun's manager, Frank Bachman.

The 25-year-old visitor, with a record of 39-6-1, is best remembered here for his sensational upset victory over Joey Giambra in August, 1957. It was one of the worst thrashings suffered by Giambra, a 2½ to 1 favorite.

After more than three weeks of sparring in the private, downstairs ring, Manager Billy Newman is now showing Olson to the public in the upstairs ring. The "new" Bobo works daily at 1:30 p.m. at Newman's Gym.

Calhoun, who has been drilling in the East for the past month, has set up local quarters at the same hour at Dolph Thomas' Gym, 541 Turk street.

There will be no TV or radio broadcast of this important match.

Advance ticket sales continue to be heavy, according to Matchmaker Bennie Ford, of the San Francisco Boxing Club, who predicts a gate of better than $50,000.

Grand Jury Studying Cahan Case

Hears Pro, Con Sides From D.A., Public Defender

The Marin County Grand Jury is trying to decide whether it should recommend legislation to counteract the famous Cahan decision on use of evidence obtained without a search warrant.

A committee of the grand jury, headed by Chairman Louis Freitas, called in Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich and Public Defender Leonard A. Thomas to hear both sides of the question yesterday.

The controversy started in 1955 when Charles Cahan of Los Angeles was convicted of bookmaking.

WINS APPEAL

He appealed, and the state Supreme Court freed Cahan on grounds that police had broken into his home and seized evidence illegally for use in the trial. Since the Supreme Court decision on the Cahan case, many California law enforcement officials have complained that their hands are tied. Asst. Atty. Gen. Clarence Linn called the decision "the Magna Carta of criminals."

Grand juries of several counties, including San Mateo, Los Angeles and Orange, have endorsed a proposed bill to reverse the policy laid down by the Cahan decision.

WEISSICH'S STAND

Weissich yesterday asked the Marin County Grand Jury committee to do likewise. The district attorney said he supports a bill to permit use of evidence obtained without legal sanction to convict narcotics offenders and to protect informants in narcotics case from being identified.

Public Defender Thomas contends the Cahan decision is just in that it protects the rights and privacies of individuals from illegal search and seizure. He and Weissich argued the point for two hours before the grand jury committee.

The committee has not yet announced whether it will support the bill.

San Quentin To Open New Forest Camp

A new San Quentin Prison forestry camp for 80 minimum-security prisoners will open April 1 at Clear Creek, 18 miles west of Redding, it was announced today by Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff.

The year-around camp will be operated by San Quentin Prison. Lt. Robert Major and five correctional officers will staff the camp. The first contingent of inmates, a kitchen crew and about 30 transfers from other forestry camps, will set up the camp. The main body of parole-bound San Quentin men will be taken by bus to the camp on April 6.

The 80 San Quentin inmates will do conservation work under the direction of the state Forestry Division and help fight forest fires.

Hub Council Called To Special Session

A special meeting of the San Anselmo City Council at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the city hall has been called by Mayor Arthur W. Smith to give council approval to a revised storm damage grant of $130,390 proposed by the state.

If the state gives final approval to the new figure, it will cover two Forest avenue reconstruction projects and one on Redwood road, said City Manager Arthur W. Brewer. The city opened bids for this work at its March 10 meeting and has 30 days in which to award a contract. An earlier state-approved grant of $104,400 for seven San Anselmo storm repair projects did not allow enough for the Forest avenue and Redwood road projects.

The special meeting is expected to be short. The city planning commission is scheduled to meet at 8 o'clock in the council chambers.

These 4 Famous Home Economists Recommend WONDER BREAD FOR CHILDREN

And For All The Family—Based On Visits To The Wonder Research Laboratories And Bakeries

Dr. Marietta Eichelberger of Chicago, Illinois. Former Director of Home Economics and Nutrition Service, Evaporated Milk Association

"TO ME WONDER BREAD MEANS GOODNESS—

The trip I took through your bakery and your research laboratories convinced me of that!"

Mrs. Kathryne Sheehan Hughes of Washington, D.C. President, District of Columbia Home Economics Association

"NOW I KNOW WHY WONDER BREAD SELLS BEST—

Everyone should go through your bakery and visit your wonderful research laboratories the way I did."

Mrs. Iris H. Albert of South Pasadena, California. Former Director of Home Economics, Los Angeles City Schools

"WONDER BREAD IS TRULY WONDERFUL—

"NO WONDER MILLIONS PREFER WONDER BREAD—

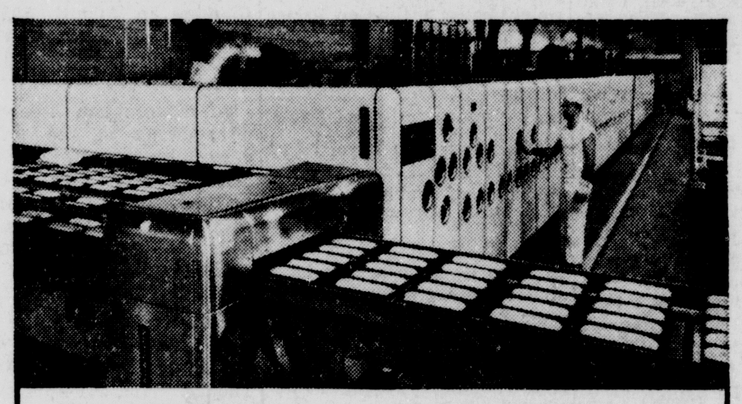

I had no idea of the care taken in baking and of the size of your research laboratories."

Scientific research—the key to improved nutrition! Continental Baking Company is justly proud of its modern research laboratories where scientists strive to improve the nutritional values of breads and cake.

THEY KNOW IT HELPS BUILD STRONG BODIES 12 WAYS!

Modern bread baking is a far cry from the old wood stove. Scientific control not only turns out a more uniform loaf, but, through the addition of milk proteins, vitamins and minerals, produces bread superior in nutrition to that grandmother used to bake.

What Wonder Bread Can Do For Your Children, For You and Your Husband

What does a home economist want in a bread?

Which is why more women buy Wonder Bread than any other brand.

12 Ways To Growth

For normal physical and mental development, children must get a well-balanced diet of protein, fat, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals, such as come in meats, milk, eggs, fruit, green-leafed and yellow vegetables.

The amounts of these 12 food elements in Wonder Bread are compared with similar amounts contained in other foods.

This does not suggest that Wonder Bread take the place of these other foods. Or that your child is deficient in any of these elements, particularly cobalt, copper, zinc and manganese.

Thus, when you give Wonder Bread to your child, you know you are helping your child grow bigger and stronger 12 ways.

This suggests that you do 3 things:

(1) Start your child eating 8 slices of Wonder Bread today.

(2) Measure your child's height and weigh him today.

(3) See how height and weight increase in 3 months; 6 months; each year.

Fresh And Tender

You should have no trouble getting your child to eat plenty of big, new Wonder Bread.

And start helping your child grow bigger and stronger 12 ways.

ONLY WONDER BREAD IS BAKED UNDER 5-WAY CONTROL BY THE SCIENTISTS OF THE WONDER RESEARCH LABORATORIES

5-WAY CONTROL MEANS:

(1) ingredient evaluation (2) process improvement
(3) product evaluation (4) product improvement
(5) flavor improvement

They toil not only here in California, but in several other Western states and in Hawaii.

The results of the many "kaffee klatsches" which have taken place throughout the county have netted over 150 new members for the guild. All the mothers of children taught by the Sisters are invited to attend the luncheon and to help in gathering articles for the Silent Auction.

Wolo, Puppet Mice, Fashions, Make 'Easter Dreams' Reality

Spreading the Easter dream dust were the Junior Museum Service League in fresh, feminine fashions from the Ross Valley Shop and charming outfits for their well-mannered young sons and daughters from Bell's Children's Shops.

Tuesday's "Easter Dreams" began at the entrance where the rabbits and a friendly guinea pig lunched on lettuce, nodding a reminder that Marin's Junior Museum is a fascinating place to learn about the wonders of nature and wildlife during Easter vacation, or any time.

The Easter dreams of fashion-minded mothers were a bit more practical. They found Bell's most beautiful Easter dress was "wash and wear" and remembered the hours it once took to "do up" a young lady's confection. Reflecting back on "fuzzy new permanents you got at Easter time" they applauded the soft, shining halos created for the models by the House of Kwan Yin. And no one had quite forgotten the "shape" of Easter dreams last year as contrasted with Ross Valley Shop's 1959 subtle feminine approach to fashion, and the coordinated Beauty Counselor makeup by Frances Gaines to accent it.

With her furry tail bobbing, Mopsy Cottontail, Fashion Focus coordinator for the day, and Wolo introduced the hour of Easter dreaming reminding that "Easter and dreams go together, it seems, whether you are 40 or four; no matter how long you've been dreaming there are always more dreams in store."

Fashionable "Easter dreams": "No More School," Penny Adams cruising in pale blue roll-up tapers, matching skirt and yachting jacket; mother, Mrs. Adams, sunning in an orange play suit, a skirt to discreetly cover.

"Easter at Grandma's," Jerry Gilden's shocking pink linen sheath with handspan banded belt the accent for Mrs. William Patten plus sons, Keith, in blue corded slacks and nautical shirt, and Bruce, plaided in brown and white shirt and brown Sunday slacks.

"Dance Dreams," pale lavender sheer organdy plaided with avocado stripes on a full, skirted, scooped-neck short formal for Mrs. Preston Jones; for daughter, Diane, peach geranium dacron cotton smocked and sashed with charm.

"Easter Parade." Lisa Bettini a portrait in Viola's flower garden paisley print of polished cotton, the overskirt caught with posies; her hat fetchingly tied under the chin; for a late spring night, Mrs. Richard Bettini and the crispness of white organdy, the full skirt banded tiers, her tiny waist sashed in velvet.

On Tuesday, Fashion Focus takes a journey "Spiced With Foreign Flavor" by Orrick's Travel Bureau, to preview fashionable imports from a dozen countries gathered by Tiki's of Sausalito with footwear by Netboy's and honoring Marin Chapter of B'nai B'rith and the Sisterhood of the Jewish Community Center. Reservations are made by calling Rickey's.

Mrs. Arthur Bottini Honored By Temple At Surprise Dinner

Mrs. Arthur Bottini, newly installed most excellent chief of Muir Temple, Pythian Sisters of Mill Valley, was guest of honor at a surprise dinner given her by members at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, recently.

Those participating were Mesdames William Wegner, Henry Meyer, Doris Leacock, Leslie Vogensen, Elizabeth Iverson, Paul Hanson, James Smith, Verna Strittmatter, Emma Young, Etta Coats, Max Graefe, Frank Oliveira, Winifred McMahon, Leona Swanke, George Vogensen, Charles Hadley, Harold Owen and Miss Elsie Peterson.

Mrs. Bottini was presented with a corsage and gift and group singing completed the evening.

The last meeting of Muir Temple was followed by a pictorial "Around the World in 80 Minutes," presented by means of colored slides shown by Ludia Ruiz.

Next event for the group will be a bake sale to be held Saturday at the Corte Madera Shopping Center near the "Thrifty" store.

Sausalito Dancers Set Easter Party

An Easter folk dance party with an all request program is planned for Saturday by the Sausalito Step-Togethers for its regular fourth Saturday dance at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley.

The popular all request program will be continued at all fourth Saturday parties given by the group. Dancing begins at 8:15 p.m.

Helen and Bill Wood, Eloise Hopkins and Leo Parachini will be hosts. All folk and square dancers are invited to attend and write in their favorite old and new dances.

Friends Begin Work On New Library

Volunteers of The Friends of Arequipa that participated recently were Mesdames A. R. Sauter, Robert Evgu, R. L. Thompson, Victor Kagan, Willard Hall, Acacia Unit; Louis Vogler, Driftwood Unit and W. L. Costa from the Baywood Unit.

Miss Helen Westlake, well-known Marin librarian, has donated her time and services. Her valuable experience has been shared with the volunteers who are sorting and cateloguing the books. According to Miss Westlake, there is a good basic collection of older books of fiction. There is hope that the library can be augmented by donations of more non-fiction books, biographies, travel, popular science and psychology, arts and crafts and texts on mental and spiritual health. Fiction books published since 1950 would also be appreciated.

At the recent library "launching," it was noted that volunteers able to type can help expedite the two card file and book card system. Those who would like to learn book mending and others who can help in general service would aid the completion of a library that will be of value to the handicapped. Anyone desiring to volunteer for any of these services on Thursday contact Mrs. Costa of San Anselmo.

Evenutally she hopes that the findings of her American studies will be published as an aid to still other countries which are attempting to establish such systems.

Mrs. Islam is one of 34 foreign women and 41 American women studying this year under grants provided by the AAUW Fellowship Fund program.

Santa Venetia Home Setting For Wedding

Mrs. Eileen Draper and Art Mathews exchanged marriage vows recently at the Santa Venetia home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arrington. For the early afternoon ceremony the couple stood before an altar banked with spring flowers and calla lilies. The Rev. Harold St. George Buttram of Sonoma officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Joseph Pinkham of Tulare, wore a turquoise faille sheath dress and small white feathered hat. White carnations were in her shoulder corsage. Mrs. Arrington, the bride's only attendant, wore an egg shell white sheath dress. Mr. Arrington was best man.

About 40 relatives and friends attended the wedding and the reception that followed. The three tiered wedding cake was topped by white and silver bells, doves and a wedding ring.

At last the men can join their wives in anticipation of summer fashions. The members of the Tom Thumb Chapter of the Children's Home Society have decided their husbands have too long been ignored in the fashion parades.

Saturday evening, April 18, they plan to introduce their husbands and guests to this year's "High Fashions and Guy Fashions, featuring many selections from the Modern Eve Shop and Cazassa's Men's Shop, both of San Rafael, with hair styles by Town House. Preceding the showing, to be held in the Flamingo Room of the Bermuda Palms, will be an 8 o'clock cocktail hour.

Mrs. John Russell of Kentfield is chairman of this fundraising event, the proceeds of which will be used to further the services of the Children's Home Society, a private adoption agency which last year placed 971 children in adoptive homes. Children's Home Society is a member of the United Bay Area Crusade.

Mothers' Day Carnival Set In Marinwood

The Marinwood Home and School Club is planning a gigantic carnival for May 10, Mothers' Day, to be held at the Mary E. Silveira School grounds in Marinwood.

Mrs. Richard L. Shirley is in charge of the carnival which will get off to a start with the serving of breakfast with Edwin Lewin acting as master chef and chief pancake flipper.

Breakfast will be served all during the morning hours. This provides an excellent opportunity to take Mom and the whole family out to breakfast on her day. A midway will be constructed on the school grounds under the direction of Daniel Harris and will be replete with games under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. Pedersen.

Each grade at the school will be represented by a booth. These will include the ever-popular fish pond, wheel of fortune, coke ring toss, and a post office with packages from all over the world.

Paul Kiefer and Howard Council are arranging for the door prizes, and Mrs. James Levien is making plans for a sidewalk cafe where food and refreshments will be served by the Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls. The affair will conclude with an evening production planned by Mrs. Glenn Howerton which promises lots of exciting entertainment.

Leather Garments On Color Rampage

Leather coats and jackets come in for a big share of fashion coverage this spring.

Blooming on the scene in a host of new leather colors and styles, in both smooth grains and silky suedes, they're designed to go fashionably 'round the clock.

In keeping with the more feminine look in spring fashion, suede leather garments are styled with soft, fluid lines and are simply detailed.

Coats, for instance, feature wider collars that are sometimes softly draped out to the shoulder line. Sleeves are deep-set for freedom of movement and, except on sporty styles, pockets are flat and discreet.

Ultra feminine and fashionable are the coats and jackets detailed to give the effect of the high-rising waistline. This is done by stitched seams, tucking, deep-set yokes, either in front or in back, and high-placed front pockets. Other slim coats are designed with belts that can be worn at waist level or tied just below the bosom.

Color is one of the main fashion points in leather garments this spring. Just name the color—it's yours! The new vivid pinks and blues and yellows are popular, along with the pale, pale tones such as off-white and beige.

The pale hues are made practical as well as fashionable by the easy cleaning of leather. Wiping with mild soapsuds or just a damp cloth is suggested.

Horizon Club Girls Will Usher For Choir Performance

Hinkley and Mrs. A. V. Girot Jr.; the Nozirohs, advisor, Mrs. Harry Bell, and the Horizon Club, advisor, Mrs. D. W. Schneider assisted by Miss Marge Bilderback.

Church Sets Dates For Salvage Sale

Dates for the Mill Valley Episcopal Church's annual salvage sale have been set for May 14 through 18, according to Mrs. H. E. Houchard, general chairman.

She will be assisted by Mesdames Kenneth Beebe and G. R. Brockmann.

Those interested in donating articles may leave them at the church or call the church office to arrange pickup service.

Churchills Entertain At Dessert-Coffee

Entertaining before the Low-Jinx at the Sausalito Woman's Club Saturday night were the John Churchills who had a group of their friends in for dessert and coffee before going on to the repeat performance of "And It Came To Pass," the very successful Highjinx production that was staged at the Founders' Day luncheon the previous Thursday.

Fit In Knits

Look for fit in knits. An important casual cover-up will be jacket-styled sweaters, in plain or looped mohair. Knitted dresses and suits vary from a relaxed sheath silhouette to the fitted waist, either natural or Empire, with a curved ribcage belt or self tie

Four school problems were discussed in "Buzz Session" fashion with members seated around tables in groups at the recent March meeting of the Old Mill School Parent-Teacher Assn.

Topics planned for the evening as a follow-up on the information series of programs presented during the year were (1) What do you want the school to do for your child?—Mrs. Salem Rice, leader (2) Shall we unify our school districts?—Mrs. Pierpont Buck, leader; (3) What do you want in your school buildings? — Arne Anderson, leader; and (4) How do you want to pay for your schools?—George Wood, leader.

With Pierpont Buck as discussion group leader, results from each table were reported on to the general assembly and a further evaluation was made.

A slate of officers for the coming year presented by nominating committee chairman Mrs. Hugh James consisted Jof Mesdames Horace Schwartz president; Grant Lippitt, first vice president; Robert Loeb, second vice president; Taber Kopan, treasurer; and John Thomson, secretary.

Anderson announced that a new civic affairs group called "VIG," standing for "Voters' Information Group" emerged as a result of interest and activity stimulated by the informative series of programs.

Coffee was served during the evening by hospitality chairman Mrs. Richard Kemp and second grade room mothers, Mrs. Weld Wilke and Mrs. Maurice Leonard.

Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae Aid Marindale School

An interesting morning was spent recently by members of the Marin Zeta Alumnae in visiting the Marindale School in Terra Linda which is maintained for the orthopedically handicapped.

Pleasure was derived by the members in assisting the teachers and aiding in folk dances with the children. The eagerness to participate and willingness of each child to do his best were an inspiration to the alumnae. Additions to the record library of the school have been purchased and sewing machines will soon be installed to construct sturdy, removable doll clothes for the five dolls which have been acquired for presentation to the younger children in the school.

As a national philanthropy Zeta Tau Alpha has produced a Teaching Aid Manual for cerebral palsied children, for distribution to the audio-visual departments of schools, to special schools, doctors, therapists and others working with these children. Thousands of these manuals have been distributed in the United States but so many requests have come from other countries that they are now being sent abroad in quantity. The fraternity has also produced a set of filmstrips entitled "A Child's Road to Independence" which many alumnae groups have purchased and presented to school departments and societies for crippled children throughout the United States.

The last meeting of the Marin Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae group was a dessert-bridge-games evening at the home of Mrs. D. R. Mitchell in Lucas Valley.

Those present were Miss Kay Causey and Mrs. Bobby Yankey of Sausalito; and Mesdames Vernon Baumann of San Rafael, Aden Cuykendall of Corte Madera, Robin Galloway of Kentfield, Richard Hill of San Anselmo, Mitchell of Lucas Valley, and Daniel Strohl of Marinwood. All Zetas living in the county who would like to join the group are invited to contact Mrs. Hill.

Wise Words For Parents, Baby Sitters

COLUMBUS, O. (UPI)—A family's attitude determines the kind of job a baby sitter does, says an extension specialist.

The more accurate information given the baby sitter, the better the results, according to John Shultz, of Ohio State University.

Parents should tell sitters how to lock and unlock doors, where to find main switches, telephones, and children's clothing and how to regulate furnaces.

The child's routine also is important, he said. The sitter should understand what time the child goes to bed, if he says prayers, if a light is left on in the room or hall, and if the window should be open.

Parents must make it clear whether the sitter's friends are allowed, and whether she may use the telephone, radio, and television or raid the refrigerator.

Also leave a note giving a number where you can be reached, the hour you expect to return, and the name of a responsible neighbor in case of emergency. Finally, Shultz added, arrange for safe return of the baby sitter to her home.

Easter Bonnet Sets Party Table Theme

By DOROTHY ROE

An unusual, dramatic table centerpiece gets the party off to a gala start. If you are serving an after-church brunch on Easter Sunday, let the Easter bonnet set the theme for you table.

Local sewing center experts suggest you make a centerpiece hat of felt in springtime violet. Set the crown over a low bowl and cut tiny holes in it to hold fresh flowers, so their stems are in water. Scalloping shears used around the edge of the hat and on its ribbon give a decorative scalloped edge.

To make the hat, cut a circle of felt about 18 inches in diameter. Cut a four-inch circle out of the center. Cut a strip three inches wide and as long as necessary to form the crown of the hat. Stitch to the four-inch circle of felt and to the brim. Add a slender roll of tissue paper to under-section of crown, to keep it in shape. Use scalloping shears along sides of a piece of ribbon and tie around crown of hat.

Now set the hat over a low bowl. With sharp, pointed scissors, make holes in the crown and stick fresh flowers in the hat, with stems reaching the water.

School Groups Tour Hospital

Several school groups have recently taken advantage of the tours conducted by the Pink Ladies at Marin General Hospital. Thirty members of Zander's sixth grade group from Alto School in Mill Valley were recent visitors, and Mr. H. D. Hildebrandt's Physiology Club of San Rafael High School also visited the hospital. Members of the club who attended were Mary Beth Garrison, Lenola Winnie, Karen Erickson, Bob Zunino, May Erickson and Rosemary Cook.

The Ke-Ta-Kin Campfire Girls under the leadership of Mrs. Harold Sharrow of San Anselmo enjoyed a tour conducted by Mrs. Jack Stephens. Mrs. Sharrow's group included Linda Green, Prudence Parker, Peggy Woodard, Mary Ann Wall, Jane Sharrow, Pat Buthe, Valerie Reyburn and Sonna Franceschi.

A trophy will be awarded to each of the two troops who sell the greatest number of cases per girl. The trophies are perpetual and are inscribed each year. All girls who sell two dozen boxes or more will be invited to attend a theater party at the Sequoia Theater in Mill Valley, May 9. In addition to the movie, awards will be presented and a program of community singing will follow.

Watch The Soap

Don't oversoap when doing the family laundry. It is almost impossible to rinse clothes properly when an overdose of washing compounds have been used. This poor rinsing causes a build up of gray or yellow residue on garments.

Original Founder Pays Visit To Club On Birthday

A delightful surprise to the members of the Sausalito Woman's Club was the appearance at the recent Founders' Day Luncheon of Miss Fannie Shoobert, the last of the original 10 founders of the club.

Miss Shoobert presented to the club a birthday gift on the occasion of its 46th birthday. The gift was a beautiful antique 'wassail' bowl which had been in the Shoobert family for many years, and "now it has found a home," she said in presenting it.

This was Miss Shoobert's first appearance in many years at the club as she is unable to get about as much as she used to. She was greeted by many of her old friends who knew her when she was an active member of the club and by the newer members.

Mrs. Richard Phillips, general chairman for the Founders' Day celebration, arranged for Miss Shoobert's outing and surprise visit to the club.

Miss Shoobert was delightfully entertaining telling stories about the club and on herself and family "in the early days." Tiring from the day's unusual festivities, she was unable to stay for the "little Jinxies," as she called the annual Founders' Day program. The club members gave her a standing ovation when she left.

AMATEUR CAMERA STUDY—This still-life, photographed in College of Marin sculpture class, is typical of better work of students in intermediate photography class of the college's adult school. Carroll Stoerker of San Rafael bounced his flash off the ceiling to bring out the texture of the clay. This and other photos on this page were taken by photography students as class work at the college.

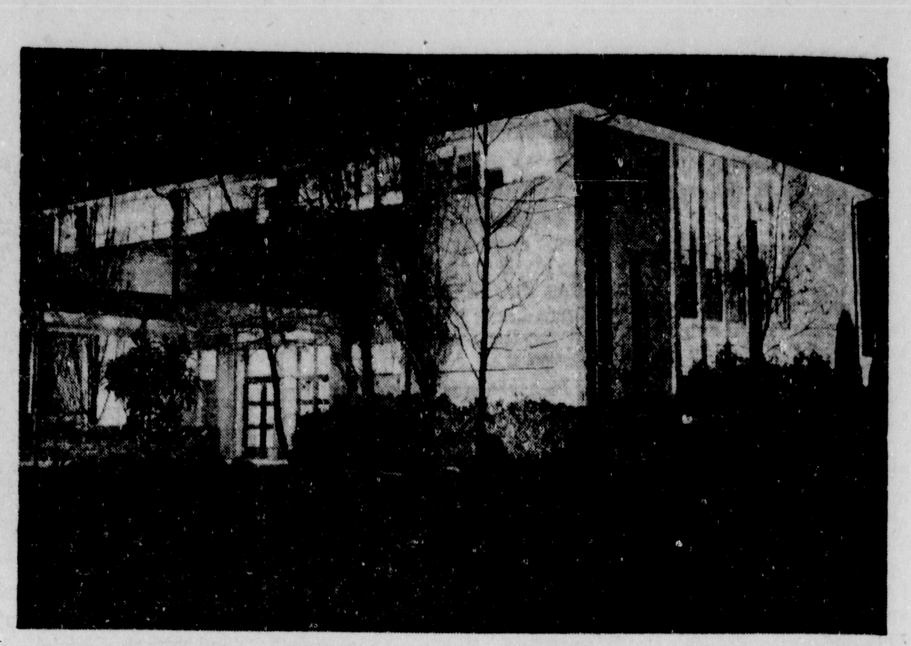

NO TIME TO SMILE—A study in concentration is this beginning typing student at College of Marin, pictured candidly by existing light. Typing is but one of a number of business courses beginning spring quarter next week in the adult school program.

SHINES BY NIGHT—A class assignment in advanced flash technique resulted in this well illuminated view of the College of Marin art department. Exposure was made for the interior lights while four students triggered flashbulbs up close to the building to put detail in the exterior. This is one wing of the art building.

Marin Adults Go To School

College of Marin adult school will open its spring quarter Monday evening.

Registration for spring quarter classes will be accepted until Saturday, April 4, said Dr. Samuel N. LeCount, director of adult education. Tuition is $4 per student per class, payable at the first meeting of the class. The only courses with no charge are those in citizenship training and English for the foreign-born.

The college office is open this week to answer questions regarding the adult program.

Molino's intermediate photography class will have its first spring quarter session Wednesday at 7 p.m. A basic photography class taught by Arthur Strout will start its spring schedule Monday at 7 p.m.

SKILLFUL HANDS—Another Smickler photo in one of the college's pottery classes. Students were encouraged to work in close and find pictures where they might not have realized they existed. The well-equipped pottery department becomes a favorite subject for existing light photos.

SEEMS TO BE A PROBLEM—Dennis McCarthy, an intermediate photography student, caught up with this pensive young lady in crafts class, using flash and a twin lens reflex. This class offers individual help to students in a variety of arts and crafts.

MURAL-SIZE CANVAS OF HIGH SIERRA

"High Sierra From Mt. Whitney," painted by Ray Strong of Mill Valley, shows the artist's skill in adapting naturalistic forms to abstract design. This and more than 30 other Strong canvases will be exhibited at one-man show at Maxwell Galleries in San Francisco, which started Tuesday and ends April 13. Included in exhibition will be small field sketches from which the artist composes his larger works. One of Strong's best-known paintings, "Golden Gate Bridge Under Construction," hangs in the White House in Washington, D.C. His works also may be seen at Lassen, Rainier and White Sands National Parks.

Speaking Contest Set For April 3

Student speakers from Redwood and Marin Catholic High Schools will compete April 3 in San Rafael in the Lions Club regional student speakers' contest.

The winner from the Marin region in the 22nd annual contest will go on to district competition May 8 at Hoberg's Resort in Lake County.

The student talks are to be based on some phase of the subject "Complacency, a Danger to America."

John Chambers of Kentfield, a junior at Redwood High School, will represent the Corte Madera Lions Club. Melinda Krause, a Marin Catholic High School student, will be Kentfield Lions Club's entry. Deanna Denman of San Rafael, also a Marin Catholic student, will represent San Rafael Lions Club.

The competition will be started about 8 p.m. at the Mission Inn in San Rafael. The contestants and club officials will meet at the inn at 7 p.m. for dinner. Deputy District Governor Arthur Robetson of Novato will preside.

The winner of the competition at Hoberg's will compete in an area contest. The winners from the four areas in California and Nevada will compete for the District 4 championship, top prize in which will be a $1,500 scholarship.

Discipline Worries Neophyte Teachers

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A University of California professor says prospective teachers worry more about discipline than other problems as they prepare for their first teaching assignment.

Dr. Lawrence E. Vredevoe, professor of education at the university's Los Angeles campus, says he has questioned more than 5,000 administrators, teachers and students on school problems.

When he recently asked 3,000 prospective teachers, "What gives you greatest concern or worry as you plan for your first teaching position?" 2,480 answered, "Discipline."

Administrators also gave as the chief reason for dismissal or failure to recommend teachers for re-employment as problems coming under the "discipline" classification.

20 Million Visit Beaches, Parks

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A record 20 million people visited California's state beaches and parks in 1958.

That five and one-half million more than the state's total population, and almost four million more than went to the parks in 1957.

Nine new parks, four beaches and six historical monuments were operating in 1958, making the total 52 parks, 22 beaches and 21 monuments.

Ballot Court Bills Favored

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Two bills designed to speed up California's painfully slow election ballot count have been approved by an Assembly committee under a procedure which virtually assures passage through the lower house.

The measures, authored by Assemblyman Robert Crown (D-Almaeda), were passed by the Elections Committee yesterday and placed on the consent calendar.

Crown explained his bills would permit county clerks to divide the ballot into partisan and non-partisan offices. He said this would permit easier electronic vote counting.

"In addition," Crown said, "it would permit the press to obtain the results of partisan elections sooner.

The measures were supported by California newspapers.

Coffee Shop Sale Not Complete Yet

Plans for purchase of the Village Fair Coffee Shop in Sausalito and the creation of a mezzanine floor ice cream parlor are still in the preliminary stage, according to David K. Orthwein of Sausalito, potential purchaser of the business.

A report in the Independent-Journal that Orthwein has purchased the shop from Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rose was premature, Orthwein stated. He said papers on the transaction are in escrow.

Great Universities Debase Selves By Hiring Athletes

The University of California won a great victory over the weekend in capturing the national championship in the tournament at Louisville.

Nobody could take that away from the team; nobody should want to.

But we can't help throwing just a little cold water on the enthusiasm of some of Cal's officialdom.

U.C. Chancellor Glenn Seaborg was reported as expressing great pride because "the team is so representative of the student body and ideals of the school.

"It should be obvious that this is not a semi-professional club." This latter refers to Cal's claim that U.C. basketball players receive no remuneration or other special inducements to enroll and play for Cal.

It strikes us that things have reached a sorry state when it becomes unique for a great university to claim an unpaid athletic team.

Chancellor Seaborg must find himself in the inexplicable situation of boasting on the one hand that Cal's basketball team is unpaid, while being party to new football eligibility rules which provide, in effect, for salary increases for football players who, curiously, maintain their official amateur standing as non-professional athletes.

How can we maintain respect for our institutions of higher learning when their officials participate in such hypocrisy?

Institutions of higher learning ought to abandon the evil practice of hiring athletes and the University of California—with "encouragement" from the governor, the legislature and the Board of Regents, if necessary—ought to lead the way back to integrity in college athletics.

A Hint Of Color To Come

The spring wildflowers are coming on now, not in large showy masses yet, but just a hint of color to come. Along highway 101 between San Rafael and the Golden Gate occasional poppies and lupine are blooming.

On the road from Fairfax to Alpine Dam the wild lilac is in full bloom. Shooting stars, milk maids, Indian paintbrush, buttercups and lupine are making small group appearances.

Give Mother Nature a couple more weeks and some of our hills and dales should be literally a carpet of wild flowers. It will be interesting to see what effect the comparatively dry spring has on the flowers. Will they be less abundant than usual?

HOLY THURSDAY

After instituting the Holy Eucharist, the Lord gave an extraordinary discourse to His apostles.

1. "I am the way and the truth, and the life. No man cometh to the Father, but by me." (14:6).
2. "If you love me, keep my commandments." (14:15).
3. "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you." (14:27)
4. "This is my commandment: that you love one another, as I have loved you." (15:12)
5. "If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you." (15:20)
6. "Ask and you shall receive, that your joy may be full." (16:24)
7. "These things I have spoken to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you shall have distress: but have confidence, I have overcome the world." (16:33)

Draw me, O my Redeemer, to Your saving truths and away from the deceptions of man.

If You Want Job To Impress Wife, Don't Let Her Visit Your Office

NEW YORK (AP) — Should a wife be encouraged to visit her husband's office frequently?

Prof. James A. Peterson, a marriage counselor at the University of Southern California, says this is a good idea. He says it would help give wives an appreciation of their husband's problems and pressures on the job.

We don't agree at all. We have another idea. We think every office should hire a 230-pound ex-football tackle as a receptionist.

His duty would be simple. Every time a wife stuck her nose in the door, the receptionist would throw a hammerlock on her, rassle her into the nearest elevator, and push the button marked "Down."

We are somewhat old-fashioned in this matter. We don't say a woman's only place is in the kitchen of her home. But we do say her place definitely is not in her husband's office. And, except for one or two born cowards, every man we know feels pretty much the same way.

Everybody in the office is busy working but her husband. He is sitting there, laughing, with his feet on the desk and seemingly staring at the derriere of a passing stenographer.

THE WIFE'S visit is brief and frigid. Here is a sample of the conversation at home that night.

Wife: "You were the only one loafing."

Husband: "As God is my judge, I'd just put my feet on that desk one second before you came in — just to rest them."

Wife: "But you were laughing."

Husband: "The boss had just told me a joke and gone into his office. When the boss tells a joke, you have to laugh, it's a form of unemployment insurance."

WIFE: "Why were you staring at that pretty stenographer?"

Wife, unconvinced: "Well, I wish someone would pay me money just to sit around and laugh with both feet on the desk. Don't give me any more guff about what a hard life you have at the office. If you ask me, I don't think you'll be there much longer — from the looks of things."

10 YEARS AGO

A plea by the Town of Corte Madera to annex property owned by Charles E. Paganini on Highway 101 was declared null and void by Judge C. A. Paulsen of Trinity County Superior Court after nearly two years of legal tangling. Judge Paulsen rendered the judgment in favor of Paganini, who as president of Carton Label Lithograph Co. of San Francisco, planned to build a million dollar plant and wanted to remain in unincorporated area for tax reasons.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Must Maintain Free Choice

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

One answer to Reader Sherry's question in his Saturday, March 21 letter "Why Recruiting and Draft Both?" is that it affords one of the Four Freedoms, namely, freedom of expression. With only the draft, when one becomes eighteen and a HALF he becomes eligible to go and then by law into the Army. Between ages seventeen and eighteen and a HALF with recruiting he can express his choice of military obligation by voluntarily seeing the Recruiter of his choice. A person will generally do a better job whether it is military or civilian if he is in the line of occupation he likes and can do the best. It is a fundamental expression of our American heritage to be able to serve our country in the branch of the service which will be of mutual advantage to the citizen and his country.

Too Many Wrong Kind Of Trees?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In a certain place we read "there were giants in those days — and also after that."

The latter clause may refer to the giants we have in Marvelous Marin.

Evidentaly what makes the county marvelous are the trees, hills, climate, location, etc.

Now the giants could not very well change the location of our county or the climate, but they could have cut down many trees, and they could have leveled many hills.

However, we have only to look at some of the hills to see that they have planted more trees than they have cut down. Now, along come Tiburoners to plant 10,000 more trees. From the Independent-Journal of October 16, 1958, we learn that wonders in tree planting are proceeding on the Redwood Highway in Sonoma County. Nevertheless, sometimes the wrong kind of trees have been planted in the wrong places.

On one of the writer's trips to the High Sierra, he met some young people coming down from above the timberline. Being enthusiastic, they said, among other things, "and, there are no trees."

Sometimes trees may hide more beautiful ones or an inspiring skyline. The P.G.&E. can tell us how costly it may become to maintain the wrong trees in the wrong place. They will give you free, a beautiful pamphlet listing trees which fit into the right place.

When Dr. Stanley traveled in tropical Africa, he spoke of the green hell. When the natives finally got out, they jumped and shouted for joy because there was a view.

Starting to walk along the Miracle Mile from San Rafael we have mostly a beautiful view of tree-clad hills and the skyline. However, when we reach Sequoia Drive in San Anselmo the case is quite different. The trees are of such a nature, and are treated in such a way that they reveal the ugliness which is beneath, and they hide the beauty of the hills and the skyline above.

CAPITOL REPORT

By JAMES C. ANDERSON

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Farm groups and organized labor are flexing their muscles for an all-out battle over a guaranteed minimum wage — but the man who may be caught in the middle is Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

At the outset of his administration, Democrat Brown asked the Legislature for a $1.25 an hour minimum wage "to assure a worker that he will be paid enough to maintain himself in health and decency."

Backing the bill to the hilt were C. J. Haggerty, the AFL-CIO leader, and Brown's new director of the Department of Industrial Relations, John F. Henning, ex-research director of the AFL-CIO.

ALMOST FROM the day it was introduced, the measure by Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins (D-Los Angeles) became a target for every farm group lobbyist in the capitol.

When the bill finally got its first committee hearing last week, the farmers were ready.

Anticipating the opposition, the Brown administration made the first move. On his own motion and before any testimony had been heard, Hawkins changed his bill so that the minimum wage for Agricultural workers would be only a dollar an hour with a $1.25 figure set for all other adult workers.

But if the Brown administration thought that would satisfy the farm groups. it was mistaken.

The farm lobbyists made two main points:

1. A guaranteed minimum wage "puts a premium on laziness." The farmers explained that under existing piece work rates of pay, a hard - working field hand makes more than the lazy one or inefficient worker. If all were guaranteed $1 an hour, it would be an invitation to loaf.

2. California must compete in the Eastern market with products of southern states where average wages paid farm laborers run as low as 40 cents an hour.

Henning and Hawkins handled the rebuttal which went like this:

"We should never try to remake this state in the image of Alabama, Arkansas or Mississippi," said Henning. "The agricultural worker is most in need of help and assistance."

"How can anyone survive in human decency on less than a dollar an hour," asked Hawkins. "We're talking about a minimum wage less than what people are getting on straight relief."

The Democrats' dilemma is that while they want to stand up and be counted for Brown's program for "responsible liberalism" they still can't overlook or ignore the pressures from the home folks.

In the Senate, particularly, farm groups are going to pull out the stops to get the 27 upper house Democrats to forget the party and the Governor and vote to "save the farmer."

Unanswered Question: Should Voters Decide Civic Center Issue?

ARE MARIN COUNTY Supervisors using steam-roller tactics as they go ahead with plans for a civic center at Santa Venetia or aren't they?

Oor to put the question in more abstuse terms, how frequently may a voter legislate directly and still keep some sort of efficiency in self-government?

This is the problem: The determined foes of a civic center at Santa Venetia (joined by critics of Architect Frank Lloyd Wright who designed it) have advanced the suggestion that the project be placed on the ballot at a special election so that the Marin voter can say yes or no directly.

Wright is now in the process of drawing plans. The first two stages of the civic center, he estimates will cost $2,724,000 or $1,400,000.

The Santa Venetia civic center foes — which include members of the Marin County Taxpayers Assn. and independent, unaffiliated foes — say: The Marin voter should be able to pass on such a large expenditure of money.

(As of this moment, there actually is no way of gauging how many people are opposed to the Santa Venetia civic center.)

ONLY ONE MEMBER of the county board of supervisors has shown any interest in the ballot proposal. That one is Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

Mrs. Evelyn McDougall of Mill Valley, a spokesman for the anti-civic center people, took the supervisors to task this week for committing Marin taxpayers to 12 or 15 million dollars for a civic center (these were her estimates).

Supervisor Vera Schultz replied to Mrs. McDougall. "You can't have direct legislation on every policy decision before the county supervisors," said Mrs. Schultz.

"If the voters do not agree with the board's policy decision, they may retire a member of the board at the next election," pointed out Mrs. Schultz.

But Mrs. McDougall did not like this idea, even if a totally new board of supervisors were elected who wanted to drop the Santa Venetia civic center project. "You're still obligated," she said. "It's expensive to drop it and expensive to carry it on."

"It's been done before," Mrs. Schultz reminded her, apropos of a turnabout on the part of the board of supervisors when they already had plans in hand for a certain project.

COUNTY CLERK George S. Jones agreed that over the years "there have been any number of plans for additions to the court house." On one occasion prior to World War II, a contract had actually been let, but the war started and the project was dropped.

The supervisors postponed a decision on a special civic center referendum by referring the proposal to County Counsel Leland H. Jordan for an opinion.

And the question remains unsettled — should the supervisors refer the proposal to the voters or shouldn't they? Are Marin voters represented directly enough by electing a supervisor from their district once every four years or not?

A great source of annoyance to the Santa Venetia civic center foes is that the supervisors are not forced to go to the polls to get money to finance it. It is being paid for out of current county money, a portion reserved each year out of the county's general fund.

Democrats Unbalance Eisenhower Budget 'Behind The Curtains'

WASHINGTON — Are the Democratic leaders going to be willing to face the Eisenhower balance-the-budget issue head-on and soon in order that the voters may have some say in the outcome?

They are not doing it so far.

THE EFFECT of Democratic speeches and Democratic maneuver is to blur the issue that it will be difficult to determine who has unbalanced the budget, where, and for what reason. And it will come so late in the session that public opinion will have little chance to make itself felt one way or the other.

If the Democrats are going to meet the Eisenhower hold-the-line budget issue and give the voters a chance to support or reject an alternative policy, they must do two things:

1 — They must quit jiggering the budget piece-meal, adding a hunk here, chipping off a corner there, and, instead, offer Congress and the country a coherent, total spending program which they can look at whole and decide whether they want it.

2 — Do it soon enough so that the consequences of the Democrats' national budget—good or bad — can be seen and judged in comparison with the Eisenhower national budget.

WHEN THE President sent his budget to Congress — precariously balanced, but still balanced, with an estimated $70,000,000 surplus — he was beginning to point up a real, fundamental and philosophical difference between the Democratic and Republican parties.

Mr. Eisenhower, even in the face of a $40,000,000,000 defense program, is proposing to hold-the-line on a great deal of Federal spending; he was freezing some programs, cutting others, and proposing little in the way of new or increased public services. He emphasized balancing the budget as a vital end in itself and as a measure to hold inflation.

Here, at last, there appeared to be in the making a basic party divergence of both principle and practice. Most of the Democrats said they wanted to spend more for defense, more for housing, health, aid to education, airports, roads, and aid to distressed areas where unemployment is still high. At the same time many Democrats argued that more Federal spending would promote economic growth and that an unbalanced budget might even be beneficial.

THERE IS NO doubt, I think, that a pretty sizable gulf spreads out between the two parties on this budget-spending issue. But so far it is being fogged by a piecemeal approach and the prospect is that it will be cleared so late in the session that neither Congress nor the country will quite know what's happening before it is too late.

It seems to me that the Democratic majority — or the Democratic Advisory Council — owes it to the country to show openly what they want the public to approve rather than to remake the budget piece-meal behind the curtains.

Four-In-One Vaccine Gets U.S. Blessing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Public Health Service gave its formal blessing today to public use of a four-in-one vaccine against polio, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus.

Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney called a news conference to announce formal approval of the vaccine.

Intensive research on the single vaccine has been made way for several years. The new vaccine will mean fewer injections for youngsters.

Cost of protection against the diseases also will be reduced.

Bus, Bicycle Collide; Boy, 10, Injured

Driver of the bus, Harry Hutton Jr., 32, of 117 Mabry way, San Rafael, saw the boy on a bicycle pull into Magnolia avenue to go around a parked car and swerved his northbound bus to avoid hitting the youngster, reported Larkspur Police Chief Howard A. Clark.

The rear wheel of the bus caught the bike and the boy was flipped to the pavement, Chief Clark said. Both bus and bike-rider were headed north in the evening rush-hour traffic.

The boy was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital.

Crackdown Urged On Delinquency In 'Class' Suburbs

FRESNO (AP)—California's juvenile officers were warned yesterday by Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk not to close their eyes to delinquency in suburbs and better class neighborhoods because of social and political pressures.

Mosk said parents should be made to realize that "keeping youngsters off the record is not keeping them out of trouble."

The attorney general said juvenile drinking, narcotics and sex deviation are on the upswing. He said many youngsters "sport a pseudo-sophisticated attitude that is really nothing more than indifference toward the home, school and church."

He declared that 95 per cent of all delinquency is rooted in the home.

Mrs. Schultz Assails Districts' Proliferation

By JACK EISEN
I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — An "invisible thief" is picking the pockets of Marin County taxpayers, Supervisor Vera Schultz charged here.

She identified the thief as as the proliferation of special districts formed to provide a variety of community services.

Mrs. Schultz said these districts cannot be controlled by the board of supervisors, yet they leave the county government with only 30 cents of each local tax dollar.

The Southern Marin supervisor made the assertions at a panel discussion of the Urban County Congress of the National Assn. of County Officials held here last week.

Mrs. Schultz said her presentation was a "cry of protest" which she had not been able to voice previously.

Her description of the overlapping special districts—nine fire districts, 12 sanitary districts, four community service districts, a recreation district, three public utility districts, a harbor district and a mosquito abatement district — drew astonished laughter from the audience.

So did her ticking off of the increases in tax rates reported for the various fire districts in Southern Marin.

Many of these districts are self-perpetuating and unresponsive to taxpayers, Mrs. Schultz contended.

In some instances, she said, even the names of the supposedly elected commissioners are not known at the courthouse in San Rafael.

She explained the California law that provides for automatic retention in office, without election, of fire commissioners if there is no opposition.

PREPARED PAPER

In a prepared paper that accompanied her presentation, Mrs. Schultz declared:

"Marin's auditor states there is no doubt that the administrative and operational costs of many small districts in our county are far greater than they need to be, due to the duplication of effort that takes place."

Each new addition of a special district or similar device adds to the confusion, she declared.

"The future of Marin County as part of the San Francisco Bay metropolitan area is completely dependent upon how soon or whether the Legislature modernizes the methods by which general-law counties can come to grips with the metropolitan problem without catastrophic tax costs to our residents."

LOCAL LEADERSHIP

She said local leadership is needed but it must be supplemented by "the driving desire of business and industry to achieve reasonable government operation at the local level."

The present system is a straitjacket, she contended.

When Mrs. Schultz finished, the moderator — a county official from New York State — said he was "damn glad" he didn't have to put up with the special district situation.

On a panel that preceded Mrs. Schultz's was a planning expert with a Marin County background, Hugh Pomeroy. Pomeroy prepared the first master plan for Marin County in the 1930s, and later became planning director of another suburban area, Westchester County, N.Y.

Young Holdup Pair Scolded, Sent Home

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two boys accused of attempting bank robbery stood awed and contrite before Juvenile Court Judge Melvin I. Cronin.

He looked sternly at Dan McKay, 9, and Danny Husk, 13, and asked where they got the idea.

"From television," stammered the boys.

Judge Cronin scolded them, lectured the parents and sent them home yesterday. Little Dan and Danny had spent the night in Youth Guidance Center after their arrest Tuesday.

They admitted going to the Bank of America's Mission branch and presented a note demanding $100 under threat to "blow up the bank." The teller, Miss Filamene Miller, shooed them away and told the manager. He called police, who staked out the boys' homes and arrested them after their return from a movie.

Little Dan and Danny said they had only wanted to replenish their supply of play money issued by a bank as a promotion.

YMCA Teen Clubs Discuss Varied Interests At Weekly Sessions

Interests ranging from juvenile drinking to the physical aspects of growing to adulthood motivate the weekly meetings of the 48 teen-age clubs of the YMCA, it was observed today by Brad Bayliss, executive secretary.

"Many parents have asked 'what in the world do they do at these weekly meetings?'" reported Bayliss. In reply, he listed seven typical meetings held by the clubs last week.

"How do we handle problems of teen-agers drinking?" was the question asked last Tuesday night at a joint meeting of the Tri Zemmies Ti Hi-Y of San Rafael and the Psi Gamma Alpha Club of Corte Madera, Larkspur and Mill Valley, both girls clubs. Dr. Samuel LeCount, director of education at College of Marin spoke on the subject.

Drake High School freshmen boys, members of the Gladiators Hi-Y, were given advice that same night by Larry Myer, Mill Valley department store owner, on how to apply for a summer job.

Also Tuesday night, a joint meeting between the Regents Hi-Y, Drake High School sophomore boys, and the Pepperettes, San Rafael High School sophomore girls, concentrated on the problems of highway driving, said Bayliss. Paul Zensius, California Highway Patrolman, was questioned by the two groups.

The physical development of boys and girls and looking ahead to marriage was discussed by Dr. Eugenia Hayes Wednesday night before a meeting of the Doowder Seituaebs, senior girls at Redwood High school.

"Phases of Dating" evoked the interest of the Stags Hi-Y members, sophomore boys at Redwood High, and the Y Teenettes, sophomore girls at San Rafael High at a meeting Wednesday.

The Corte Madera Woodchoppers Hi-Y and the Pharoahs Hi-Y of Redwood High watched a color movie Wednesday on the work of the "Y That Wouldn't Die," commented on by Mrs. Charles Stumpf of San Rafael, a delegate to the World YMCA Centennial in Paris in 1955.

Margaret Karenke, an exchange student attending San Rafael High School from Germany was the special guest of the Calico Cats, senior girls, and the Gremlins, sophomore boys of that school at a joint meeting Wednesday in Santa Venetia.

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (UPI)—Evangelist Billy Graham will be fit and well for his New Zealand crusade, fellow American evangelist Dr. Grady Wilson said today.

He said Graham was brown as an Indian as result of his vacationing at an Australian beach resort and "yesterday he told me his eye was the best he had had it for nine months. He could read clearly and see almost everything."

Graham developed an eye ailment before he went to Australia but nevertheless held one of his most successful crusades there.

Piaf Cancels S.F. Visit

NEW YORK (UPI) — French torch singer Edith Piaf, who was operated on for an intestinal block Tuesday night, may be able to leave the hospital in 10 days to two weeks, her physicians said today.

Miss Piaf, 43, was said to be recovering satisfactorily from the operation at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center. It was her second operation within a month, following previous surgery for a bleeding gastric ulcer.

Miss Piaf's relapse forced cancellation of several engagements, including an appearance on the Ed Sullivan television show and four weeks at the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco, starting April 9.

Pilots Shoot Walruses

CHITOSE, Japan (AP)—Japan's air force today carried out its first combat mission since World War II—against invading walruses.

There were no confirmed kills.

The air force went into action after fishermen in the area claimed the walruses were wrecking their nets and eating the fish.

Another shoot is scheduled Friday.

History Strikes Twice

SITKA, Alaska (AP) — Sitka's Castle Hill, one of this huge state's most historic spots, will again become the scene of a history-making event July 4.

It was on Castle Hill on Oct. 18, 1867, that Czarist Russia formally signed over to the United States the vast, unexplored territory of Alaska for 7 million dollars.

Next July 4, state officials said the first 49-star flag in this newest state will be raised on Castle Hill.

Falls 3 Floors, Lives

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A 2-year-old boy fell to the sidewalk from the third floor of an apartment house yesterday but escaped with facial cuts.

Gerald Wayne Lee fell out of a window when the screen gave way. The screen came down too and apparently cushioned Gerald's fall.

A 'Right' To Strip?

Twins Survive

LONDON (UPI) — The 11-month-old Thackeray Siamese twins, separated Monday in a 10-hour operation, showed slight improvement today, doctors reported.

The twins, Jeremy and Timothy, were joined at the head at birth. A third brother was normal and has been restored to his parents.

Jeremy and Timothy were sleeping in separate oxygen tents under the effects of heavy doses of drugs. They will be kept under sedation until the effects of the operation wear off, doctors reported.

Yesterday doctors expressed fears that the life of Jeremy was "in the balance," but a hospital spokesman said he "has surprised and delighted us all" in his struggle to survive.

Mill Valley's Classroom Needs Cited

The report of a "fact-finding committee" headed by former Mill Valley Mayor William A. Hamilton on the need for a $600,000 Mill Valley School District bond issue was presented today to the committee urging passage of the issue.

Declaring that "enrollment of pupils should determine the need of classrooms," the report notes that "average increase in enrollment in the past three years has been 133 new pupils per year," and "over the past 10 years, the average increase has been 156 pupils per year."

FIVE PER YEAR

It notes that "at an average of 39 pupils per room, this requires the addition of approximately five classrooms per year."

The proposed bond issue anticipates addition of 20 classrooms in the next three years.

The report notes also "out of 93 classrooms in use, six are substandard," and that "for further expansion, there remain only three available additional rooms, with one of these substandard."

The report notes further that "it appears from the figures supplied this committee, the district is not eligible for a state loan in this expansion program because it is not bonded to capacity."

NO TAX HIKE

A report from the district's accountants is quoted, which holds that bond redemption could be handled in such a way as to avoid a tax increase.

Committee members, besides Hamilton, were William J. Smith, an engineer and president of the Mill Valley Area taxpayers Assn.; J. W. Bertenshaw, architect; Mrs. John R. Adams, member of the Tamalpais Valley Parent-Teacher Assn.; Arnold J. Oehler, retired auditor and member of the taxpayers association, and Robert C. Cook, executive of California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corp. and member of the Mill Valley Library Board.

Brown Signs Appointment, Refund Bills

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday signed into law a measure giving him power to appoint the chief of the Division of Beaches and Parks.

He also signed a bill permitting property tax refunds for any church which failed to file a loyalty oath to obtain an exemption in 1958. Both laws take effect immediately.

The chief of beaches and parks has been appointed by the director of natural resources from nominees chosen by the state Park Commission. In the new law, the governor will name the chief on recommendation of the director.

The measure was introduced by Assemblyman Jesse Unruh (D-Los Angeles), approved in the Senate 30-2 and in the Assembly 69-10.

Abolition of the loyalty oath for church exemptions from the property tax, written by Assemblyman Glenn Coolidge (R-Felton) complies with a ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court. The Assembly passed it unanimously and the Senate 33-1.

Reed Board Authorizes Bonds Sale

Reed Union School District trustees Tuesday authorized sale of $20,000 worth of bonds to pay for connection of Reed School sewers to the Tiburon Sanitary District lines.

Reed School now uses Belvedere's sewer facilities. Belvedere has served notice on the school district that it must make other arrangements.

Trustees vetoed board participation in a proposed county-wide school district unification survey because "to start another study while the Tamalpais High School District unification survey is in progress would be premature."

Tenure status was approved for seven teachers; 24 teachers were re-employed on an annual basis. The resignation of Robert Tremmerling, eighth grade Reed School teacher, was accepted.

Merchants Give More To League

The Fairfax Merchants Assn. decided yesterday noon to contribute $50 to the Little League as a sponsor, an increase of $25 over last year, reported Mrs. Evelyn Benson, secretary.

Plans are being laid for the association's annual merchants' dinner, open to the public, on April 28 at Rubini's Restaurant in Fairfax. Arrangements for the 7 p.m. dinner are being made by William T. Benson.

The 8 p.m. meeting will be held at Brookside School in San Anselmo, announced Supt. Harold R. DePue.

Dominican Presents Sacred Music

By MARTHA BRUCKNER

Palm Sunday, Dominican College of San Rafael presented a concert of sacred music featuring the student chorus of the college and the Dominican College Chamber Singers, both under direction of Winifred Baker, assistant professor of music.

The main work of the concert was Guilio Silva's "The Hound of Heaven," a cantata for women's voices, soprano solo, baritone solo and chamber orchestra.

Silva, who was for about 10 years director of music at Dominican College and now lives in Novato, was apparently inspired to this composition by his teaching at the college, and the delicate sound of the women's chorus and must have appealed to him to achieve a certain unearthly expression. The appealing and melodious composition, however, does not center around the chorus but around the soprano solo, even more so in this particular performance because of the exquisite voice of Gwen Curatilo of San Rafael. Her soprano is warmer and mellower than sopranos usually are, and at the same time very light and expressive.

The chamber orchestra sounded well. Even the violins —except for a few off-key flaws — had acquired a new lusciousness. Silva knows how to write for instruments so they sound their best.

After the performance, the composer, a brisk octogenarian, appeared in person on the stage to express thanks for the vivacious applause.

In the beginning of the concert the Dominican College Chamber Singers rendered a cultivated performance of Brahms' Psalm 13, Op. 27.

The programs are scheduled for Saturday night in Los Angeles and Sunday afternoon in San Francisco and Sacramento.

Senate Resolution Honors Heroism Of Mill Valleyan

The heroism of a Mill Valley telephone man J. Stanley Woodward has been officially recognized by the State of California.

In a resolution introduced by Sen. John F. McCarthy and unanimously adopted by the California Senate, Woodward was honored for his rescue in December, 1957, of a man who had blacked out while working in a tall tree in Mill Valley.

The resolution referred to the act as "an outstanding feat of humanitarian bravery," and stated: "This state is indeed fortunate to have citizens of the caliber of Mr. J. Stanley Woodward who are resourceful, skilled, and able, and at the same time willing to undergo personal danger in order to be of service to their fellowmen."

California produces more than 90 per cent of the nation's lemons, almonds, artichokes, walnuts, olives, dates, prunes, tomatoes, lettuce, figs and brussels sprouts.

Stumped! Heavy Petting Theory, 'School Phobia' Puzzle Parents

Mrs. L. C. "I'm stumped. I know I should give my daughter some scientific advice about her conduct with boys. But how can a mother tell her girl that heavy petting is a valuable preparation for marriage? I've read books which said so. Yet I can't bring myself to tell her. Will you help me?"

Reply. I've read those books. I'm sorry you take them so seriously. They're based on the unverified chatter of women who asked for the privilege of discussing their intimate lives with research men I believe the conclusions given in the books are not valid. The advice you suggest would be dangerous. Don't give it.

Mrs. T. A. "Our girl gets sick with fear when we make her go to school. After being sick she goes into a dreamy state, and we can't get through to her. We've whipped her dozens of times. It makes her worse. A school psychologist said she had a 'school phobia.' What on earth is that?"

Reply. A school phobia is a deep, irrational fear of school. It is comparable to claustrophobia, or fear of being enclosed. It is a symptom of serious emotional problems. The problems may or may not center in school. Be sure your girl is studied and treated by a psychiatrist. Meantime, don't force her to go to school. Genuine school phobia is rare. Maybe one child in 10,000 has it.

Mr. H. G. "Our son is 3. When we punish him he thinks we're just getting even with him. Then he tries to get even with us. What can we do?"

Reply. Explain the reasons for your punishment clearly. Set up practical standards and rules for him to follow. Be consistent with him. Use reasonable rewards. Praise his good behavior. Always use the mildest punishment that will do the trick. Try to have the punishment come as a natural consequence of his mistakes, not as a whim from you. He'll catch on.

"In the Rhubarb, everybody's a star!"

Such is the description of performers in the "Rhubarb Revue" set for its fifth annual presentation April 10-11 and 17-18 at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club on Maple street.

More than 40 persons are in the cast, director-producer Laurie Tusup announced today, many of them doubling as scene painters, carpenters, electricians, sound men and workers in props, costumes and makeup.

With admission restricted to adults, the always-popular production will present an informal atmosphere including beer, pretzels and "set-ups."

For the first time, the "Rhubarb Revue" is being scheduled for a second weekend. "We don't like to turn people away," ticket chairman Kurt Helmshaedter announced, "but we must remind our many Rhubarb repeaters that our house capacity is 200 seats — and that's why we decided on a second weekend.

Dances in the performance are under direction of Shirley Taldo, star of previous "Rhubarbs," aided by Kim Badger, former member of several ballet companies. Bernard Healey is art director.

The event is to raise funds for the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club building fund.

Bill Would Control Trading Stamps

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assembly yesterday passed 46-21 a bill to require stores which advertise trading stamps to give them on all items not specifically excluded in the advertising.

"All this bill asks is that the merchant honestly advertise what he does," said Assemblyman S. C. Masterson (D-El Sobrante), the author.

The store would have to include in the advertisement or post a list of items on which stamps are not given.

It's here and only Standard has it—an entirely new grade of gasoline so far ahead in octane and other qualities... it's unequalled!

CUSTOM SUPREME

Now there are three great Chevrons to cover the octane needs of all cars far more exactly than two grades possibly can. Everyone gets a better buy because every motorist can get all the power and performance his car can deliver—without paying for higher-octane gasoline than it really needs.

Why Standard now offers three grades of gasoline

For many years, only two grades of gasoline—"regular" and "premium"—have been needed to satisfy the power requirements of automobile engines.

But today, the power demands of the new cars are so exacting that a new problem has arisen:

If premium grade gasolines are continually increased in octane, millions of premium-users whose cars do not require these extra octanes, will be paying for "the other fellow's" power needs.

The solution is clearly three grades of gasoline:

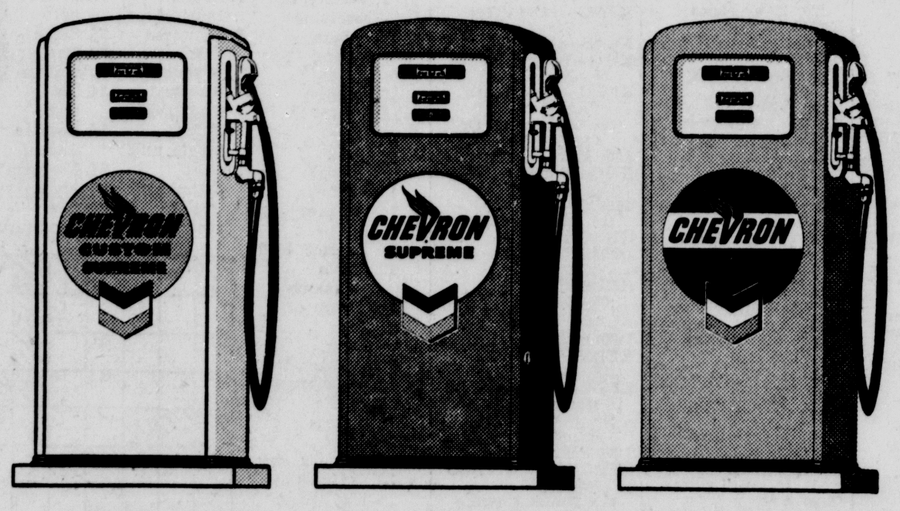

(1) an unequalled new grade of gasoline for the highest-compression cars.

(2) a powerful premium grade for late-model cars that do not need extra high octane. Full performance without having to buy a higher-octane gasoline than is really needed.

(3) a higher-octane economy grade for all cars that run on "regular."

Clean burning, of course, with all three new Chevrons. And one is just right for you in power, performance and price.

As fast as possible, we're bringing the new three grades to stations throughout your area.

exclusive Chevron Custom Supreme ... a new grade of gasoline for the highest-compression cars that need a clean burning gasoline far more powerful than any available until now. Delivers unequalled performance and unequalled value!

powerful Chevron Supreme ...the West's biggest-selling premium for late-model cars that do not need extra high octane. Motorists get full performance in a clean burning gasoline without having to buy octanes they do not really need.

economy Chevron ... a new, more powerful money-saver for the owners of all cars that run on "regular" grade gasoline. Clean burning Chevron gasoline gives these motorists new high octane—and better performance—at the regular price.
